Fund Sought For Vote On School Levy

SALINEVILLE—A campaign to raise at least $1,300 for a special election for a Southern Local School District operating levy has been launched by a citizens' committee seeking to solve the district's financial problems.

Some 100 attended a 3½-hour meeting Thursday night at the Southern Local High School at which school finances and needs were discussed and plans mapped to solve the problems.

JACK HISCOX of near Lisbon, coordinator of the five-area district citizens' group, presided.

Representatives of the committee studied the school financial records and affairs Friday night and reported there is a need for funds for maintenance of buildings and to upgrade the educational program.

A proposed new 4.5-mill levy has been rejected by voters twice this year and the board of education and school officials have scheduled a double-shift session of classes and closing of three elementary structures in a move to operate within current funds.

The citizen's group last night agreed to seek money to pay for the proposed special election which would cost between $1,300 and $1,500. It is hoped the balloting can be held Jan. 12 or some time early in January.

The committee is expected to meet with the board of education Wednesday night to formally request the election.

It is hoped at least $1,000 can be raised by the time of the board meeting, and anyone wishing to donate money is urged to do so as soon as possible, Hiscox said.

FUND chairmen for the five areas are Glenn Duck for No. 16, Mrs. Wanda Pisarsky for Highlandtown, James Raffle for Salineville, George McPherson for Franklin and Carl Pennell for Wayne.

Discussion last night centered on financial needs for building repairs, improvement of the overall education program, the possible loss of teachers due to the scheduled double-shift schedule and the inconvenience and travel hazard of the double-shift plan.

The double shift plan involved closing of the No. 16, Franklin and Wayne Schools, with classes for students in grades 1 through 6 and to be held from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and students in grades 7 through 12 from 1 to 7 p.m.

The plan originally was set to begin Dec. 5, but a six-week extension was authorized to allow additional time for the citizens' group and the board to seek a solution to the fund needs.

One of the hazards of the double-shift plan pointed out was the transportation of pupils on buses at night.

Rusk Again Hits Delays In Bombing

Secretary Begins Round Of Talks In South Viet Capital

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) —Secretary of State Dean Rusk began a round of conferences on the Vietnam war today after again ruling out a prolonged suspension of the bombing of North Vietnam unless Hanoi indicates it will reciprocate.

"We have told them many times that if they tell us what they've stopped doing, we can consider stopping the bombing," Rusk told newsmen on his arrival from Formosa for a three-day stay.

"We can't stop just half the way. They've got to stop their half of it."

The secretary predicted the Communists will have to talk peace because "they will not be able to succeed" on the battlefield. He said he was "greatly encouraged" by improvements in the situation in Vietnam. But he added: "I have no indication from the other side that they're interested in moving this problem to the conference table."

Rusk landed at Tan Son Nhut airport amid unusually stiff security precautions after a Viet Cong attack on the airport last weekend.

He then drove to the residence of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and plunged into a series of briefings.

Rusk will be here until Sunday, then will fly to Bangkok. He is en route to the meeting in Paris of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's ministerial council next week.

Strike Near Saigon And North Area

Enemy Ground Fire Downs One Plane In North, 2 In South

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Waves of B52 bombers struck Communist positions in South Viet Nam today in three raids that ranged from near Saigon to the northern edge of the country.

As the bombers flew in from their Guam base, U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk arrived in Saigon and discounted chances of a prolonged pause in American bombing raids over North Viet Nam.

"We can't just stop half the war," Rusk told newsmen, "They've got to stop their half of it."

In one raid on the North Thursday, U.S. fighter-bombers were attacked by Communist MIG interceptors only six miles northeast of the center of Hanoi. The MIGs fired heat-seeking air-to-air missiles but failed to score hits, a U.S. spokesman said.

He reported, however, that one U.S. plane was shot down by Communist ground fire over North Viet Nam and two more were shot down in South Viet Nam.

Ground action in South Viet Nam continued light with both the U.S. and Vietnamese military commands reporting only minor engagements.

Two of the contacts were close to Saigon where allied forces are embarked on a new campaign to clear the Viet Cong from jungle bases from which they mount terror attacks on the capital.

The B52s in their first raid struck before dawn in Viet Cong-infested Tay Ninh Province, hitting enemy trenches, bunkers, foxholes and suspected troop areas 30 miles northwest of Saigon.

U.S., Soviet In Accord

Space Pact Path To A-Spread Ban

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Some U.N. diplomats believe the new U.S.-Soviet agreement to ban war and weapons from outer space can open the way to a pact to halt the spread of nuclear weapons.

The agreement announced Thursday by President Johnson was welcomed at the U.N. as a major breakthrough in a 10-year battle for an international legal code to govern space exploration.

"It is the most important arms control development since the limited test ban treaty of 1963," Johnson said, referring to the earlier pact barring testing in the atmosphere, which most nations have ratified.

He predicted the new treaty would "prevent warlike preparations on the moon and other celestial bodies" while guaranteeing "free access to all areas and installations" in space.

Diplomats at the U.N. also viewed the agreement as a good omen for accord on another major issue now under negotiation — a treaty to halt the spread of nuclear weapons to nations that don't have them. No agreement on this is expected, however, until the 17-nation disarmament talks resume in Geneva early in 1967.

In announcing the agreement from the Texas White House, Johnson expressed hope that the United States will be one of the first countries to ratify the space treaty.

The treaty, now in the hands of the 28-nation U.N. subcommittee on outer space that drafted it, must be approved next by the General Assembly. Quick approval is expected.

It will take effect when ratified by five governments, including the Soviet Union, Britain and the United States.

Basically, the treaty declares the moon, other celestial bodies and outer space to be free for exploration and use by all countries and subject to the national sovereignty of none.

Joint Communique

France, Soviet Say War Endangers Viet Neighbor

PARIS (AP)—France and the Soviet Union declared today the war in Vietnam endangers that country's neighbors and is "the principal obstacle to the relaxation of international tensions" and "lasting peaceful relations among numerous countries."

In a joint communique released six hours after Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin flew home after a nine-day state visit, the two governments said they deplored the Vietnam war as "a situation whose gravity is the result of external intervention."

Although the source of the intervention was not identified, previous statements left no doubt the United States was meant. Kosygin said repeatedly during his visit that America is guilty of aggression in Vietnam.

"Once again," the communique said, "the two governments note that the operations of war in Vietnam continue to intensify without letup and that the human and material losses continue to grow."

The war occupied a large part of the conversations between Kosygin and French President Charles de Gaulle, and the joint declaration noted the two governments would continue "to exchange their views on this question."

It said both nations are firm in their attachment to the principles of the U.N. Charter and "were fully resolved" to use all of the U.N.'s possibilities to spare present and future generations "from the calamities of atomic war."

Describing discussions on disarmament and the spread of nuclear weapons, the communique said the two leaders "recognized once more that it was necessary that the powers possessing these weapons discuss the proper means to assure true disarmament."

They described nuclear problems as being of "capital importance"—not only the nondissemination of atomic arms but also the banning of their manufacture and the destruction of existing stockpiles.

Scranton Bid For Romney In 1968 Seen

Michigan's Leader Hasn't Made Up Mind On Running

NEW YORK (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney headed today for the Republican governors conference in Colorado Springs, Colo., where Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania reportedly plans to seek support for Romney for the 1968 GOP presidential nomination.

Romney, in New York Thursday told newsmen he hadn't made up his mind about running for the presidency yet.

Scranton was quoted by the Washington Post as saying now is the time for Romney to begin his campaign. Scranton added, however, that Romney "never asked me for my support and I've never pledged it to him."

The Washington Post quoted Scranton as saying he is going to the conference with the avowed goal of getting "as many Republican governors as possible to say, at least privately, 'We're for George (Romney) — at least until he proves to us he can't do the job.'"

An Associated Press survey of opinion among 34 Republican governors and governors-elect in advance of the opening of the conference today showed that the bulk of those polled appeared — at least publicly — to be in no hurry to climb aboard any Romney bandwagon. Most of them took a wait-and-see attitude in the survey.

While Romney said he hadn't made up his mind, he seemed to some observers to be already on the 1968 campaign trail when he lashed out at the Johnson administration. He said he had no confidence in what it said about Vietnam.

The "whole facts" on Vietnam, Romney said, are not available in the United States.

He told the news conference he might have to visit Japan, the Philippines, England, France and Germany before he made specific proposals on Vietnam.

Ship Death Toll Revised To 235

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Shipping officials revised the toll in the sinking of the ferry Heraklion to 235 dead or missing today and expressed fear that a number of unlisted last-minute passengers may have been aboard.

Hope was fading that there would be more survivors than the 46 brought in by darkness Thursday. Thursday night 49 survivors were reported, but the ministry of merchant marine said three of those were later found to be bodies.

Rescue ships kept up their search through the night and today and found 23 more bodies, bringing the total recovered to more than 40.

Officials directing recovery operations at Piraeus, the port of Athens, said many persons may have boarded at the last minute and paid their fare after the ferry got under way from Crete. They said naval students from Canea, on the island of Crete often ride without being recorded on passenger lists.

The 8,900-ton Herkalion sank swiftly in a raging storm at 2 a.m. Thursday, midway on an overnight crossing from Crete to Piraeus with 206 passengers officially listed and 75 in the crew. By Thursday night, rescue ships picked up 49 survivors and 17 bodies.

Twelve more bodies were recovered today.

Crewmen told rescuers trucks and cars, torn from their lashings as the 17-year-old ship tossed in the storm, smashed loading doors that had been weakened by waves. They said a 16-ton refrigerator trailer battered open a bow door and the Aegean Sea, whipped up by 75-to 100-mile winds, poured in.

GOP Governors Launch Work On Organization

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Republican governors, demanding a party role to match their bolstered numbers, went to work today to build an organization that could propel one of them into the GOP presidential nomination.

Their potential leaders were not saying which one — although Michigan's Gov. George Romney clearly is the front runner among them, as he is in the public opinion polls.

Colorado Gov. John A. Love and Rhode Island's John H. Chafee, both seeking the chairmanship of the Republican Governors' Assocation, agreed that the 25 GOP state executives should seek to line up behind a single candidate for the White House.

With broad, if not unanimous agreement, Chafee told a joint news conference Thursday night, the governors can control the selection of the party's 1968 candidate.

He said the governors also should work to make sure that the next Republican platform embraces imaginative proposals for "new solutions to the many old problems."

Chafee said the governors should take an active role in the selection of their state delegations to the next national convention. And he said they should decide "early in the game" who they want nominated.

"I have no first choice now," he said.

Love said he believes the next nominee will be a governor.

"We have an outstanding slate of governors," he said. He added that Republicans in Congress are trapped in a position of minority opposition to administration proposals, which does not beset the governors.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said there would be no dissension between Republicans on Capitol Hill and in the statehouses.

"I am tired of reading how we are going to fly off into all kinds of collision courses," Ford said in a speech prepared for the association's first formal session.

Innocent Plea Is Entered In Spike Slaying

Ex-Mental Patient Arrested In Murder Of Church Leader

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A former mental patient stood silently today while a lawyer entered his innocent plea to the bludgeon slaying of a nationally known church and civil rights leader.

William R. Minor, 23, stood with his hands behind his back in Columbus Municipal Court as Otto Beatty Jr. of the public defender's office entered the plea to a first degree murder charge in the death of Dr. Robert W. Spike, 43, a ministry professor at the University of Chicago credited with a major role in moving the church into civil rights activities.

Minor, who gave his hometown as Paintsville, Ky., wore a maroon and blue checked sweater and a white shirt. He looked much like a college student.

Municipal Judge Dean Strasbaugh continued his case until Wednesday.

Minor must be indicted by a grand jury before he can be tried, unless he waives indictment and agrees to a trial on the present charge.

Spike's body was found in a pool of blood last Oct. 17 in a guest room at the United Christian Center near Ohio State University. He had made a speech dedicating the interdenominational center the day before.

Beck said police were withholding details in the case as a result of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions involving pretrial rights of prisoners. But he did disclose this much:

Early Wednesday, Minor stopped a police cruiser in downtown Columbus and told officers he had committed a burglary the night before at the Southeast Christian Church in Columbus.

Local Airman Due To Leave Viet Shortly

An East Liverpool resident, a veteran of the air war in Vietnam, will return to the U.S. soon for new assignment.

He is Capt. Edwin L. Stanford, 31, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones of Lisbon St. He also has an uncle and aunt here, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laufenberger of Idaho Ave., Pleasant Heights.

Today's announcement from Saigon said Capt. Stanford's next assignment will be at the Eglin Air Force base in Florida.

The captain had been with his unit in the Saigon area just over a week when knocked down by Communist ground fire July 6. He ejected and was rescued by an Air Force amphibian within five minutes.

At one stretch of his 100-mission tour, Stanford made three flights over North Vietnam, encountering flights of enemy aircraft each time. On the second encounter, he fired a short burst of 20-millimeter cannon rounds at the lead MIG21, but there was no indication the Communist plane was hit.

With broad, if not unanimous agreement, Chafee told a joint news conference Thursday night, the governors can control the selection of the party's 1968 candidate.

He said the governors also should work to make sure that the next Republican platform embraces imaginative proposals for "new solutions to the many old problems."

Chafee said the governors should take an active role in the selection of their state delegations to the next national convention. And he said they should decide "early in the game" who they want nominated.

"I have no first choice now," he said.

Love said he believes the next nominee will be a governor.

"We have an outstanding slate of governors," he said. He added that Republicans in Congress are trapped in a position of minority opposition to administration proposals, which does not beset the governors.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said there would be no dissension between Republicans on Capitol Hill and in the statehouses.

"I am tired of reading how we are going to fly off into all kinds of collision courses," Ford said in a speech prepared for the association's first formal session.

Innocent Plea Is Entered In Spike Slaying

Ex-Mental Patient Arrested In Murder Of Church Leader

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A former mental patient stood silently today while a lawyer entered his innocent plea to the bludgeon slaying of a nationally known church and civil rights leader.

William R. Minor, 23, stood with his hands behind his back in Columbus Municipal Court as Otto Beatty Jr. of the public defender's office entered the plea to a first degree murder charge in the death of Dr. Robert W. Spike, 43, a ministry professor at the University of Chicago credited with a major role in moving the church into civil rights activities.

Minor, who gave his hometown as Paintsville, Ky., wore a maroon and blue checked sweater and a white shirt. He looked much like a college student.

Municipal Judge Dean Strasbaugh continued his case until Wednesday.

Minor must be indicted by a grand jury before he can be tried, unless he waives indictment and agrees to a trial on the present charge.

Spike's body was found in a pool of blood last Oct. 17 in a guest room at the United Christian Center near Ohio State University. He had made a speech dedicating the interdenominational center the day before.

Beck said police were withholding details in the case as a result of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions involving pretrial rights of prisoners. But he did disclose this much:

Early Wednesday, Minor stopped a police cruiser in downtown Columbus and told officers he had committed a burglary the night before at the Southeast Christian Church in Columbus.

Man Badly Burned

WEIRTON — William Craig, 23, of Cove Rd. was in "critical" condition this morning at the Weirton General Hospital from burns covering 65 per cent of his body suffered when he apparently fell asleep in bed while smoking. He was admitted at 5:15 a.m.

Local Airman Due To Leave Viet Shortly

An East Liverpool resident, a veteran of the air war in Vietnam, will return to the U.S. soon for new assignment.

He is Capt. Edwin L. Stanford, 31, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones of Lisbon St. He also has an uncle and aunt here, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laufenberger of Idaho Ave., Pleasant Heights.

Today's announcement from Saigon said Capt. Stanford's next assignment will be at the Eglin Air Force base in Florida.

The captain had been with his unit in the Saigon area just over a week when knocked down by Communist ground fire July 6. He ejected and was rescued by an Air Force amphibian within five minutes.

At one stretch of his 100-mission tour, Stanford made three flights over North Vietnam, encountering flights of enemy aircraft each time. On the second encounter, he fired a short burst of 20-millimeter cannon rounds at the lead MIG21, but there was no indication the Communist plane was hit.

Still In Staggering Figures

U.S. Casualties In War Lower Than Anticipated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States expected a far bloodier Vietnam war, it was learned today.

Indications are the Pentagon prepared for the worst, anticipating perhaps 10,000 dead this year and five times as many wounded.

Casualties have been much lower although still running into staggering numbers — over 4,600 killed and 30,000 wounded the past 11 months.

A top source said that when the Pentagon began planning the big military buildup in Southeast Asia statistical studies were conducted which projected U.S. losses at 200 casualties per day per 100,000 men.

The figure, derived from experience in World War II and the Korean conflict, was needed to determine possible replacement and medical demands.

Simply stated, the computerized calculation showed the United States could expect for each 100,000 men in Vietnam to sustain daily 10 combat deaths, 50 wounded and 140 "nonhostile" casualties resulting from accident, disease or other causes.

Actual figures have averaged 3 killed, 14 wounded and 75 nonhostile losses per day per 100,000 men, this source said.

Averages are rather meaningless, however, when it comes to describing the toll of life due to the war.

Defense Department statistics show that since Jan. 1, 4,639 Americans have been killed in Vietnam, running the count since Jan. 1, 1961 to 6,236 as of last Saturday.

This does not include 1,436 men who have died in plane and helicopter accidents, and from disease or other causes not attributable to enemy action.

A different view of Pentagon figures also shows the ratio of American combat deaths to wounded running much lower proportionately than during World War II and Korea.

The 35,538 wounded and 6,236 killed the past six years form a ratio of better than 5 to 1.

In Korea it was about 3 to 1 with 103,284 wounded and 33,629 killed in three years fighting. In World War II the ratio was over 2 to 1: 292,000 killed, 670,800 wounded.

The Pentagon says that due to better and more readily available medical treatment, 98.4 per cent of the GIs wounded in Vienam recover. This compares with 97.5 per cent during Korea, 95.5 per cent in World War II and 92 per cent in World War I.

Hearing Planned For Youth Cited In Entry Charge

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set a preliminary hearing Tuesday at 9 a. m. for Larry Bowers, 20, of Lisbon St., charged with breaking into a building on lower St. Clair Ave. that formerly was occupied by the Woomer Brothers Lumber Co.

Bowers and a juvenile were taken into custody inside the building Thursday night by police who responded to a call that prowlers had been sighted in the structure, Chief A. J. Radeschi said. The affidavit alleges Bowers "maliciously and forcibly entered" the building "with intent to steal property." Autos owned by Mike Turk, Inc., are stored in the building, the chief said.

The chief said the investigation is continuing. He said three cruisers responded to a call reporting prowlers. The arresting officers included Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice and Patrolmen David K. Mumaw, James Buckley and K. J. Montgomery.

Bowers' hearing was continued to allow him to obtain counsel. He also was fined $15 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a State Highway Patrol charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. Bowers was cited Nov. 26 at 11:40 a. m., the patrol said.

$241,365 Set For Building New School

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Thursday appropriated $241,365 from the county treasury and placed it in a fund for construction of the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children.

They acted after Auditor Kenneth Bell sent them a certificate of estimated resources —the income from a 1-mill levy approved in November 1965 to build the school and workshop.

Commissioners established the fund so they could pay Engineer George Bloomgren of East Liverpool for engineering expenses at the proposed site—the former Rogers farm along Route 7, one-half mile north of Rogers.

A decision is expected Monday on whether to build there or at some site nearer the center of the county. The federal government has approved $103,999 for the construction.

Ed Hedrick, Juvenile Court probation officer, was allowed $44 to take two juveniles to the Ohio Youth Commission yesterday.

Commissioners requested each officeholder to ask his employes to leave metered parking places around Courthouse Square and in the business district for Christmas shoppers. Village Council voted to make the meters free during December and merchants are complainting that Courthouse workers are taking the spaces.

Commissioners granted Knox Township trustees $300 for road maintenance.

Robert Boyce, County Home superintendent, reported there were 127 residents — 55 men and 72 women — at the home last month. The November income from residents and the farm was $9,822.40.

R. Max Gard of Lisbon, commission president, donated the Christmas tree for the Courthouse corridor. Employes decorated it yesterday.

A craft display was featured, with Steve Hazy and Robert Geis judges. A "cubby" award went to Den 4.

A skit, "The Night Before Christmas," was presented by Den 2. Albert Nutz entertained with a harmonica and bones solo.

Girl To Face Charge In Ravine St. Mishap

An 18-year-old girl was cited by police after her auto skidded and struck a utility pole Thursday on Ravine St. 150 feet south of Bradshaw Ave.

Julie Ann Keller of 328 Vine St. is due for a Municipal Court hearing on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. Her 1965 model four-door sedan was damaged on the right rear when it swerved against the pole, officers said.

The girl said she was headed north on Ravine St. when a car pulled into her path. When she applied the brakes, her car skidded and struck the pole, she said. Officers measured 75 feet of skid marks on the pavement.

Girl To Face Charge In Ravine St. Mishap

An 18-year-old girl was cited by police after her auto skidded and struck a utility pole Thursday on Ravine St. 150 feet south of Bradshaw Ave.

Julie Ann Keller of 328 Vine St. is due for a Municipal Court hearing on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. Her 1965 model four-door sedan was damaged on the right rear when it swerved against the pole, officers said.

The girl said she was headed north on Ravine St. when a car pulled into her path. When she applied the brakes, her car skidded and struck the pole, she said. Officers measured 75 feet of skid marks on the pavement.

Not A Very Merry Christmas

Now that the Christmas truce has official sanction from the United States and South Vietnam governments, everyone will be watching to see if there will be a New Year's truce.

Yes, the agreement called for both a Christmas and a New Year's lull in fighting, but if American servicemen are killed this Christmas Day as they were during the 1965 truce, there will not be a repeat performance in January.

We are opposed to such temporary cessations of hostilities because they are motivated only by the enemy's desire to better prepare himself to kill more Americans.

The United States has made it plain the negotiation door is open to North Vietnam anytime it wants to call a cease-fire and talk peace.

Pope Paul VI has issued a request for both sides to extend the truce from Christmas to the Vietnamese new year in February to permit discussions of peace.

If a Christmas truce is to have any real meaning at all, it must cover more than a few days and include peace talks.

It would seem that if North Vietnam sincerely felt Christmas and New Year celebrations are more important than the war, it could find other reasons for halting hostilities.

Such things as loss of lives, destruction of villages and the economic squeeze should be given consideration.

"Merry Christmas" would have more meaning this year if the dim prospect for peace were brightened by a real cease-fire.

Solid Citizen Salute

In our society there always will be those singled out for praise for out-of-the-ordinary service to others and to their community.

We also have our medal winners from bloody battlefields.

And our Gullivers who stand tall in the field of art, music, literature and theater.

All around us we can find those who have attained the pinnacle of potential.

Some we admire for the example they have set while in other cases we can admire only the accomplishment, not the producer.

These people deserve their awards and rewards; but for every one of them, there are numerous others who are in line for a tribute.

That is the purpose of this space today — a bouquet for everyday Solid Citizens.

You know who we mean. You see them all the time.

He is a kind, dependable father with a steady job. She is active in PTA and volunteer work.

You may have seen her at your door canvassing the neighborhood for a charity or taking food to a neighbor in a time of illness.

You remember him; he was driving the truck last week when a noisy bunch of Boy Scouts loaded it with stacks of newspapers and magazines from your basement.

You see them and their children in church on Sunday.

You often see them loading the car for a family outing.

They go about their business without bothering anybody. Yet, if somebody needs help, it seems they are the first to turn up.

They stay out of trouble. You won't find their names or pictures in the newspaper in connection with scandal or a crime story.

These people are easy to identify because you can measure their lives by the "Golden Rule."

They don't expect a Nobel Prize or an achievement plaque for what they are doing. Nothing could be further from their minds than special recognition.

For them, to live is to serve; and to serve is happiness.

The Air We Breathe

Most, if not all, that man produces and uses becomes waste." This is part of perhaps the most telling sentence of a report earlier this year by a National Academy of Sciences committee on pollution. It explains the sudden, belated, and rather anxious eagerness to clear the air we breathe.

Monday the Health, Education and Welfare Department will open a long-planned three-day conference in Washington on air pollution. On the day after that conference ends the National Industrial Conference Board is sponsoring discussions of pollution in general in New York City.

THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT'S best estimate indicates that the annual economic loss resulting from uncontrolled air pollution is in the neighborhood of $11 billion. The danger to public health is probably incalculable. The effects of pollution for persons exposed for years to carbon monoxide and other substances is difficult to evaluate. Experts believe that chronic bronchitis, emphysema, and lung cancer are associated with long-term exposure to polluted air.

Even without the contributions to air pollution of modern industry and the combustion engine, the atmosphere would be full of waste. According to the National Academy, the atmosphere in any event would carry "volcanic dust and gas, wind-eroded soil, sea-salt nuclei, methane from marshes, hydrogen sulfide from decaying organic matter, certain radioactive materials, pollen, spores, and bacteria."

NEW YORK CITY and other areas in the Northeast escaped serious harm to health during the temperature inversion over the Thanksgiving holidays. But polluted air in the small industrial town of Donora, Pa. took 20 lives in 1948. In a severe London smog in 1952, 4,000 died. A statistical analysis of a two-week period of heavy pollution in November 1953 indicated that 240 New Yorkers died as the result of smog.

Los Angeles, St. Louis, and Pittsburgh, among other cities, have made considerable progress in controlling air wastes. Officials in Los Angeles are beginning to talk about the possibility of eliminating gasoline-powered motor vehicles from California by 1980.

A strong air pollution law adopted in New York City last year provides for banning all new incinerators after two years. The program calls for upgrading of the existing 11 municipal incinerators and 13,000 apartment house incinerators through improved controls.

On a federal level, the Clean Air Act of 1963 and its 1965 amendments have provided new tools to help attack the pollution that fouls the air we breathe. In a message of last Feb. 23, President Johnson declared: "We have begun to counter air pollution by increasing the tempo of efforts at all levels of government."

Cleansing the air will require great cooperation among governmental units. It will demand also the willing assistance—and abnegation from present processes—of private industry. The conferences that are coming up offer promises in that direction.

Slightly Confusing

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Michigan Gov. George Romney is a national figure, but his national ideas look pretty thin.

Esteemed for high character and moral overtones, he is running ahead of President Johnson in public opinion polls. But what does he stand for?

Romney says he hasn't made up his mind on runnng for the presidency, but he is beginning to scamper around the country like a man taking the Republican pulse on his prospects for representing the party in 1968.

Because Johnson didn't put in a tax increase last year, Romney said, the economy is now teetering on the brink of a slowdown. But there is a lot of disagreement among economists on that and on whether one is needed at all.

AND ROMNEY, whose only experience in government has been on a state level and who has been against too much big federal government, then offered what political scientists might call a kind of utopian concept of government:

Voluntary associations for cooperation action centers.
Whatever they mean.

Private enterprises for competitive action centers. Whatever they mean.

State and local governments for locally oriented action centers close to control by the people. Whatevert hey mean.

The federal government as an action center to cope with tasks requiring unified national effort.
Whatever they mean.

If he is going to revolutionize the running of government, it would seem, he could at least get specific, particularly since he said dependence on the federal government is "dwarfing America's men."

But all this is in line with what appears to be Romney's inability to be specific or get down to cases generally.

For example: He is reluctant to open up on one of the most important issues of the time, the war in Vietnam, saying he wants to give it much more thought because "before a person raises questions he ought to be able to make specific proposals."

But he already has had an opportunity to give much thought since the war has been going on for years. Perhaps his performance at the governors' conference last July dented his self-confidence on this subject.

When he tried to answer a question on Vietnam he made hash of it.

HE IS CONSIDERED a moderate Republican, but says he can't follow the "gobbledygook about conservatives, liberals and moderates." He is definitely on record against "extremists" and did not support the presidential candidacy of Sen. Barry Goldwater in 1964.

There are profound differences between conservatives, liberals and moderates which Romney misses when he considers any differences "gobbledygook."

Those differences have run all through American history, and are still there in American political life, daily visible above all places in Congress where the conservatives are and always have been the restraining force, the liberals, the push - aheads, and the moderates the men who are willing to push ahead faster than the conservatives, slower than the liberals.

The distinctions between them are not gobbledygook and no one knows it better than Lyndon B. Johnson who, in his career, has been in all three positions, at one time or another. If Romney can't see the distinctions, he needs a score card.

A Rough Climb

Air Union May Strike Rails

By Victor Riesel

WASHINGTON — Those in the White House who are looking for the "Mister Crisis of 1967" would do well to look to the man who paralyzed the airlines amid such tumult in 1966. He might do just that to the nation's railroads in the New Year, which is highballing it round the bend.

Victor Riesel

The crisis-maker who, with several colleagues of the airline strike team, may decide what day much of the U.S. shall stand still, is Paul Leroy (Roy) Siemiller. At 62, though president of the vast International Association of Machinists, he still is one of labor's "new" men.

Under his gentle-voiced guidance history is positively repeating itself much to the horror of the White House. Exactly a year ago in San Francisco, Roy Siemiller quietly told this columnist there would probably be an airline strike. Today, without benefit of bulges or dramatics, he has spoken similarly to this newsman about a possible stoppage of the country's Class A railroads—about 96 of them.

NOTE THAT A YEAR AGO the airline contracts were due to expire at midnight, New Year's Eve, 1965. So it is now with the railroads and the six shop craft unions—150,000 men made up of machinists, as well as boilermakers, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, electricians, firemen and oilers and carmen.

The machinists, 40,000 of them, are led by Siemiller's general vice president Joe Ramsey—the same chap who led the airline strikers on the actual battle front. Siemiller and Ramsey are a tough team—and they expect to be ready with heavy demands at 12:01 a.m. Jan. 1, 1967—the first moment the contract permits them to "reopen on wages and major fringes."

The Machinists' leaders will threaten to strike. The usual ballet Americaine will unfold. There will be mediation. The President will declare an emergency and set up a board.

IT WILL ROLL ON towards the summer. Who strikes in wintertime? And when the government has run out of brakes, there will be a strike unless the railroads capitulate.

True, two rail brotherhoods have accepted a 5 per cent increase. But:

"Our machinists will not accept 5 per cent," Siemiller told this correspondent in the same quiet Midwestern twang in which he predicted an airline stoppage a year ago. "We don't truly care what the others have taken. Five per cent just is not enough. If we have to, we'll fight for more. Nobody likes to talk strike but nobody in our ranks will talk 5 per cent either."

If there is a strike, the Machinist pickets would be fanning out at railroad yards east and west of Chicago and St. Louis, and north and south of New York just about the vacation season that the airline pickets hit the bricks at airports in '66.

It's these new men of labor who give the White House labor specialists the jitters. The nation is full of them now. While the public watches the veteran Walter Reuther polish up the plunge and armor for the big thrust, the new men, working in the gray of the spotlight area, really are preparing for battle with industrial giants.

THERE IS, FOR EXAMPLE, a brand new national union president, Peter Bommarito, who has been head of the United Rubber Workers (URW) for only three months now. But he's set for the big time.

This will be next April 20 when the little-known union, strategically placed right in the gut of our industrial-military production establishment, tackles the Big Four Rubber Corporations. The labor-management contracts expire that day.

Will the union strike?

"We are playing for big stakes this coming year," said Bommarito recently. "Let the companies take notice .. . 1967 will be the year the URW places its reputation on the line as a leader in obtaining benefits for its members."

Thus the rail and rubber crises pick up steam in the late spring. At this time Reuther's Auto Union forces will dash into the field with thunderous new demands devised in a public mass conference.

IT WILL BE A HOT SUMMER—here and in Viet Nam. And the White House will be sweating it out unless the President gets some new laws—or congressional threat of action—to cool it.

The first cooler will come in the President's State of the Union speech or in a special message to Congress. That's why the President asked his trouble shooter, Joe Califano, to get up a sub-cabinet level study group of professors, economists and departmental representatives to work out some magic formula.

The labor men predict there can be no formula. There only can be cash—on the line—to cap the pressure from below and keep it from blowing the new men of labor sky high.

It will be fascinating to observe what happens when the presidential cooling meets the overheated pressure.

Equality?

By David Lawrence

It Should Apply Everywhere

The biggest paradox of our times appears to be unnoticed by the peoples of the free world. Plenty of indignation is being voiced because a white minority in Rhodesia will not allow the right of self-determination to be exercised by the black majority in that country. Ironically, nobody seems to care about the fate of the white majority not only in the Soviet Union but in the six Communist countries of Eastern Europe and the three former Baltic states, which are frequently referred to as "captive nations" because their present regimes were imposed by Moscow.

A small minority known as the Communist party rules the Soviet Union and insists that there shall be no opposition. Nobody can vote against the party in power. The same thing is true in Poland, East Germany, Hungary and the other countries in the Communist bloc.

IT'S SURPRISING that even the United Nations is being urged by some of the African nations to enforce "sanctions" on Rhodesia in order to punish the white minority. No such measures are being suggested to deal with the exercise of a dominant authority by the white minorities in each of the Communist-bloc countries.

Would the same thing be true if the Communist party consisted only of whites, and the vast majority of the peoples in the Soviet Union, Poland, East Germany and Hungary were black? Would there be talk of "sanctions" to punish the minority for its refusal to grant liberty to the majority of the population in each country?

The answer is not hard to find. For only the small, white minorities who rule colored majorities are assailed today, while white majorities are suffering an agony of enslavement. Is this because the members of the United Nations are afraid to band together and take collective action to establish freedom for the majority of the population in each of the "captive" countries?

IT'S EASY ENOUGH to punish the white minority in Rhodesia and to cut off the trade of that country and inflict hardships on the entire population—all in the name of human freedom. Commendable as is the objective of those who want to see the majority rule in Rhodesia, there is an obvious inconsistency in the unwillingness of the principal nations of the world today to do anything about the subjugation of vast numbers of people—indeed, the majority—in each of the Communist countries.

Although ethnic Russians constitute only about half of the population of the Soviet Union, Russians dominate the Communist party and its leadership. Thus a small minority of one particular nationality rules the whole country through the system of Communist party discipline.

In recent years, Romania and Czechoslovakia have achieved some small measure of independence of Moscow, but they are still dominated by the single-party Communist system. It's generally believed that the self-determination achieved in these two countries is not complete but is a form of neutrality as between the Communist parties of Red China and the Soviet Union, respectively.

ALTHOUGH SOVIET TROOPS have been withdrawn from those countries and from Bulgaria as well, they still constitute a considerable occupation force in East Germany, Poland, Hungary and the Baltic States, Backed by the power of military coercion, the white minority rules the roost in several countries.

It's a good thing, of course, for the United Nations to implore free peoples everywhere to take an interest in the fate of the majorities in those countries which are under the yoke of minorities of any kind. There would be more enthusiasm for a glorification of the idea of self-determination if it were applied consistently throughout the world.

Until public opinion throughout the world insists that the principle be applied everywhere, not just where black people are concerned, there will be little progress made toward the establishment of equal rights for all majorities.

Michigan Gov. George Romney is a national figure, but his national ideas look pretty thin.

Esteemed for high character and moral overtones, he is running ahead of President Johnson in public opinion polls. But what does he stand for?

Romney says he hasn't made up his mind on running for the presidency, but he is beginning to scamper around the country like a man taking the Republican pulse on his prospects for representing the party in 1968.

Because Johnson didn't put in a tax increase last year, Romney said, the economy is now teetering on the brink of a slowdown. But there is a lot of disagreement among economists on that and on whether one is needed at all.

AND ROMNEY, whose only experience in government has been on a state level and who has been against too much big federal government, then offered what political scientists might call a kind of utopian concept of government:

Voluntary associations for cooperation action centers.
Whatever they mean.

Private enterprises for competitive action centers. Whatever they mean.

State and local governments for locally oriented action centers close to control by the people. Whatevert hey mean.

The federal government as an action center to cope with tasks requiring unified national effort.
Whatever they mean.

If he is going to revolutionize the running of government, it would seem, he could at least get specific, particularly since he said dependence on the federal government is "dwarfing America's men."

But all this is in line with what appears to be Romney's inability to be specific or get down to cases generally.

For example: He is reluctant to open up on one of the most important issues of the time, the war in Vietnam, saying he wants to give it much more thought because "before a person raises questions he ought to be able to make specific proposals."

But he already has had an opportunity to give much thought since the war has been going on for years. Perhaps his performance at the governors' conference last July dented his self-confidence on this subject.

When he tried to answer a question on Vietnam he made hash of it.

HE IS CONSIDERED a moderate Republican, but says he can't follow the "gobbledygook about conservatives, liberals and moderates." He is definitely on record against "extremists" and did not support the presidential candidacy of Sen. Barry Goldwater in 1964.

There are profound differences between conservatives, liberals and moderates which Romney misses when he considers any differences "gobbledygook."

Those differences have run all through American history, and are still there in American political life, daily visible above all places in Congress where the conservatives are and always have been the restraining force, the liberals, the push - aheads, and the moderates the men who are willing to push ahead faster than the conservatives, slower than the liberals.

The distinctions between them are not gobbledygook and no one knows it better than Lyndon B. Johnson who, in his career, has been in all three positions, at one time or another. If Romney can't see the distinctions, he needs a score card.

A Rough Climb

Air Union May Strike Rails

By Victor Riesel

WASHINGTON — Those in the White House who are looking for the "Mister Crisis of 1967" would do well to look to the man who paralyzed the airlines amid such tumult in 1966. He might do just that to the nation's railroads in the New Year, which is highballing it round the bend.

Victor Riesel

The crisis-maker who, with several colleagues of the airline strike team, may decide what day much of the U.S. shall stand still, is Paul Leroy (Roy) Siemiller. At 62, though president of the vast International Association of Machinists, he still is one of labor's "new" men.

Under his gentle-voiced guidance history is positively repeating itself much to the horror of the White House. Exactly a year ago in San Francisco, Roy Siemiller quietly told this columnist there would probably be an airline strike. Today, without benefit of bulges or dramatics, he has spoken similarly to this newsman about a possible stoppage of the country's Class A railroads—about 96 of them.

NOTE THAT A YEAR AGO the airline contracts were due to expire at midnight, New Year's Eve, 1965. So it is now with the railroads and the six shop craft unions—150,000 men made up of machinists, as well as boilermakers, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, electricians, firemen and oilers and carmen.

The machinists, 40,000 of them, are led by Siemiller's general vice president Joe Ramsey—the same chap who led the airline strikers on the actual battle front. Siemiller and Ramsey are a tough team—and they expect to be ready with heavy demands at 12.01 a.m. Jan. 1, 1967—the first moment the contract permits them to "reopen on wages and major fringes."

The Machinists' leaders will threaten to strike. The usual ballet Americaine will unfold. There will be mediation. The President will declare an emergency and set up a board.

IT WILL ROLL ON towards the summer. Who strikes in wintertime? And when the government has run out of brakes, there will be a strike unless the railroads capitulate.

True, two rail brotherhoods have accepted a 5 per cent increase. But:

"Our machinists will not accept 5 per cent," Siemiller told this correspondent in the same quiet Midwestern twang in which he predicted an airline stoppage a year ago. "We don't truly care what the others have taken. Five per cent just is not enough. If we have to, we'll fight for more. Nobody likes to talk strike but nobody in our ranks will talk 5 per cent either."

If there is a strike, the Machinist pickets would be fanning out at railroad yards east and west of Chicago and St. Louis, and north and south of New York just about the vacation season that the airline pickets hit the bricks at airports in '66.

It's these new men of labor who give the White House labor specialists the jitters. The nation is full of them now. While the public watches the veteran Walter Reuther polish up the plunge and armor for the big thrust, the new men, working in the gray of the spotlight area, really are preparing for battle with industrial giants.

THERE IS, FOR EXAMPLE, a brand new national union president, Peter Bommarito, who has been head of the United Rubber Workers (URW) for only three months now. But he's set for the big time.

This will be next April 20 when the little-known union, strategically placed right in the gut of our industrial-military production establishment, tackles the Big Four Rubber Corporations. The labor-management contracts expire that day.

Will the unon strike?

"We are playing for big stakes this coming year," said Bommarito recently. "Let the companies take notice .. . 1967 will be the year the URW places its reputation on the line as a leader in obtaining benefits for its members."

Thus the rail and rubber crises pick up steam in the late spring. At this time Reuther's Auto Union forces will dash into the field with thunderous new demands devised in a public mass conference.

IT WILL BE A HOT SUMMER—here and in Viet Nam. And the White House will be sweating it out unless the President gets some new laws—or congressional threat of action—to cool it.

The first cooler will come in the President's State of the Union speech or in a special message to Congress. That's why the President asked his trouble shooter, Joe Califano, to get up a sub-cabinet level study group of professors, economists and departmental representatives to work out some magic formula.

The labor men predict there can be no formula. There only can be cash—on the line—to cap the pressure from below and keep it from blowing the new men of labor sky high.

It will be fascinating to observe what happens when the presidential cooling meets the overheated pressure.

Equality?

By David Lawrence

It Should Apply Everywhere

The biggest paradox of our times appears to be unnoticed by the peoples of the free world. Plenty of indignation is being voiced because a white minority in Rhodesia will not allow the right of self-determination to be exercised by the black majority in that country. Ironically, nobody seems to care about the fate of the white majority not only in the Soviet Union but in the six Communist countries of Eastern Europe and the three former Baltic states, which are frequently referred to as "captive nations" because their present regimes were imposed by Moscow.

A small minority known as the Communist party rules the Soviet Union and insists that there shall be no opposition. Nobody can vote against the party in power. The same thing is true in Poland, East Germany, Hungary and the other countries in the Communist bloc.

IT'S SURPRISING that even the United Nations is being urged by some of the African nations to enforce "sanctions" on Rhodesia in order to punish the white minority. No such measures are being suggested to deal with the exercise of a dominant authority by the white minorities in each of the Communist-bloc countries.

Would the same thing be true if the Communist party consisted only of whites, and the vast majority of the peoples in the Soviet Union, Poland, East Germany and Hungary were black? Would there be talk of "sanctions" to punish the minority for its refusal to grant liberty to the majority of the population in each country?

The answer is not hard to find. For only the small, white minorities who rule colored majorities are assailed today, while white majorities are suffering an agony of enslavement. Is this because the members of the United Nations are afraid to band together and take collective action to establish freedom for the majority of the population in each of the "captive" countries?

IT'S EASY ENOUGH to punish the white minority in Rhodesia and to cut off the trade of that country and inflict hardships on the entire population—all in the name of human freedom. Commendable as is the objective of those who want to see the majority rule in Rhodesia, there is an obvious inconsistency in the unwillingness of the principal nations of the world today to do anything about the subjugation of vast numbers of people—indeed, the majority—in each of the Communist countries.

Although ethnic Russians constitute only about half of the population of the Soviet Union, Russians dominate the Communist party and its leadership. Thus a small minority of one particular nationality rules the whole country through the system of Communist party discipline.

In recent years, Romania and Czechoslovakia have achieved some small measure of independence of Moscow, but they are still dominated by the single-party Communist system. It's generally believed that the self-determination achieved in these two countries is not complete but is a form of neutrality as between the Communist parties of Red China and the Soviet Union, respectively.

ALTHOUGH SOVIET TROOPS have been withdrawn from those countries and from Bulgaria as well, they still constitute a considerable occupation force in East Germany, Poland, Hungary and the Baltic States, Backed by the power of military coercion, the white minority rules the roost in several countries.

It's a good thing, of course, for the United Nations to implore free peoples everywhere to take an interest in the fate of the majorities in those countries which are under the yoke of minorities of any kind. There would be more enthusiasm for a glorification of the idea of self-determination if it were applied consistently throughout the world.

Until public opinion throughout the world insists that the principle be applied everywhere, not just where black people are concerned, there will be little progress made toward the establishment of equal rights for all majorities.

GOP Spent $2.9 Million For Shafer

Shapp Spent $2.8 Million In Pennsylvania Drive

HARRISBURG (AP) — Milton Shapp spent about $2.8 million on his unsuccessful Democratic campaign for the governorship, and the Republicans spent about $2.9 million for the campaigns of Gov.-elect Raymond P. Shafer and his running mates, according to expense accounts.

The accounts were filed with the State Elections Bureau, as required by law. Thursday was the deadline.

Much of Shapp's $2.8 million — perhaps some $1,000,000 — was his own money. Observers on Capitol Hill said no other gubernatorial candidate in the state's history ever financed his campaign so heavily from his own pocket.

Shapp, who spent an estimated $1.4 million — also mostly his own money — in upsetting Robert P. Casey, the organization candidate, in the primary, was accused by Republicans during the campaign of trying to buy the election.

Shapp filed two expense accounts, one for the Make Shapp Governor Committee, the other for his personal expenses.

The committee listed total expenses of $1.8 million and reported it still owes $140,304.99.

It listed contributions of over $2,000 from major unions including the United Steelworkers, the United Auto Workers, and the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

Shapp had campaigned hard for the union vote.

Shapp's personal account listed total expenses of $606,138.68 and unpaid debts of $171,528.70.

In an interview in Philadelphia, Shapp said he owes $1.2 million borrowed from a bank, but that he should be able to pay it off with contributions still coming in.

The Democratic State Committee listed total expenses at $383,045.15, expenditures at $367,019.33, and said it had no unpaid bills.

The Republican State Committee, in its account, said it spent $1.7 million and has $440,948 in unpaid bills. It said $996,000 of its $1.8 million in receipts came from the Republican State Finance Committee.

The Finance Committee, said it spent another $617,198 on other campaign purposes, and the Shafer for Governor Committee, said it spent about $70,000 for a total of $2.9 million.

The Republicans have a $100-a-plate dinner scheduled for Jan. 16, the eve of Shafer's inauguration, to raise money for their unpaid bills.

Shafer also filed a personal expense account totaling $3,350 — a $3,000 contribution to the Finance Committee and $350 to the Crawford County Republican Committee. He lives in Crawford County.

Mellon Gives $35 Million Art Collection To Yale U.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Philanthropist Paul Mellon has given Yale University one of the world's outstanding private art collections, $35 million worth of British works he gathered over the last 15 years.

Along with the collection of 17th-, 18th-, and 19th-century paintings, watercolors, drawings and books, Mellon also presented his alma mater funds to build a gallery and library where they can be displayed. The building's cost is estimated at between $6 million and $9 million.

The gifts were announced Thursday by Kingman Brewster Jr., president of Yale. Mellon, a member of the class of 1929, was not present for the announcement of the donation.

The collection, regarded by the university as the greatest body of British art outside Britain, is composed of 1,000 oil paintings, 3,000 watercolors, prints and drawings and 4,000 rare books.

The oils and watercolors are representative of what is known as the golden age of British painting from 1697 to 1851 and include 29 Hogarths, 35 Turners, 66 Constables, and 55 Gainsboroughs.

Private dealers estimated the worth of the collection at $35 million.

Mellon, 59, is president of the National Gallery of Art in Washington. His father, Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the Treasury under three presidents, gave the gallery to the nation as a $70-million gift over 30 years ago.

That's why, Zickafoose explained, he stole a car in Circleville, drove to nearby Bainbridge and parked beside a police cruiser, waiting there until Bainbridge officers heard the stolen car report and arrested him.

So Zickafoose, whose previous term for assault with intent to kill, is headed "home" for 1-20 years for auto theft.

Man Given 90-Day Sentence On Lack Of Driver's Permit

An East Liverpool district man cited for the second time in two months on a charge of driving without an operator's permit was given a 90-day County Jail term when he appeared today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Robert E. Adkins of R. D. 3 pleaded guilty to the charge filed by Deputy Sheriff Dave Brothers, who said he arrested the defendant Thursday at 11:40 p. m. on St. Clair Ave. Ext. The deputy said he cited Adkins after receiving a report the man had been driving in erratic fashion.

—:—

QUESTIONED by the judge, Adkins said he has been driving "off and on for two years" without a permit. Examining the defendant's record, the judge found he had been sentenced to a 10-day jail term in September, also for driving without a license.

"Apparently you did not learn a lesson the first time," the judge told Adkins.

William Landy of 212 Mulberry St. was ordered to pay court costs on each of two charges—driving without an operator's permit and improper auto registration.

He was cited Monday at 10:13 a. m. on Walnut St. by Patrolman James Buckley. He pleaded guilty to each charge, but explained that since he was cited he has taken steps to obtain a new driver's license and transfer the registration on his auto.

Larry Bruce Marshall of Sherwood Ave. also was ordered to pay court costs on a charge of operating a car with a faulty muffler. He was cited by the patrol Tuesday on E. 5th St. Pleading guilty Wednesday, he was given until today to have the muffler replaced.

Terry A. Martin of Waynesburg, Pa., forfeited a $17.50 bond on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone. He was cited by the patrol Thursday at 6:40 p. m. on Route 30.

Facts and Fallacies about Jewelry

by W. D. ORR

FALLACY:
An inexpensive watch keeps as good time as any other.

FACT:
Even the least expensive watch will often keep good time for a while. However, because it lacks the jewels and the precision manufacture of a really fine watch, it will wear out much faster and become less reliable, as well as less accurate. A better watch also adds the bonus of lasting beauty to its superior movement.

CONCLUSION:
You'll enjoy the beauty and precise accuracy of one of our fine watches for many years to come. Choose from many time-honored names.

from interfering in any way with the non-strikers — supervisory and office personnel; interfering with shipments to and from the plants; loitering or congregating around the plants, and instigating or assisting anyone in the commission of these acts.

Judge Buzzard said the order applies until further order of the court and pending further hearing of the plaintiff's motion for a permanent injunction.

The strike began Nov. 2. Officials said they were first barred from the plants on Nov. 23 and that the number of pickets has run as high as 80 at one gate in Columbiana and 40 at one gate in Leetonia. Pickets locked arms or massed their bodies to stop non-strikers from getting into the plants, officials testified.

The NRM plants employ approximately 900 and have an annual payroll of $5,304,000, the plaintiff's petition stated. There are 701 hourly employes engaged in production, many of whom are members of the defendant international and its local. The remainder are salaried employes not represented by the union.

Officials also testified the pickets park in front of service areas, preventing deliveries or shipments.

In that connection, the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Akron filed a replevin action against NRM Corp. yesterday in Common Pleas Court for $2,039 worth of machinery parts it ordered and paid for, but which have not been delivered.

Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan left for the NRM plant this morning, accompanied by a truck from the Goodyear firm, to load the parts.

Facts about cleaning carpets with Blue Lustre

A gallon of Blue Lustre cleans the equivalent of six 9x12 rugs, depending on soil.

Traffic paths may be removed without cleaning wall-to-wall if rest of carpet shows no soil.

Blue Lustre raises beaten-down nap at doorways, leaving pile open and lofty.

It costs only about 1c per square foot to clean your carpet. Blue Lustre electric shampooers may be rented for $1 a day.

Carpets stay new-looking if you keep Blue Lustre handy to remove spots and traffic paths as they appear. Since it contains no soap, there is no residue to cause rapid re-soiling. It dries to an invisible crystaline powder containing the soil, removed by vacuuming.

You'll be delighted by the way Blue Lustre restores forgotten colors in both carpets and upholstery.

Dear Heloise: Have you ever decided to use a favorite pattern a second time, or needed to use the pattern twice to cut out a dress and lining from the same pattern piece . . . only to discover that you had practically cut out the darts with the wheel marker the first time you marked the darts?

After cutting out the pattern piece and putting colored carbon paper and pattern in place on the material, lay a piece of plastic wrap over the pattern and mark the darts with your wheel marker.

The plastic wrap clings to the pattern and the dart lines are clearly visible through the wrap, but the wheel does not cut through the wrap or the pattern.

DEAR HELOISE: Since my husband often works at night, I do most of my housework in the evening.

I have only one clothesline and no dryer, so I have a little plan which I call "getting an early start on tomorrow."

I hang several small items such as handkerchiefs, socks, underwear, dish and wash cloths, etc., on a clothes hanger, using a clothespin on each item.

In fact, I hang everything on hangers, using clothespins on the items that might fall off.

I hang all these filled hangers on the rod in the shower overnight and when morning comes, I just take the hangers to my outside line and pin them to the line with clothespins.

It saves space and the hangers of dry clothes are easy to collect.

If the weather is bad, I leave the clothes-laden hangers on the shower curtain rod, turn on the bathroom heater, and close the door.

Your idea is wonderful. This is also a good idea for insomniacs as there is no use tossing and turning in bed when we can get up and get something done, is there?

I still say that women (and men) can clean house or get any old chore done at night when they can't sleep!

And, do you know what? you would be surprised how many of your neighbors write that they do the same thing.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I wonder if you realize how you have cluttered up my home. I never throw a single thing away anymore for fear I'll find some use for it in your column the next day.

The old potato sacks, plastic strawberry boxes, tin cans and 420 used match sticks are slowly inching me out of the house!

DEAR HELOISE: When making fudge or other candy, some of the candy often sticks to the empty pan before you have a chance to wash it.

Ever try filling the pan with water and boiling it?

It melts the hardened candy, and you can pour the whole works down the drain. Saves a lot of elbow grease.

CAROL MIM.

DEAR HELOISE: For people who don't like night lights and yet need some guidance at night in the home, why not put luminous star decals (that glow in the dark) at the doors, light switches, etc.?

Also, children learning to sleep without lights like to look at the "sky" stars on ceilings.

DEAR HELOISE: Have trouble putting curtains on the rod?

Put a small plastic bag over the end first.

A clothespin at the other end of the rod prevents the curtain from slipping off while trying to slide the rest of it on.

The plastic wrappers from a pack of cigarettes, when anchored with a rubber band, also works.

Upbuilding Plan For Thin Girl

Ida Jean Kain

For tired, tense thin girls, weight gaining is an uphill struggle. If you haven't much appetite, it is easy to habitually eat too little. Poor appetite can stem from a number of factors — faulty eating habits, not taking time to eat, irregularity of meals and chronic fatigue.

The starting place for improving nutrition is to think in terms of replenishing nutrients. Nutrition is the process of assimilating food. Certain nutrients aid in the assimilation. It has been pointed out that millions of people eat what they want to eat, and pay little attention to what they should eat in order to be well nourished. They are the tired ones.

THE NUTRITIONALLY important foods are divided into four groups -- milk, cheese, ice cream group; meat, fish, poultry group; vegetable and fruit group; whole grain cereal and bread group. The good values in these protective foods work together in nutrition teamwork.

For the thin girl particularly, it is important to take food when the body is rested.

If you habitually skimp on the morning meal, try adding a small portion of one nourishing food, such as a few tablespoons of hot, whole grain cereal, perhaps with chopped prunes, dates or apricots added. Experiment and find a bread that tastes simply delicious. Limit coffee to one cup.

If your food capacity is small, it's a good plan to eat small, nourishing quantities but to eat more often. Mid - morning have a glass of milk and a graham cracker, but take it early enough so as not to lessen your appetite for lunch.

WITH A finicky appetite it is imperative to establish regular meal hours. Never skip a meal and try not to go past your meal hour. Build an appetite. Take a leisurely lunch hour if possible. No more hasty sandwich, coffee, cigarette lunches.

Over - fatigue is perhaps the worst offender, for fatigue affects appetite adversely and lessens the body's ability to take care of food. Oddly enough, under - nutrition tends to stimulate hectic activity.

A fast pace and a crowded schedule during the day leads to insomnia at night, and a vicious cycle ensues. Practiced relaxation — letting go of muscle tensions — with more time spent in the fresh air leads to a more relaxed day and better sleep at night. Peace, it's wonderful!

Persistence in an upbuilding program will bring an increase in nervous stability. Then with more calories in the foods which furnish the good nutrients, you will gain and feel like a new person.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — "One thing that has always bothered me is the why of this thing," says Robert Oswald, the brother of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

Robert Oswald thinks the Warren Commission, although correctly naming his brother as the killer, failed to determine a motive.

Oswald, 32, a sales manager for a Wichita Falls, Tex., brick company, says he's writing a book he hopes will explain why and provide new details.

"I would hope it is done in a manner which will shed additional light on Lee's over-all general character, which, in my opinion, was cut short in the commission report," he said in an interview Thursday with the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Batman's assistant, Robin, is joining the alimony-paying set.

For the thin girl particularly, it is important to take food when the body is rested.

If you habitually skimp on the morning meal, try adding a small portion of one nourishing food, such as a few tablespoons of hot, whole grain cereal, perhaps with chopped prunes, dates or apricots added. Experiment and find a bread that tastes simply delicious. Limit coffee to one cup.

If your food capacity is small, it's a good plan to eat small, nourishing quantities but to eat more often. Mid - morning have a glass of milk and a graham cracker, but take it early enough so as not to lessen your appetite for lunch.

WITH A finicky appetite it is imperative to establish regular meal hours. Never skip a meal and try not to go past your meal hour. Build an appetite. Take a leisurely lunch hour if possible. No more hasty sandwich, coffee, cigarette lunches.

Over - fatigue is perhaps the worst offender, for fatigue affects appetite adversely and lessens the body's ability to take care of food. Oddly enough, under - nutrition tends to stimulate hectic activity.

A fast pace and a crowded schedule during the day leads to insomnia at night, and a vicious cycle ensues. Practiced relaxation — letting go of muscle tensions — with more time spent in the fresh air leads to a more relaxed day and better sleep at night. Peace, it's wonderful!

Persistence in an upbuilding program will bring an increase in nervous stability. Then with more calories in the foods which furnish the good nutrients, you will gain and feel like a new person.

Tate was treated at a Shreveport, La., hospital and released.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — "One thing that has always bothered me is the why of this thing," says Robert Oswald, the brother of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

Robert Oswald thinks the Warren Commission, although correctly naming his brother as the killer, failed to determine a motive.

Oswald, 32, a sales manager for a Wichita Falls, Tex., brick company, says he's writing a book he hopes will explain why and provide new details.

"I would hope it is done in a manner which will shed additional light on Lee's over-all general character, which, in my opinion, was cut short in the commission report," he said in an interview Thursday with the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Batman's assistant, Robin, is joining the alimony-paying set.

Burt Ward, 20, who plays Robin in the television series, agreed Thursday in Santa Monica, Calif., to pay his wife Bonney alimony and child support.

Mrs. Ward filed suit for divorce last Nov. 17 on the grounds of mental cruelty. The couple, married for 19 months, has a daughter, Lisa, three months.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: After a long day at the hospital (I'm chief of surgery) I picked up the paper and turned to your column. I was overwhelmed by the letter from the distraught woman whose brother committed suicide after he had run over a child playing in the street.

An hour ago I had to face an anguished mother and tell her that her 4-year-old, blue - eyed son had died on the table. He, too, was riding his tricycle in the street and had been hit by a truck. His little body was so entangled with the trike that the boy and the trike were laid together on the stretcher.

I cannot count the times I have been called to the emergency room to face sobbing parents whose child was playing in the street. Sometimes we are lucky and can mend the broken body but too often we cannot.

I would like to ask the parents who are reading this column, "Do you want your child to grow up to be an adult?" You will of course reply, "What a foolish question!"

But I warn you, the next time you allow him to ride his trike any place he chooses, he may not come back to you alive. — ANONYMOUS M.D.

Dear M. D.: Many thanks for taking the time and trouble to write. More than 50 million people will see your letter and some of them will heed your warning.

Sense Of Humor

Dear Ann: I used to think you had a good sense of humor but I'm beginning to wonder. Your reply to the young couple who named their poodle Pearl, after their mother who had just died, was dumb.

I named by hamster Lily, after Mom, and she was honored. I'll bet if that mother named Pearl was alive she would be honored, too. —MIKE.

-:-

Dear Mike: If Pearl were alive she'd probably be honored, but Pearl isn't alive, and that's the difference. It's okay to name a pet after the living but I feel it is disrespectful to name a dog after a recently deceased mother.

Book Learning

Dear Ann: I'm a high school senior who read something in a psychology book that sounded a lot like your column. It was straight to the point and it made a lot of sense.

Often you print letters from girls who get into trouble because they engage in premarital sexual relations. Parents could help prevent such trouble if they understood a few things.

Here is the quote and I hope you consider it worth publishing because 90 per cent of the mothers and fathers in this country never see a psychology book:

"The parent of the opposite sex wields a powerful influence on a child's attitude toward sex. The impact of a father's personality on his daughter is often far greater than he suspects. A girl whose father does not admire her or take an interest in what she does often feels cheated and turns to another male whose admiration she hopes to win.

"In an attempt to satisfy the emotional needs not met by her father, she may try to hold the devotion of a boy friend by giving too freely of herself. This could lead to physical intimacy." — MONTREAL MISS.

Dear Montreal: The quote you sent is excellent. It expresses in forthright, easy-to-understand language one of the major reasons for promiscuity. I appreciate you sending it to me and I hope it makes a dent.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Mechanics Strike Mohawk Airlines

UTICA, N.Y. (AP) — Nearly 500 mechanics struck Mohawk Airlines at midnight Thursday, but the company said today the "majority of its flights" would continue.

The mechanics, all members of Local 75 of the International Association of Machinists, set up picket lines at the nation's largest regional carriers' 14 terminals.

The strike came in the face of an apparently unsuccessful meeting Thursday in Washington, D.C., among company and union leaders and the National Mediation Board.

The union voted two weeks ago to authorize the strike if agreement was not reached by today on a disputed employe-pension plan payment schedule.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN HORN

Children's Programs

The American way of television for children is given a good going-over by Doreen Stephens, head of family programs for the British Broadcasting Corp., in a recent lecture just available in pamphlet form.

Most of the talk is devoted to discussion of aims and programs in England, but Miss Stephens does formulate five principles which could apply here as well.

SHE SAYS television's duty and responsibility are to use the medium to enrich and enlarge a child's experience.

She insists that children (1) must want to choose to watch programs, (2) should be entertained and enjoy the programs, (3) should be treated with respect as people, without condescension or concession, and (4) should not be overprotected in the choice and presentation of content.

It is her acid remarks on U.S. television, however, that will perk up American parents' ears and minds.

"Unfortunately," she says, "their (children's) lack of experience makes them vulnerable — to those who find them easy meat for slick, corny, undemanding entertainment, for all the well-meaning kindly uncle or aunt figures who want to do them good in a sugary, soft and sentimental way, for the adult with an eye on the till and visions of a quickly-turned penny in return for little trouble.

"BECAUSE of their lack of experience, children can be led too easily. They are not discriminating; they have too little experience to make comparisons and judgments. In America, on television, they have programs especially for the whole range of unquestioning people — adults and children. The 'kiddi-dult' programs they call them.

"Current favorite 'kiddi-dult' program in this country at present is 'Batman,' but — and this speaks well for both the British educational system and the over-all standard of radio and television programs in this country — its appeal has proved to be less strong and compulsive than in the States.

"After the first novelty its attraction wears off. Its main continuing appeal is for young viewers, 70 per cent of the 5-to-7 age group, 50 per cent of all children, and of course those older viewers who remain 'kiddi-dults.'"

MISS STEPHENS made this severe judgment:

"In the U.S.A. there has been no tradition of a strong public service corporation. As a result, the children have been the target of competing commercial networks seeking the largest audience for the least expenditure.

"Ralph Garry, director of the Boston School of education, leads a crusade of intellectuals vs. advertisers for the minds of American children.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN HORN

Children's Programs

The American way of television for children is given a good going-over by Doreen Stephens, head of family programs for the British Broadcasting Corp., in a recent lecture just available in pamphlet form.

Most of the talk is devoted to discussion of aims and programs in England, but Miss Stephens does formulate five principles which could apply here as well.

SHE SAYS television's duty and responsibility are to use the medium to enrich and enlarge a child's experience.

She insists that children (1) must want to choose to watch programs, (2) should be entertained and enjoy the programs, (3) should be treated with respect as people, without condescension or concession, and (4) should not be overprotected in the choice and presentation of content.

It is her acid remarks on U.S. television, however, that will perk up American parents' ears and minds.

"Unfortunately," she says, "their (children's) lack of experience makes them vulnerable — to those who find them easy meat for slick, corny, undemanding entertainment, for all the well-meaning kindly uncle or aunt figures who want to do them good in a sugary, soft and sentimental way, for the adult with an eye on the till and visions of a quickly-turned penny in return for little trouble.

"BECAUSE of their lack of experience, children can be led too easily. They are not discriminating; they have too little experience to make comparisons and judgments. In America, on television, they have programs especially for the whole range of unquestioning people — adults and children. The 'kiddi-dult' programs they call them.

"Current favorite 'kiddi-dult' program in this country at present is 'Batman,' but — and this speaks well for both the British educational system and the over-all standard of radio and television programs in this country — its appeal has proved to be less strong and compulsive than in the States.

"After the first novelty its attraction wears off. Its main continuing appeal is for young viewers, 70 per cent of the 5-to-7 age group, 50 per cent of all children, and of course those older viewers who remain 'kiddi-dults.'"

MISS STEPHENS made this severe judgment:

"In the U.S.A. there has been no tradition of a strong public service corporation. As a result, the children have been the target of competing commercial networks seeking the largest audience for the least expenditure.

"Ralph Garry, director of the Boston School of education, leads a crusade of intellectuals vs. advertisers for the minds of American children.

"But only in a few local stations, hamstrung for lack of money, facilities and staff, are the children really treated with anything but almost cynical contempt, and even where the national networks have made a gesture the results are too often not well conceived."

Concern Shown Over Protection In Madison Twp.

Madison Township Chief Constable Clarence Ammon, in issuing a report on November activities, said he does not believe the township will receive adequate police protection for the coming year because of lack of operating expenses.

Ammon pointed out Sherman Rohr resigned as constable Dec. 1 because of insufficient funds to provide for patrol duty.

He said Rohr was unable to afford the expense of using his own car and providing gas, oil and tires with only a small portion of the $50 a month allotted all four constables.

Ammon said he understands many residents of the township think constables get more than $100 a month, and pointed out this is not true.

The failure of a proposed police levy, he said, causes him to think the people expect the Sheriff's Department to protect the township when the deputies have the whole county to cover.

"If a levy had passed in Madison Township, a police phone could have been listed, and we could have two other constables to be on duty to receive any calls and answer any emergency in the township."

Ammon reported 1,132 miles patrolled in November, 20 complaints and three accidents investigated. One suspect in an armed robbery was taken into custody for Jefferson County officials.

Potters' Harris Named To All-Ohio First Defensive Unit

The Sports Bench

Strong Opening Foes . . .

Coach Clinton McConnell can get a pretty good line on his Potters in their first two games this weekend.

They're not opening with any patsies, but will have to be at their best if they expect to get off on the right foot.

Pittsburgh Westinghouse, which shot 53 per cent at the Steubenville Community Arena Tuesday night in a 20-point victory over Central, definitely poses a problem in tonight's opener.

Central Coach John Nese claims 6-7 Ed Kemp "could be the best big man we'll see at the Arena this season." Kemp led Westinghouse with 30 points against the Crusaders.

The Potters go into action again Saturday night, traveling to Alliance. McConnell considers the Aviators the team to beat in the Big 8 Conference. We understand Alliance coach Dick Brockett feels the same about the Potters.

East Liverpool can floor one of the tallest teams in many seasons and the Potters seem to have some above average talent. As McConnell said, it may take the players time to adjust to a new system and the new Potter coach is a taskmaster on defense, a phase of the game he has been stressing since practice began.

We look for an interesting season and the schedule holds some outstanding competition.

COLUMBUS EAST, who the Potters face at Memorial Auditorium Jan. 6, already has drawn a vote from a local official as one of the best teams in the state. Jim (Jazzo) Migliore, who officiated the Salem-East game last Saturday night, rates the Columbus team one of the outstanding quints in Ohio.

They have a 6-7 pivot man plus a 6-6 cager and two most promising sophomores standing 6-4 each.

Salem coach John Cabas had only the highest praise for the Columbus team after his Quakers lost by 34 points.

LaScola Is Coach Of Year . . .

FORMER Wellsville standout Joe LaScola has been named Coach of the Year in the Detroit area by the Associated Newspapers for his record this past football season at Cherry Hill High School near the Motor City.

LaScola, who only a few years ago won a state basketball championship in Michigan with his Holy Redeemer team, carved out a 5-2 record this season and was runnerup in his league.

His selection came after he rebuilt Cherry Hill into a title contender. A doormat of the league before LaScola took over, the team posted a 2-5 record in 1965, good enough to get it out of the league cellar.

This past season the Spartans stayed in the league race until the very last second of the season, losing a 6-0 decision on the final play of the game.

Joe also coaches basketball at Cherry Hill. He moved into the Detroit area, taking over at Holy Redeemer, and in 1965 moved to his present job. LaScola began coaching at Dover St. Joseph's High School.

Vanlier Dazzles Opponents . . .

MIDLAND'S Norm Vanlier continued his scoring and playmaking prowess Tuesday night when he dropped in 20 points against William and Mary as St. Francis gained its third straight victory.

Last Saturday night, in a romp over Grove City, Vanlier pumped in 24 points.

In three games for the sophomore - studded Frankies, Vanlier has scored 53 points, for a 17.6 average. He is No. 2 scorer on the team, trailing the leader by eight.

The Frankies next date is Saturday night against St. Joseph's College at Philadelphia's Palestra.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

FROM the 5th Down publication of the Football Writers Association of America comes a story about a new delay of the game.

Added to the list of official times out for yardage measurements, TV commercials, etc., is a new airborn delay which popped up recently at Blair, Neb. where the Westmar and Dana college teams were in action.

As the last half began, officials scanned the sky. One of them signaled time out and very shortly a parachutist tumbled into the end zone. A moment later, another time out. A second 'chutist' came down at the 30-yard line.

It was part of an Omaha Skydivers Club act scheduled to feature Dana's halftime program. Wind delayed the jumps. Two other Skydivers missed the gridiron, one landing outside and another in a tree.

DUFFY DAUGHERTY, of Michigan State told a high school banquet audience: "Look at our Bubba Smith (280 or so). He once was an 89-pound weakling — when he was three years old."

EX-POTTER coach Frank Chan shows two victories in the same number of starts in his new post as head coach at Beaver Falls High School. The Tigers opened with an impressive 83-43 victory over rival New Brighton then defeated Beaver 87-67 earlier this week.

Gains All-State Honors.

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fleet-footed Mike Palmer, the thunderbolt halfback from Steubenville, heads up a host of talented backs named to The Associated Press Class AA All-Ohio football team.

Palmer, a heralded 5-foot - 9, 170-pound senior sought by a number of colleges, was the only repeater from last year's all - state squad.

East Liverpool's outstanding defensive end, Chuck Harris, who was the lineman of the year in the Eastern District, today was named to the Associated Press All-Ohio first defensive unit.

Along with Harris, two other East Liverpool players were named to the honorable mention list. They are Darryl Herring, senior halfback and Mike McVay, junior quarterback.

Other district gridders named to the honorable mention team were Beaver Local's fine tackle Allan Moore and Wellsville halfback Todd Weekley.

There was such an abundance of outstanding runners that the AP dream team has four running backs, instead of the usual three.

District boards, consisting of sports writers and sportcasters from throughout Ohio, helped in choosing the scholastic gridders for statewide recognition.

Palmer was the big gun in Coach Abe Bryan's attack with 18 touchdowns and 1,047 yards rushing. He led the Big Red to a 9-1 campaign, crashing an average 7.1 yards every time he carried the ball.

The all - state backfield has speed, power and an awesome scoring punch that accounted for 539 points.

Leophus (Honda) Hayden of Dayton Roosevelt rang up 1,223 yards in 150 carries and scored 126 points. Larry Zelina of Cleveland Benedictine, rated one of the finest backs ever to come out of the Cleveland area, scored 21 touchdowns and rambled 985 yards despite playing sparingly in three games because of an injury. He led Benedictine to two straight Cleveland city titles.

The other first team back is Marty Huff of Toledo St. Francis, who rushed for 1,199 yards and smacked for 14 touchdowns in addition to handling kickoffs, extra points and placements.

The quarterback spot went to Don Plusquellic of Akron Kenmore, who tossed 20 touchdown passes while completing 57 per cent of his aerials for a whopping 1,732 yards.

Outstanding linemen dominate both the offensive and defensive units. Vic Malinovsky, Sandusky stellar guard, head up the offensive line that also includes tackles Brian Donovan who played for mythical state champion Columbus Watterson.

Tony Capers of Warren Harding landed the other tackle spot. In addition to his brilliant play in the line, Capers excelled as a placekicker.

The linebackers are quick and strong with the likes of Tom Ecrement of Canton Glenwood, the top player of the year in Stark County, and 280 - pound Alex Davis of Hamilton Garfield.

Rex Kern of Lancaster, one of the state's heralded quarterbacks, and Randy Cooper of Lima Senior, a strong running threat, both landed berths as defensive backs because of their ability to go both ways.

MacPhail Out To Build Yanks

Maris Traded To Cards For 3rd Baseman Smith

NEW YORK (AP) — Lee MacPhail, working feverishly over the shattered New York Yankees, continues to operate at his favorite market place — the National League.

The new Yankee general manager shipped Roger Maris and his $75,000 salary tag to St. Louis for third baseman Charley Smith Thursday.

It was MacPhail's second deal since being hired to help rebuild the Yankees, who finished the 1966 season mired in the American League cellar for the first time in 42 years. Ten days ago he swapped third baseman Clete Boyer to Atlanta for outfielder Bill Robinson.

It was MacPhail, then working for Baltimore, who engineered the biggest inter-league trade of 1965 when he dealt three players to Cincinnati for Frank Robinson.

MacPhail can hardly expect the same kind of instant success for the Maris swap that Robinson brought to Baltimore. Smith is a journeyman third baseman who carries a lifetime batting average of .243.

It was an open secret that the Yankees were ready to unload Maris, who only five years ago broke Babe Ruth's record for home runs when he hit 61 in a 162-game season.

"I wasn't at all surprised," the slugging outfielder said after being told of the deal. "I rather expected it. In fact, I expected to be traded ever since 1962."

Smith, who has played for the Los Angeles Dodgers, Philadelphia Phillies, Chicago White Sox and New York Mets as well as St. Louis, wasn't nearly as composed.

"I'll be darned," he exclaimed.

Maris, twice chosen the American League's Most Valuable Player, dominated baseball in 1961 with his blistering home run pace.

After his record-shattering season, he rocketed into baseball's higher salary class but his production slipped noticeably. He hit 33 homers in 1962, 23 in 1963 and 26 in 1964.

He was crippled by injuries through most of 1965, appearing in just 46 games and hitting only eight homers. He underwent surgery for the removal of bone chips at the base of his right hand after the season and played in 119 games last season, managing only 13 homers.

Only Two Certain To Start Tonight In ELHS Opener

The list of those who might be in the starting lineup for the Potters in tonight's opener with Pittsburgh Westinghouse has been narrowed to seven.

Coach Clinton McConnell, who will make his debut in East Liverpool tonight at Memorial Auditorium, has seven players from whom he will draw his starting lineup and two of those are sure to be in the starting five.

McConnell said Vern Smith, 6-1 senior and last year's leading scorer and junior Earl Diddle, a clever playmaker, will be definite starters.

—:—

THE OTHER three will come from a group of Mike McVay, 6-1 junior, Bill Carter, 6-2 senior, Rex Campbell, 6-2 junior, Bruce Christian, 6-4 junior or Mitchell Jones, 6-5 junior.

There has been seven to nine players running equal in practice and scrimmage sessions and McConnell has found it difficult to decide on who to start but all are expected to see a lot of action tonight.

PITTSBURGH Westinghouse brings a 1-1 record to East Liverpool with a loss in its opener to New Castle and an 83-63 victory over Steubenville Central Tuesday night.

The big gun for Westinghouse is Ed Kemp, 6-7 senior pivot man. The long, lean Kemp has scored 56 points in two games. Other starters for Westinghouse are Gellin Terry, 6-2, Bob Nelson, 6-1, Arthur Day 6-1 and J. Brown 5-9.

Following tonight's game, the Potters journey to Alliance to meet a much improved Aviator team that has a 2-0 record but plays a strong Cuyahoga Falls team tonight.

—:—

ALLIANCE has an all experienced team with four regulars returning from last year's squad.

Leading the Aviators is Al Thigpen, a 6-3 senior who is rated a good jumper and was the leading scorer last season. In two games he has scored 42 points.

Jim Brabson, at 6-4, is the tallest member of the starting five. He only played the first half of last season when an injury sidelined him for the second part of the campaign.

ANOTHER regular last year is Dave Boyle, 6-2 senior. While not much of a scorer he is rated a good board man.

Ed Osley, a 6-foot senior, was a starter for half of last season but was suspended from the squad for disciplinary reasons midway through the campaign. Osley is rated a good shooter and is expected to team with Thigpen in the point department.

The fifth starter will be either Barry Snodgrass, or Lionel Grimes, a pair of 5-10 juniors, Ray Taylor, another 5-10 junior, is sure to see some action.

ALLIANCE has beaten Western Reserve of Warren, 61-44 and Ravenna 72-30.

McConnell said the regulars only played about 10 minutes of each game against Western Reserve and Ravenna but scored at a rapid pace.

Alliance coach Dick Brockett rates East Liverpool with the best teams in northern Ohio.

Brockett said "it is a long way until tournament time, but I predict the Potters will be heard from before the season is over."

Tonight's varsity game is expected to start about 8:15 p. m. The reserve games at East Liverpool this season will get underway at 6:45 p. m., fifteen minutes earlier than last season.

ANOTHER regular last year is Dave Boyle, 6-2 senior. While not much of a scorer he is rated a good board man.

Ed Osley, a 6-foot senior, was a starter for half of last season but was suspended from the squad for disciplinary reasons midway through the campaign. Osley is rated a good shooter and is expected to team with Thigpen in the point department.

The fifth starter will be either Barry Snodgrass, or Lionel Grimes, a pair of 5-10 juniors, Ray Taylor, another 5-10 junior, is sure to see some action.

ALLIANCE has beaten Western Reserve of Warren, 61-44 and Ravenna 72-30.

McConnell said the regulars only played about 10 minutes of each game against Western Reserve and Ravenna but scored at a rapid pace.

Alliance coach Dick Brockett rates East Liverpool with the best teams in northern Ohio.

Brockett said "it is a long way until tournament time, but I predict the Potters will be heard from before the season is over."

Tonight's varsity game is expected to start about 8:15 p. m. The reserve games at East Liverpool this season will get underway at 6:45 p. m., fifteen minutes earlier than last season.

Parseghian, The Organizer, Did Job In 3 Years

By JERRY LISKA

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Two giant pictures — Knute Rockne on the left and Ara Parseghian on the right — hung over the long rostrom as the Notre Dame Club of Chicago held its Rockne Memorial Dinner in a jammed hotel ballroom Monday night.

There they were — Rock, the master psychologist, and Ara, the dynamic organizer, sharing the adulation of 1,500 Irish alumni gathered to cheer Notre Dame's first national champion football team in 17 years.

In just three years, Armenian Protestant Parseghian had gained the stature as a worthy successor to the legendary Rockne enjoyed previously mainly by Frank Leahy.

Leahy, one of six Notre Dame schooled descendants of Rockne to coach the Irish left in 1953 with an 87-11-9 record after 11 seasons.

Leahy did receive a great ovation at the Monday night affair, but he was seated in the crowd —not on the rostrum. The first three Notre Dame seasons for Leahy and Parseghian were almost identical. Frank posted 24-4-3, winning the first of his four national titles in 1943, his third Irish season, with a 9-1 record.

Parseghian's three-season Irish mark is 25-3-2, capped this year with a 9-0-1 record which won the national title based on the final Associated Press poll—first for Notre Dame since Leahy's 1949 club.

All this, the intense, fiery Parseghian did mainly with material inherited from predecessors who had a combined record of 7-10-0 in 1962 and 1963. Rockne's 13-season Notre Dame reign produced a 105-12-5 record, a .897 percentage that still tops major college coaching.

Parseghian, 43, has a composite 100-44-4 record spanning his head coaching at Miami of Ohio, Northwestern and Notre Dame.

Parseghian once before had an undefeated season, a perfect one, when the last of his five Miami Redskin Clubs posted 9-0 in 1955.

Parseghian, a coach with a snappy staff, split-timing in practice sessions and player incentive awards, is contracted at Notre Dame through 1969.

Next season, Parseghian will be operating with the first Irish squad he fully recruited. Graduating All-America stars Nick Eddy, Jim Lynch, and Tom Regner, plus Pete Duranko, Alan Page and Larry Conjar all were recruited by Hugh Devore or Joe Kuharich.

Duke Will Test UCLA's Alcindor

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Can Lew Alcindor do it again for UCLA against Duke tonight?

The 7-foot-1⅜ inch sophomore, hailed as the greatest player in present-day college basketball, made an awesome varsity debut by scoring 56 points against Southern California last Saturday. Whether he can do it against the tougher Blue Devils from the Atlantic Coast Conference remains to be seen.

"We're not conceding UCLA anything," said Vic Bubas, Duke coach, before the Blue Devils left Durham, N.C., for the game at Pauley Pavilion on the UCLA campus in Los Angeles.

The Blue Devils, seventh-ranked nationally to the top-ranked Bruins in The Associated Press poll, would dearly love to repeat their two victories over UCLA last season.

The Duke triumphs by 82-66 and 94-75 last December when UCLA came East, started the Bruins on the downward path that cost them the national championship.

Meantime Johnny Wooden, UCLA coach, reported Alcindor would be up for the Blue Devils, although his right calf swelled somewhat after receiving an unintentional kick in the Bruins' 105-90 conquest of Southern California.

The impending battles of Duke and UCLA tonight and Saturday overshadowed the scare little Pan-American College gave Texas Western Thursday night before the national champions pulled it out 67-65 at El Paso.

Willie Cager, with 24 points, and David Lattin, with 22, sparked a comeback by the second-ranked Miners that erased an eight-point Pan American lead in the second half.

Fifth-ranked Houston, the only other team in the AP Top Ten to see action, also had trouble scoring an 89-81 home court triumph over Southwestern Louisiana.

Creighton, Memphis State and St. John's of New York downed major opponents on the road. Creighton spoiled Wichita's home opener with a come-from-behind 91-88 victory. Memphis State also rallied to beat Rice 63-54. St. John's defeated Holy Cross 77-60.

Oak Glen Wrestlers Trip Brilliant In First Match

Oak Glen's wrestling team got off on the right foot with a 31-9 victory over Brilliant in its opening match Thursday night at Oak Glen.

The Golden Bears of Vince Monseau won nine of the 12 matches.

Jack Everly, 120 - pounder and heavyweight Kit Carson led the victory by recording pins. Everly's came at 2:35 while Carson put his opponent away in 50 seconds.

Decisions were picked up by Mike Swartzmiller who won a 5-2 verdict in the 95 pound class. Rick Price (103) won 6-1, Ralph Louk (127) posted a 6-0 victory Fred Miller (133) won 72, Dave Lowther was a 14-0 winner, Jim Myers finished on top 6-2 and Glenn Greathouse picked up a 14-10 verdict.

Oak Glen will wrestle at Morgantown tonight at 5:30 preceeding the basketball game between the two schools.

The results follow:

95 — Swartzmiller (OG) decisioned Frye (B) 5-2.

103 — Price (OG) decisioned Bednerek (B) 6-1.

112 — Sterling (B) decisioned Hobbs (OG) 12-1.

120 — Everly (OG) pinned Kovach (B) 2:35.

127 — Louk (OG) decisioned Kirkland (B) 6-0.

133 — Miller (OG) decisioned Huggins (B) 7-2.

138 — Hockenberry (B) decisioned Wern (OG) 8-1.

Green Bay Has Won Last 4 Tilts

Colts To Shoot The Works Against Packers Saturday

BALTIMORE (AP) — John Unitas and the Baltimore Colts, rankled by four straight defeats by Green Bay, are primed for one big shoot-the-works effort Saturday against the favored Packers, who can clinch the Western Conference title of the National Football League with a win or tie.

Green Bay, which has been working out all week in seclusion in Gaithersburg, Md., is in the driver's seat with a two-game lead and two games to play.

Bart Starr has been having a fantastic year with his pinpoint passing and low interception percentage. Unitas, the old master, has been having trouble with a sore shoulder and is off his usual super pace. But John usually rises to the occasion.

The long-awaited rematch will be beamed across the nation on network (CBS) television, starting at 3:15 p.m., EST.

The Colts squirmed all winter after losing that sudden death playoff game at Green Bay, complaining that Don Chandler's controversial field goal that tied the score was not good. A recent television film was cited as evidence in their favor.

Green Bay has been sitting back quietly, having cashed their 1965 winning checks long ago, but there is evidence that the Colts' complaints have not gone unnoticed in Packerland. The leather will be popping Saturday.

Baltimore psyched up so high for the first game with the Packers, Sept. 10 that it was almost a crusade. The bottom fell out for the Colts when Leroy Caffey and Bob Jeter intercepted passes by Unitas and ran them back for touchdowns on the way to a decisive 24-3 victory.

Elijah Pitts took over from Paul Hornung when the Golden Boy suffered a pinched nerve in his neck and has become a regular. Hornung, who scored five touchdowns against the Colts at this same time last year, has been used sparingly.

Many think Lombardi will take the covers off Paul on Saturday. Dependable Jim Taylor still is the bread-and-butter runner.

Green Bay is favored because the Packers, despite the long ball punch of Baltimore's Unitas, have outscored the Colts 294-274 and, more important, have allowed only 130 points to 198 against the Colts. Both teams have a good pass rush and the ability of their respective offensive lines to nullify that rush, probably will decide the battle.

Unusually mild weather has settled over Baltimore with the temperatures in 60s or even higher. It is supposed to cooler by Saturday with a chance of showers.

The Green Bay-Baltimore game is Saturday's only pro football action. The rest of the National League and the American League swing into action Sunday.

St. Louis, trailing first-place Dallas by one game in the Eastern race with two remaining, plays at Atlanta while the Cowboys entertain Washington. Both the Cardinals and Dallas are heavy favorites. Elsewhere, Pittsburgh visits New York, Minnesota is at Detroit, Cleveland plays at Philadelphia and San Francisco hosts Chicago.

East Junior returns to action Monday at Columbiana.

Little Potters Loop Will Not Operate

Announcing with regret, the Little Potters Basketball program will have to be curtailed for the coming basketball season due to the financial cutbacks in the school system. With the cutbacks eliminating the use of the Junior High gymnasiums during the evenings and the heavy schedule for the Broadway gymnasium make it impossible to operate the league this year. We know this is a step backwards to our athletic program and along with the elimination of our Junior High football and basketball programs next fall.

The announcement was made by Harry McConville, president of the Little Potters League and Charles Winters, vice president.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Thirty years of football officiating for James Cain ends Dec. 31 when the Seattle insurance man referees the Shrine East-West game.

This will be the ninth East-West contest for Cain, who has announced his retirement. He has twice officiated in the Rose Bowl and played there for Washington in 1937.

Cain's assignment was made Thursday.

Barry Finds Mark Again, Hits For 50

Rick Barry's one-man point-making performance kept the National Basketball Association's Western Division a one-team show Thursday night.

The sophomore forward, a runaway scoring leader in the NBA, pumped in 50 points as he led the San Francisco Warriors to a 124-106 victory over the St. Louis Hawks in Phoenix, Ariz.

The triumph increased the Warriors' lead to 5½ games over the Hawks and left San Francisco the only team in the division over .500 at 18-9. The Hawks missed a chance at the break even point and fell from second to third in the West at 11-13.

In the only other game, Chicago pulled away to a 132-120 decision over Baltimore behind Bob Boozer, Guy Rodgers and Jerry Sloan in a struggle between the last-place clubs in each division.

Barry, who hit 57 points earlier this season, scored his 1,600th point early in the first half as the Warriors built a 69-43 halftime bulge.

Packers Picked To Defeat Colts

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Green Bay should wrap it up in the Western Conference but Dallas may have to wait until the last day of the season to nail down the Eastern Conference title in the National Football League.

Boston starts on the first stop of a perilous two-game road trip, needing wins over both Houston and the New York Jets to be sure of finishing ahead of Buffalo in the Eastern sector of the American Football League. Kansas is keeping sharp with a game at Miami, having already won the Western title.

Here are the picks (all games Sunday unless otherwise noted):

NFL

Green Bay 24, Baltimore 20 (Saturday)—Colts in desperate spot, two games back with two to go. Packers came into same game last year, trailing by one-half game, but bombed Colts in the fog when Paul Hornung scored five times. Johnny Unitas was out last year but he is ready now, shaking off sore arm to beat Bears last week. Green Bay won Sept. 10 game 24-3 on key interceptions by Lee Roy Caffey and Bob Jeter.

Dallas 34, Washington 24—Cowboys on hot streak with four straight victories. Redskins coming off bye after 72-41 rout of New York. Dallas edged Washington 31-30 Nov. 13, blowing 21-6 lead when Sonny Jurgensen started hitting but winning on Danny Villanueva's field goal with 15 seconds to go.

St. Louis 17, Atlanta 10—Cards still have mathematical chance but may be drooping after tough loss to Dallas. Falcons sky high after beating Vikings in the show. St. Louis has too much defense and Terry Nofsinger proved he could score last week.

Cleveland 31, Philadelphia 24—The Browns handled Eagles 27-7 on Nov. 13 when Philadelphia offense sputtered. Cleveland must win to stay alive with faint hope in East.

San Francisco 27, Chicago 20—These teams played a 30-30 tie four weeks ago. John Brodie had a big day with 327 yards and Tommy Davis tied score with field goal with nine seconds to go.

Minnesota 23, Detroit 17—Lions won first game 32-31 when Gary Yapreman kicked six field goals and Fran Tarkenton was intercepted five times. Tarkenton regains starting role after game on bench.

Pittsburgh 21, New York 20—Giants have lost six straight and gave given up 121 points in last two games while scoring 81.

Beavers Win In Overtime

Bruce Diddle's two foul shots, his only points of the game, gave Beaver Local a 27-25 overtime victory Thursday at Leetonia.

The victory was the second in as many starts for the young Beavers. Beaver Local trailed 19-15 at the end of the third quarter but tied the score 23-23 at the end of regulation time. Diddle's two fouls broke the 25-25 tie.

Scott Dubberly paced Beaver Local with 11 points while Taylor tossed in 10 for the losers.

BEAVER LOCAL—27
Dubberly 4-3-11; Bentz 3-2-8; Farish 3-0-6; Diddle 0-2-2; Veness 0-0-0. Totals 10-7-27.
LEETONIA—25
Taylor 5-0-10; Murray 0-0-0; Coseno 4-1-9; Kornball 3-0-6; Scullion 0-0-0. Totals 12-1-25.

Parseghian, The Organizer, Did Job In 3 Years

By JERRY LISKA

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Two giant pictures — Knute Rockne on the left and Ara Parseghian on the right — hung over the long rostrom as the Notre Dame Club of Chicago held its Rockne Memorial Dinner in a jammed hotel ballroom Monday night.

There they were — Rock, the master psychologist, and Ara, the dynamic organizer, sharing the adulation of 1,500 Irish alumni gathered to cheer Notre Dame's first national champion football team in 17 years.

In just three years, Armenian Protestant Parseghian had gained the stature as a worthy successor to the legendary Rockne enjoyed previously mainly by Frank Leahy.

Leahy, one of six Notre Dame schooled descendants of Rockne to coach the Irish left in 1953 with an 87-11-9 record after 11 seasons.

Leahy did receive a great ovation at the Monday night affair, but he was seated in the crowd —not on the rostrum. The first three Notre Dame seasons for Leahy and Parseghian were almost identical. Frank posted 24-4-3, winning the first of his four national titles in 1943, his third Irish season, with a 9-1 record.

Parseghian's three-season Irish mark is 25-3-2, capped this year with a 9-0-1 record which won the national title based on the final Associated Press poll—first for Notre Dame since Leahy's 1949 club.

All this, the intense, fiery Parseghian did mainly with material inherited from predecessors who had a combined record of 7-10-0 in 1962 and 1963. Rockne's 13-season Notre Dame reign produced a 105-12-5 record, a .897 percentage that still tops major college coaching.

Parseghian, 43, has a composite 100-44-4 record spanning his head coaching at Miami of Ohio, Northwestern and Notre Dame.

Parseghian once before had an undefeated season, a perfect one, when the last of his five Miami Redskin Clubs posted 9-0 in 1955.

Parseghian, a coach with a snappy staff, split-timing in practice sessions and player incentive awards, is contracted at Notre Dame through 1969.

Next season, Parseghian will be operating with the first Irish squad he fully recruited. Graduating All-America stars Nick Eddy, Jim Lynch, and Tom Regner, plus Pete Duranko, Alan Page and Larry Conjar all were recruited by Hugh Devore or Joe Kuharich.

Duke Will Test UCLA's Alcindor

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Can Lew Alcindor do it again for UCLA against Duke tonight?

The 7-foot-1⅜ inch sophomore, hailed as the greatest player in present-day college basketball, made an awesome varsity debut by scoring 56 points against Southern California last Saturday. Whether he can do it against the tougher Blue Devils from the Atlantic Coast Conference remains to be seen.

"We're not conceding UCLA anything," said Vic Bubas, Duke coach, before the Blue Devils left Durham, N.C., for the game at Pauley Pavilion on the UCLA campus in Los Angeles.

The Blue Devils, seventh-ranked nationally to the top-ranked Bruins in The Associated Press poll, would dearly love to repeat their two victories over UCLA last season.

The Duke triumphs by 82-66 and 94-75 last December when UCLA came East, started the Bruins on the downward path that cost them the national championship.

Meantime Johnny Wooden, UCLA coach, reported Alcindor would be up for the Blue Devils, although his right calf swelled somewhat after receiving an unintentional kick in the Bruins' 105-90 conquest of Southern California.

The impending battles of Duke and UCLA tonight and Saturday overshadowed the scare little Pan-American College gave Texas Western Thursday night before the national champions pulled it out 67-65 at El Paso.

Willie Cager, with 24 points, and David Lattin, with 22, sparked a comeback by the second-ranked Miners that erased an eight-point Pan American lead in the second half.

Fifth-ranked Houston, the only other team in the AP Top Ten to see action, also had trouble scoring an 89-81 home court triumph over Southwestern Louisiana.

Creighton, Memphis State and St. John's of New York downed major opponents on the road. Creighton spoiled Wichita's home opener with a come-from-behind 91-88 victory. Memphis State also rallied to beat Rice 63-54. St. John's defeated Holy Cross 77-60.

Oak Glen Wrestlers Trip Brilliant In First Match

Oak Glen's wrestling team got off on the right foot with a 31-9 victory over Brilliant in its opening match Thursday night at Oak Glen.

The Golden Bears of Vince Monseau won nine of the 12 matches.

Jack Everly, 120 - pounder and heavyweight Kit Carson led the victory by recording pins. Everly's came at 2:35 while Carson put his opponent away in 50 seconds.

Decisions were picked up by Mike Swartzmiller who won a 5-2 verdict in the 95 pound class. Rick Price (103) won 6-1, Ralph Louk (127) posted a 6-0 victory Fred Miller (133) won 72. Dave Lowther was a 14-0 winner. Jim Myers finished on top 6-2 and Glenn Greathouse picked up a 14-10 verdict.

Oak Glen will wrestle at Morgantown tonight at 5:30 preceeding the basketball game between the two schools.

The results follow:

Green Bay Has Won Last 4 Tilts

Colts To Shoot The Works Against Packers Saturday

BALTIMORE (AP) — John Unitas and the Baltimore Colts, rankled by four straight defeats by Green Bay, are primed for one big shoot-the-works effort Saturday against the favored Packers, who can clinch the Western Conference title of the National Football League with a win or tie.

Green Bay, which has been working out all week in seclusion in Gaithersburg, Md., is in the driver's seat with a two-game lead and two games to play.

Bart Starr has been having a fantastic year with his pinpoint passing and low interception percentage. Unitas, the old master, has been having trouble with a sore shoulder and is off his usual super pace. But John usually rises to the occasion.

The long-awaited rematch will be beamed across the nation on network (CBS) television, starting at 3:15 p.m., EST.

The Colts squirmed all winter after losing that sudden death playoff game at Green Bay, complaining that Don Chandler's controversial field goal that tied the score was not good. A recent television film was cited as evidence in their favor.

Green Bay has been sitting back quietly, having cashed their 1965 winning checks long ago, but there is evidence that the Colts' complaints have not gone unnoticed in Packerland. The leather will be popping Saturday.

Baltimore psyched up so high for the first game with the Packers, Sept. 10 that it was almost a crusade. The bottom fell out for the Colts when Leroy Caffey and Bob Jeter intercepted passes by Unitas and ran them back for touchdowns on the way to a decisive 24-3 victory.

Elijah Pitts took over from Paul Hornung when the Golden Boy suffered a pinched nerve in his neck and has become a regular. Hornung, who scored five touchdowns against the Colts at this same time last year, has been used sparingly.

Many think Lombardi will take the covers off Paul on Saturday. Dependable Jim Taylor still is the bread-and-butter runner.

Green Bay is favored because the Packers, despite the long ball punch of Baltimore's Unitas, have outscored the Colts 294-274 and, more important, have allowed only 130 points to 198 against the Colts. Both teams have a good pass rush and the ability of their respective offensive lines to nullify that rush, probably will decide the battle.

Unusually mild weather has settled over Baltimore with the temperatures in 60s or even higher. It is supposed to cooler by Saturday with a chance of showers.

The Green Bay-Baltimore game is Saturday's only pro football action. The rest of the National League and the American League swing into action Sunday.

St. Louis, trailing first-place Dallas by one game in the Eastern race with two remaining, plays at Atlanta while the Cowboys entertain Washington. Both the Cardinals and Dallas are heavy favorites. Elsewhere, Pittsburgh visits New York, Minnesota is at Detroit, Cleveland plays at Philadelphia and San Francisco hosts Chicago.

East Junior Gains First Cage Victory

East Junior romped to its first victory of the season with a 40-13 decision over East Palestine Thursday on the East Junior court.

After a slow first quarter which saw East leading 4-2, the Panthers moved out to a 17-5 halftime margin.

Steve Golden flipped in 11 points to pace the winners while Jim Parsons added eight. Huffman and Strawn had four points each for the losers.

East Junior returns to action Monday at Columbiana.

Little Potters Loop Will Not Operate

Announcing with regret, the Little Potters Basketball program will have to be curtailed for the coming basketball season due to the financial cutbacks in the school system. With the cutbacks eliminating the use of the Junior High gymnasiums during the evenings and the heavy schedule for the Broadway gymnasium make it impossible to operate the league this year. We know this is a step backwards to our athletic program and along with the elimination of our Junior High football and basketball programs next fall.

The announcement was made by Harry McConville, president of the Little Potters League and Charles Winters, vice president.

Cain To End 30 Years As Football Official

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Thirty years of football officiating for James Cain ends Dec. 31 when the Seattle insurance man referees the Shrine East-West game.

This will be the ninth East-West contest for Cain, who has announced his retirement. He has twice officiated in the Rose Bowl and played there for Washington in 1937.

Cain's assignment was made Thursday.

Barry Finds Mark Again, Hits For 50

Rick Barry's one-man point-making performance kept the National Basketball Association's Western Division a one-team show Thursday night.

The sophomore forward, a runaway scoring leader in the NBA, pumped in 50 points as he led the San Francisco Warriors to a 124-106 victory over the St. Louis Hawks in Phoenix, Ariz.

The triumph increased the Warriors' lead to 5½ games over the Hawks and left San Francisco the only team in the division over .500 at 18-9. The Hawks missed a chance at the break even point and fell from second to third in the West at 11-13.

In the only other game, Chicago pulled away to a 132-120 decision over Baltimore behind Bob Boozer, Guy Rodgers and Jerry Sloan in a struggle between the last-place clubs in each division.

Barry, who hit 57 points earlier this season, scored his 1,600th point early in the first half as the Warriors built a 69-43 halftime bulge.

Packers Picked To Defeat Colts

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Green Bay should wrap it up in the Western Conference but Dallas may have to wait until the last day of the season to nail down the Eastern Conference title in the National Football League.

Boston starts on the first stop of a perilous two-game road trip, needing wins over both Houston and the New York Jets to be sure of finishing ahead of Buffalo in the Eastern sector of the American Football League. Kansas is keeping sharp with a game at Miami, having already won the Western title.

Here are the picks (all games Sunday unless otherwise noted):

NFL

Green Bay 24, Baltimore 20 (Saturday)—Colts in desperate spot, two games back with two to go. Packers came into same game last year, trailing by one-half game, but bombed Colts in the fog when Paul Hornung scored five times. Johnny Unitas was out last year but he is ready now, shaking off sore arm to beat Bears last week. Green Bay won Sept. 10 game 24-3 on key interceptions by Lee Roy Caffey and Bob Jeter.

Dallas 34, Washington 24—Cowboys on hot streak with four straight victories. Redskins coming off bye after 72-41 rout of New York. Dallas edged Washington 31-30 Nov. 13, blowing 21-6 lead when Sonny Jurgensen started hitting but winning on Danny Villanueva's field goal with 15 seconds to go.

St. Louis 17, Atlanta 10—Cards still have mathematical chance but may be drooping after tough loss to Dallas. Falcons sky high after beating Vikings in the show. St. Louis has too much defense and Terry Nofsinger proved he could score last week.

Cleveland 31, Philadelphia 24—The Browns handled Eagles 27-7 on Nov. 13 when Philadelphia offense sputtered. Cleveland must win to stay alive with faint hope in East.

San Francisco 27, Chicago 20—These teams played a 30-30 tie four weeks ago. John Brodie had a big day with 327 yards and Tommy Davis tied score with field goal with nine seconds to go.

Minnesota 23, Detroit 17—Lions won first game 32-31 when Gary Yapreman kicked six field goals and Fran Tarkenton was intercepted five times. Tarkenton regains starting role after game on bench.

Pittsburgh 21, New York 20—Giants have lost six straight and gave given up 121 points in last two games while scoring 81.

Beavers Win In Overtime

Bruce Diddle's two foul shots, his only points of the game, gave Beaver Local a 27-25 overtime victory Thursday at Leetonia.

The victory was the second in as many starts for the young Beavers. Beaver Local trailed 19-15 at the end of the third quarter but tied the score 23-23 at the end of regulation time. Diddle's two fouls broke the 25-25 tie.

Scott Dubberly paced Beaver Local with 11 points while Taylor tossed in 10 for the losers.

BEAVER LOCAL—27
Dubberly 4-3-11; Bentz 3-2-8; Farish 3-0-6; Diddle 0-2-2; Veness 0-0-0. Totals 10-7-27.
LEETONIA—25
Taylor 5-0-10; Murray 0-0-0; Coseno 4-1-9; Kornball 3-0-6; Scullion 0-0-0. Totals 12-1-25.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

By Lucrece Beale

Santa tells Billy that before he can slay the giant he must free the moon which Goko has sealed in a box. Tweedleknees searches for the magic words that will unseal the box.

CHAPTER FIVE

Patrick Tweedleknees sat on the floor in Santa's living room. He was surrounded by stacks of books and scraps of paper on which strange words were written.

Tweedleknees had been in Santa Land longer than anyone — except Santa, of course, who had been there forever.

Because he had been there so long, it was natural that he knew a great deal about hocus - pocus, abracadabra, mumbo - jumbo and other magic words that could cast or break a spell.

HE HAD been studying charms and voodoo and hoodoo and the incantations of all the sorcerers he had ever heard of for three days and three nights. Still he hadn't found the magic formula that would release the moon from the box in which Goko the giant had locked it.

Santa was growing impatient. Christmas would soon be here and the giant had vowed to snatch Santa, too, out of the sky when he drove his sleigh on Christmas Eve.

"Give me time," said Tweedleknees huffily. "This is a very difficult assignment. It can't be done in a minute, you know, but I am on the right track." He sniffed importantly and reached for still another book from the piles on the chairs and tables around him.

Santa went to his desk. He rummaged around in the bottom drawer until he found a little red skull cap with a long gold tassel. He set the cap on Tweedleknees' head.

"Try my thinking cap," he said.

—:—

"ARE YOU suggesting that I have not been thinking?" growled Tweedleknees.

"Not at all," replied Santa. "But the thinking cap may help you think. I often use it when I am trying to think of new toys for Christmas. It's been a very big help."

Tweedleknees tried on Santa's thinking cap.

"Hmmp!" grunted Tweedleknees. He tossed the gold tassel out of his eyes, but he kept the cap on.

Mrs. Claus came in from the kitchen and announced that breakfast was served.

"But, my dear," said Santa looking at her in amazement. "We just had breakfast."

"You mean you just had breakfast," retorted Mrs. Claus. "What about this boy? He looks like he hasn't had anything to eat for goodness knows how long!"

Billy was overjoyed. He had been standing there all this time watching Patrick Tweedleknees think. It had been a very hard thing to do because he was dizzy with hunger. His stomach kept growling for food but he himself was too polite to say anything.

He had been sent to bed without dinner the night before and he hadn't had lunch before that because the teacher at school had made him stand in the corner for telling giant stories. He took off his coat and dropped it on the floor beside Tweedleknees.

—:—

"I COULD eat a little, I guess," he said politely. He followed Mrs. Claus into the kitchen and sat down to breakfast.

There were buckwheat cakes stacked two feet tall and sausages long as baseball bats and ostrich eggs big as footballs.

And that wasn't all. There were things no one else would dream of serving for breakfast. Deep-dish apple pie and coconut layer cake with orange filling and seven different kinds of ice cream.

Billy had a helping of everything and several helpings of some things. Mrs. Claus beamed. She said she wished she always had a boy around the house to feed because it made cooking so worth while.

She was frying another batch of ostrich eggs when Tweedleknees burst into the kitchen. His thinking cap was all askew and his spectacles hung on the tip of his nose. He handed Billy a thin green book and shouted, "I've found it! The magic words! They are in this Wizard's Handbook!"

Billy stared at the book in astonishment. It was his own school spelling book!

Boy Takes Perplexing Problem Right To Top

WASHINGTON (AP) — A small businessman from Rhode Island, aged 12, went right to the top with his perplexing business problem. He got some guidance today from Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor.

The problem, as Jimmy Halpin of Johnston, R.I., related in a letter to the secretary, is twofold:

1. Some neighborhood kids are bothering him and his partner in this business venture.

2. The partners rent a garage as their headquarters from the grandmother of the kids bothering them.

Connor said national cases involving restraint of trade usually are handled by the Justice Department but in this case local action is indicated.

The secretary said he hesitated to recommend anything specific without more facts but suggested the kids' grandmother might be able to apply sufficient restraint, perhaps "paddles applied to the seat of the pants."

"My name is Jimmy Halpin, I am twelve yrs. old," the lad began his letter in his own handwriting and pretty much his variety of spelling. "I am president of two small co: 1. Cherry Hill Paper Waste Co. 2. Cherry Hill Gardeners Co. The first co is a co in which my friend Roland Audet and I collect old newspapers, magizenes and books. This co is in an old garage. We pay one dollar rent a month, and we have insurance for 30 cents a month.

"The second co is a co Roland and I dreamed up. We take care of gardens and lawns. These companies give us about $10 a month. So far in the paper co. we made $36.75 in three months. We have booklets keeping track of the amount made, (papers, or money) also of the happenings. We have been robbed three times and the town police fixed that.

"My problem is how do I keep the kids around the neighborhood from bothering us, when it (the land and garage) belongs to their grandmother?

"Dear sir,

"I don't know if I am righting to the right department or not. If I an not writing to the correct one. Please mail to the write one."

Proposal Seeks To Create Milk Marketing Order

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A proposal has been filed with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington for creation of the nation's second largest federal milk marketing order.

Marketing areas at Cleveland and Youngstown, Ohio; Wheeling, W.Va., and Western Pennsylvania would be combined under the proposal.

The proposal was made public Thursday by the Dairymen's Cooperative Sales Association, a Pennsylvania organization and the plan's co-sponsor.

Homer Martz, manager of the Dairymen's Association, said the plan's aim is to improve utilization of the dairy farmer and stabilize the interstate milk market in the area. The order, if approved, would affect some 12,000 independent and cooperative dairy farmers.

The agriculture department is conducting a preliminary survey on the proposal and it is hoped hearings will begin in February, Martz said.

The association said the plan has the support of the Erie — Crawford Dairy Association in Western Pennsylvania and several cooperatives in Ohio.

The United States produces more than a billion metal tubes annually, about half of these being used for toothpaste.

2 Drivers Fined After Collisions

Two women drivers whose cars were involved in three-way crashes Wednesday paid fines of $15 and costs each Thursday in Municipal Court on charges of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

They are Dorothy L. Hurst, 39, of 166 N. Surrey Rd., whose auto was involved in a collision on Lisbon St. at Croft St., and Carol Sue Shallcross, 18, of Andrews Ave., whose auto struck a parked car and a truck on E. 3rd St. at Washington St.

Police said the Hurst car struck the rear of a halted auto and drove it forward into another car, also stopped. The Shallcross car collided with two parked vehicles in turning off Washington St. onto E. 3rd St., police reported.

Connor said national cases involving restraint of trade usually are handled by the Justice Department but in this case local action is indicated.

The secretary said he hesitated to recommend anything specific without more facts but suggested the kids' grandmother might be able to apply sufficient restraint, perhaps "paddles applied to the seat of the pants."

"My name is Jimmy Halpin. I am twelve yrs. old," the lad began his letter in his own handwriting and pretty much his variety of spelling. "I am president of two small co: 1. Cherry Hill Paper Waste Co. 2. Cherry Hill Gardeners Co. The first co is a co in which my friend Roland Audet and I collect old newspapers, magizenes and books. This co is in an old garage. We pay one dollar rent a month, and we have insurance for 30 cents a month.

"The second co is a co Roland and I dreamed up. We take care of gardens and lawns. These companies give us about $10 a month. So far in the paper co. we made $36.75 in three months. We have booklets keeping track of the amount made, (papers, or money) also of the happenings. We have been robbed three times and the town police fixed that.

"My problem is how do I keep the kids around the neighborhood from bothering us, when it (the land and garage) belongs to their grandmother?

"Dear sir,

"I don't know if I am righting to the right department or not. If I an not writing to the correct one. Please mail to the write one."

Proposal Seeks To Create Milk Marketing Order

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A proposal has been filed with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington for creation of the nation's second largest federal milk marketing order.

Marketing areas at Cleveland and Youngstown, Ohio; Wheeling, W.Va., and Western Pennsylvania would be combined under the proposal.

The proposal was made public Thursday by the Dairymen's Cooperative Sales Association, a Pennsylvania organization and the plan's co-sponsor.

Homer Martz, manager of the Dairymen's Association, said the plan's aim is to improve utilization of the dairy farmer and stabilize the interstate milk market in the area. The order, if approved, would affect some 12,000 independent and cooperative dairy farmers.

The agriculture department is conducting a preliminary survey on the proposal and it is hoped hearings will begin in February, Martz said.

The association said the plan has the support of the Erie — Crawford Dairy Association in Western Pennsylvania and several cooperatives in Ohio.

The United States produces more than a billion metal tubes annually, about half of these being used for toothpaste.

2 Drivers Fined After Collisions

Two women drivers whose cars were involved in three-way crashes Wednesday paid fines of $15 and costs each Thursday in Municipal Court on charges of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

They are Dorothy L. Hurst, 39, of 166 N. Surrey Rd., whose auto was involved in a collision on Lisbon St. at Croft St., and Carol Sue Shallcross, 18, of Andrews Ave., whose auto struck a parked car and a truck on E. 3rd St. at Washington St.

Police said the Hurst car struck the rear of a halted auto and drove it forward into another car, also stopped. The Shallcross car collided with two parked vehicles in turning off Washington St. onto E. 3rd St., police reported.

That's 25 Miles Apiece

Yule Shoppers Will Walk Total Of 2 Billion Miles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tired feet? Wait until Dec. 25.

The American Podiatry Association said today Christmas shoppers would hike an estimated 25 miles apiece this year — for a total 2 billion miles. That's four round trips to the moon.

"In crowded stores, especially around bargain counters, shoppers' feet and ankles are subject to many of the same rigors football players encounter," say the footdoctors.

Worse yet, being an athlete doesn't help much. Christmas shopping, says the APA, "is a much rougher sport than golf or tennis."

Dr. Seward P. Nyman, spokesman for the association's 5,000 doctors ,says "Christmas activity is undoubtedly more severe than people realize. Shoppers will be kicked, stepped on, gouged and generally roughed up.

The association recommended four rules for shoppers:

1. Wear low-heeled shoes. Spike heels are like walking on stilts. Carry on extra pair.

2. Take a five-minute break every hour or so, sit down and flex your toes. Keep feet warm and dry.

3. When queued up in a long line, keep moving. Shift your weight constantly.

4. At the end of the day, massage feet with softening cream and prop them up at an angle higher than the head.

Does Dr. Nyman have any special rules? "Frankly, I try to get my wife to do the shopping. I admire her for being a Trojan."

Middletown Girl, 17, Seeks To Attend Service Academy

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)— Carla Hammond, 17-year-old Middletown High School senior, is shooting for another first to add to her list.

She wants to attend a United States service academy.

She wrote to Rep.-elect Donald E. (Buz) Lukens, (R-Ohio), about the prospects, and her mother, Mrs. John Hammond, says it's "definitely not a gag."

"She's very serious about it," Mrs. Hammond said. Both parents support Carla's goal.

"Carla is very seriously interested in architecture and the enticement of a fully paid tuition has something to do with it," Mrs. Hammond added.

"We strongly believe in equality for women, and women have been discriminated against since time immemorial. Actually Carla has every right to serve her country as much as her brothers do. She has the intelligence."

In her letter, Carla told Lukens she believes it is as "essential for every girl to be educated to her full potential as it is for every boy."

Carla stated she believes she has an equal right to compete. . . for admission to tax-supported military academies."

She has no specific one which she wants to attend — Army, Navy or the Air Force.

Mrs. Hammond said her daughter was the first girl permitted to study mechanical drawing at Youngstown High School after a battle with school authorities. The following year, there were 15 girls in the class.

More recently, Carla was the first white exchange student to attend the all-Negro Mather School in Beaufort, S.C.

John Schrote, a Luken aide, said, "I'm somewhat sympathetic with her on this discrimination against women. The first thing though will be to establish if there are regulations concerning the sex of appointees to the academies."

Woman, 43, Who Tried To Pass Note In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — A woman who authorities said tried to pass a note to Caroline Kennedy telling her that her father, President John F. Kennedy, was not dead, has been sent to Bellevue Hospital for mental observation.

Pamela Timmins, secretary to Mrs. John F. Kennedy, said Caroline, 9, was returning from a nearby church, escorted by a Secret Service man, when the incident occurred Thursday in front of the Kennedy family apartment at 1040 Fifth Avenue.

The Secret Service agent restrained the woman, later identified by police as Josephine Matsko, 43, of Manhattan. Police said she had a history of mental illness.

2 More Killed In Ohio Traffic

A two-car collision near Wooster resulted in one of Ohio's latest traffic deaths.

The victims:

The Orville woman was one of the driver's involved in a head-on collision on U.S. 30 east of Wooster Thursday night. Her son, Ricky, was critically injured and hospitalized in Akron.

The Chillicothe woman was injured fatally Thursday night when struck by a car as she crossed a street in her home town.

The ancient Egyptians shaved their faces except in times of mourning.

$12,000 PER YEAR

Who ever thought that this much money could be owned by a properly trained Restaurant Manager in this area? Well, we have quite a few in this category, who, just several years ago were salesmen, dairy stand operators, in hospital food service, or simply other restaurant managers who became stymied in their previous job.

Morgan's Restaurants in Butler, Pa. are currently undergoing another expansion program and consequently, we need some more $12,000 a year men. If you've ever entertained the thought of getting into the mammoth food business as it is today, now is the time to send us a letter telling us about yourself and when you'd be available for an interview. You may be awfully glad you did.

That's 25 Miles Apiece

Yule Shoppers Will Walk Total Of 2 Billion Miles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tired feet? Wait until Dec. 25.

The American Podiatry Association said today Christmas shoppers would hike an estimated 25 miles apiece this year — for a total 2 billion miles. That's four round trips to the moon.

"In crowded stores, especially around bargain counters, shoppers' feet and ankles are subject to many of the same rigors football players encounter," say the footdoctors.

Worse yet, being an athlete doesn't help much. Christmas shopping, says the APA, "is a much rougher sport than golf or tennis."

Dr. Seward P. Nyman, spokesman for the association's 5,000 doctors ,says "Christmas activity is undoubtedly more severe than people realize. Shoppers will be kicked, stepped on, gouged and generally roughed up.

The association recommended four rules for shoppers:

1. Wear low-heeled shoes. Spike heels are like walking on stilts. Carry on extra pair.

2. Take a five-minute break every hour or so, sit down and flex your toes. Keep feet warm and dry.

3. When queued up in a long line, keep moving. Shift your weight constantly.

4. At the end of the day, massage feet with softening cream and prop them up at an angle higher than the head.

Does Dr. Nyman have any special rules? "Frankly, I try to get my wife to do the shopping. I admire her for being a Trojan."

Middletown Girl, 17, Seeks To Attend Service Academy

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)— Carla Hammond, 17-year-old Middletown High School senior, is shooting for another first to add to her list.

She wants to attend a United States service academy.

She wrote to Rep.-elect Donald E. (Buz) Lukens, (R-Ohio), about the prospects, and her mother, Mrs. John Hammond, says it's "definitely not a gag."

"She's very serious about it," Mrs. Hammond said. Both parents support Carla's goal.

"Carla is very seriously interested in architecture and the enticement of a fully paid tuition has something to do with it," Mrs. Hammond added.

"We strongly believe in equality for women, and women have been discriminated against since time immemorial. Actually Carla has every right to serve her country as much as her brothers do. She has the intelligence."

In her letter, Carla told Lukens she believes it is as "essential for every girl to be educated to her full potential as it is for every boy."

Carla stated she believes she has an equal right to compete. . . for admission to tax-supported military academies."

She has no specific one which she wants to attend — Army, Navy or the Air Force.

Mrs. Hammond said her daughter was the first girl permitted to study mechanical drawing at Youngstown High School after a battle with school authorities. The following year, there were 15 girls in the class.

More recently, Carla was the first white exchange student to attend the all-Negro Mather School in Beaufort, S.C.

John Schrote, a Luken aide, said, "I'm somewhat sympathetic with her on this discrimination against women. The first thing though will be to establish if there are regulations concerning the sex of appointees to the academies."

Woman, 43, Who Tried To Pass Note In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — A woman who authorities said tried to pass a note to Caroline Kennedy telling her that her father, President John F. Kennedy, was not dead, has been sent to Bellevue Hospital for mental observation.

Pamela Timmins, secretary to Mrs. John F. Kennedy, said Caroline, 9, was returning from a nearby church, escorted by a Secret Service man, when the incident occurred Thursday in front of the Kennedy family apartment at 1040 Fifth Avenue.

The Secret Service agent restrained the woman, later identified by police as Josephine Matsko, 43, of Manhattan. Police said she had a history of mental illness.

2 More Killed In Ohio Traffic

A two-car collision near Wooster resulted in one of Ohio's latest traffic deaths.

The victims:

Janet Chenevey, 23, Orville, Wayne County.

Stella Waller, 66, Chillicothe.

The Orville woman was one of the driver's involved in a head-on collision on U.S. 30 east of Wooster Thursday night. Her son, Ricky, was critically injured and hospitalized in Akron.

The Chillicothe woman was injured fatally Thursday night when struck by a car as she crossed a street in her home town.

The ancient Egyptians shaved their faces except in times of mourning.

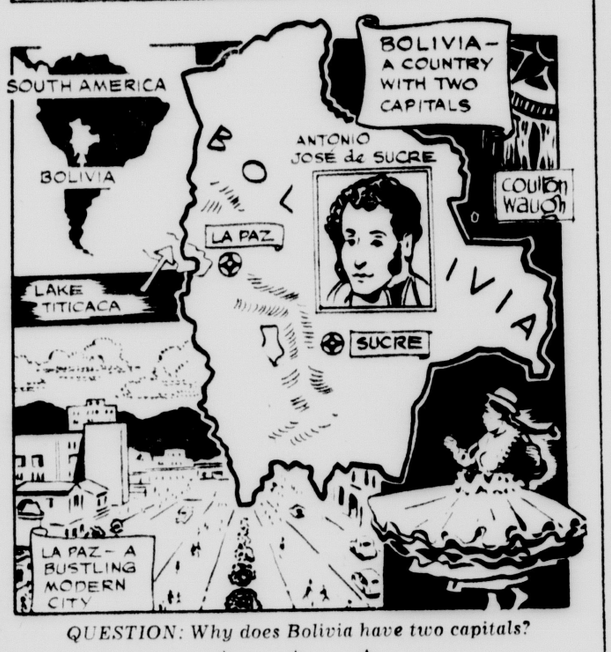
Junior Editors Quiz on BOLIVIA



QUESTION: Why does Bolivia have two capitals?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The country now called Bolivia was very important to the Spaniards, who had conquered South America for silver had been discovered there. In 1824, the famous liberator, Simon Bolivar, won an important victory over the Spaniards. He helped the people of what was then called Upper Peru to establish an independent country, which they, in gratitude, renamed Bolivia. One of Bolivar's generals, Antonio Jose Sucre, was elected as Bolivia's first president, and his name was given to the city which was the seat of the government. Another city had been founded by the Spaniards in 1548 — La Ciudad de Nuestra Senora de La Paz. After throwing off the Spaniards, Bolivians called this city La Paz. It was better situated than Sucre to be the seat of the government because of its excellent transportation facilities and it grew to be the center of Bolivia's life. So in 1898, all government offices except the Supreme Court were moved to La Paz, which became the actual capital.

Fund Sought For Vote On School Levy

SALINEVILLE—A campaign to raise at least $1,300 for a special election for a Southern Local School District operating levy has been launched by a citizens' committee seeking to solve the district's financial problems.

Some 100 attended a 3½-hour meeting Thursday night at the Southern Local High School at which school finances and needs were discussed and plans mapped to solve the problems.

JACK HISCOX of near Lisbon, coordinator of the five-area district citizens' group, presided.

Representatives of the committee studied the school financial records and affairs Friday night and reported there is a need for funds for maintenance of buildings and to upgrade the educational program.

A proposed new 4.5-mill levy has been rejected by voters twice this year and the board of education and school officials have scheduled a double-shift session of classes and closing of three elementary structures in a move to operate within current funds.

The citizen's group last night agreed to seek money to pay for the proposed special election which would cost between $1,300 and $1,500. It is hoped the balloting can be held Jan. 12 or some time early in January.

The committee is expected to meet with the board of education Wednesday night to formally request the election.

It is hoped at least $1,000 can be raised by the time of the board meeting, and anyone wishing to donate money is urged to do so as soon as possible, Hiscox said.

FUND chairmen for the five areas are Glenn Duck for No. 16, Mrs. Wanda Pisarsky for Highlandtown, James Raffle for Salineville, George McPherson for Franklin and Carl Pennell for Wayne.

Discussion last night centered on financial needs for building repairs, improvement of the overall education program, the possible loss of teachers due to the scheduled double - shift schedule and the inconvenience and travel hazard of the double-shift plan.

The double shift plan involved closing of the No. 16, Franklin and Wayne Schools, with classes for students in grades 1 through 6 and to be held from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and students in grades 7 through 12 from 1 to 7 p.m.

The plan originally was set to begin Dec. 5, but a six - week extension was authorized to allow additional time for the citizens' group and the board to seek a solution to the fund needs.

One of the hazards of the double - shift plan pointed out was the transportation of pupils on buses at night.

Rusk Again Hits Delays In Bombing

Secretary Begins Round Of Talks In South Viet Capital

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) —Secretary of State Dean Rusk began a round of conferences on the Vietnam war today after again ruling out a prolonged suspension of the bombing of North Vietnam unless Hanoi indicates it will reciprocate.

"We have told them many times that if they tell us what they've stopped doing, we can consider stopping the bombing," Rusk told newsmen on his arrival from Formosa for a three-day stay.

"We can't stop just half the way. They've got to stop their half of it."

The secretary predicted the Communists will have to talk peace because "they will not be able to succeed" on the battlefield. He said he was "greatly encouraged" by improvements in the situation in Vietnam. But he added: "I have no indication from the other side that they're interested in moving this problem to the conference table."

Rusk landed at Tan Son Nhut airport amid unusually stiff security precautions after a Viet Cong attack on the airport last weekend.

He then drove to the residence of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and plunged into a series of briefings.

Rusk will be here until Sunday, then will fly to Bangkok. He is en route to the meeting in Paris of the North Atlantic Treaty Origanization's ministerial council next week.

Strike Near Saigon And North Area

Enemy Ground Fire Downs One Plane In North, 2 In South

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Waves of B52 bombers struck Communist positions in South Viet Nam today in three raids that ranged from near Saigon to the northern edge of the country.

As the bombers flew in from their Guam base, U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk arrived in Saigon and discounted chances of a prolonged pause in American bombing raids over North Viet Nam.

"We can't just stop half the war," Rusk told newsmen, "They've got to stop their half of it."

In one raid on the North Thursday, U.S. fighter-bombers were attacked by Communist MIG interceptors only six miles northeast of the center of Hanoi. The MIGs fired heat-seeking air-to-air missiles but failed to score hits, a U.S. spokesman said.

He reported, however, that one U.S. plane was shot down by Communist ground fire over North Viet Nam and two more were shot down in South Viet Nam.

Ground action in South Viet Nam continued light with both the U.S. and Vietnamese military commands reporting only minor engagements.

Two of the contacts were close to Saigon where allied forces are embarked on a new campaign to clear the Viet Cong from jungle bases from which they mount terror attacks on the capital.

The B52s in their first raid struck before dawn in Viet Cong-infested Tay Ninh Province, hitting enemy trenches, bunkers, foxholes and suspected troop areas 30 miles northwest of Saigon.

U.S., Soviet In Accord

Space Pact Path To A-Spread Ban

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Some U.N. diplomats believe the new U.S.-Soviet agreement to ban war and weapons from outer space can open the way to a pact to halt the spread of nuclear weapons.

The agreement announced Thursday by President Johnson was welcomed at the U.N. as a major breakthrough in a 10-year battle for an international legal code to govern space exploration.

"It is the most important arms control development since the limited test ban treaty of 1963," Johnson said, referring to the earlier pact barring testing in the atmosphere, which most nations have ratified.

He predicted the new treaty would "prevent warlike preparations on the moon and other celestial bodies" while guaranteeing "free access to all areas and installations" in space.

Diplomats at the U.N. also viewed the agreement as a good omen for accord on another major issue now under negotiation — a treaty to halt the spread of nuclear weapons to nations that don't have them. No agreement on this is expected, however, until the 17-nation disarmament talks resume in Geneva early in 1967.

In announcing the agreement from the Texas White House, Johnson expressed hope that the United States will be one of the first countries to ratify the space treaty.

The treaty, now in the hands of the 28-nation U.N. subcommittee on outer space that drafted it, must be approved next by the General Assembly. Quick approval is expected.

It will take effect when ratified by five governments, including the Soviet Union, Britain and the United States.

Basically, the treaty declares the moon, other celestial bodies and outer space to be free for exploration and use by all countries and subject to the national sovereignty of none.

Court Orders Cut In Pickets At Plant Gates

LISBON — The NRM Corp. obtained a restraining order Thursday afternoon in Common Pleas Court to enjoin strikers from mass picketing of its plants at Columbiana and Leetonia.

Sheriff's deputies are serving the order today on the 24 defendants representing the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers (AFL - CIO) and Columbiana Lodge 1977 of the international.

NRM officials testified at a hearing yesterday before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard and posted the $500 cash bond the court required as a condition for the order.

The order limits picketing to two pickets at each of the two entrances at the Leetonia plant and the three entrances and shipping dock at the Columbiana plant.

It also enjoins the defendants

CINCINNATI (AP) — The body of an 81-year-old woman was found in an apartment building elevator here today and homicide detective Russell Jackson said the woman had been strangled with a stocking.

He declined to say if the woman had been sexually attacked.

Jackson identified the woman as Lula Kerrick, a resident of the building. The building is the Brittany Apartment at Ninth and Elm streets at the edge of the downtown district.

Police said the body was found by another tennant in the building.

Scranton Bid For Romney In 1968 Seen

Michigan's Leader Hasn't Made Up Mind On Running

NEW YORK (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney headed today for the Republican governors conference in Colorado Springs, Colo., where Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania reportedly plans to seek support for Romney for the 1968 GOP presidential nomination.

Romney, in New York Thursday told newsmen he hadn't made up his mind about running for the presidency yet.

Scranton was quoted by the Washington Post as saying now is the time for Romney to begin his campaign. Scranton added, however, that Romney "never asked me for my support and I've never pledged it to him."

The Washington Post quoted Scranton as saying he is going to the conference with the avowed goal of getting "as many Republican governors as possible to say, at least privately, 'We're for George (Romney) — at least until he proves to us he can't do the job.'"

An Associated Press survey of opinion among 34 Republican governors and governors-elect in advance of the opening of the conference today showed that the bulk of those polled appeared — at least publicly — to be in no hurry to climb aboard any Romney bandwagon. Most of them took a wait-and-see attitude in the survey.

While Romney said he hadn't made up his mind, he seemed to some observers to be already on the 1968 campaign trail when he lashed out at the Johnson administration. He said he had no confidence in what it said about Vietnam.

The "whole facts" on Vietnam, Romney said, are not available in the United States.

He told the news conference he might have to visit Japan, the Philippines, England, France and Germany before he made specific proposals on Vietnam.

Higher Total Feared

Ship Death Toll Revised To 235

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Shipping officials revised the toll in the sinking of the ferry Heraklion to 235 dead or missing today and expressed fear that a number of unlisted last-minute passengers may have been aboard.

Hope was fading that there would be more survivors than the 46 brought in by darkness Thursday. Thursday night 49 survivors were reported, but the ministry of merchant marine said three of those were later found to be bodies.

Rescue ships kept up their search through the night and today and found 23 more bodies, bringing the total recovered to more than 40.

Officials directing recovery operations at Piraeus, the port of Athens, said many persons may have boarded at the last minute and paid their fare after the ferry got under way from Crete. They said naval students from Canea, on the island of Crete often ride without being recorded on passenger lists.

The 8,900-ton Herkalion sank swiftly in a raging storm at 2 a.m. Thursday, midway on an overnight crossing from Crete to Piraeus with 206 passengers officially listed and 75 in the crew. By Thursday night, rescue ships picked up 49 survivors and 17 bodies.

Twelve more bodies were recovered today.

Crewmen told rescuers trucks and cars, torn from their lashings as the 17-year-old ship tossed in the storm, smashed loading doors that had been weakened by waves. They said a 16-ton refrigerator trailer battered open a bow door and the Aegean Sea, whipped up by 75-to 100-mile winds, poured in.

Innocent Plea Is Entered In Spike Slaying

Ex-Mental Patient Arrested In Murder Of Church Leader

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A former mental patient stood silently today while a lawyer entered his innocent plea to the bludgeon slaying of a nationally known church and civil rights leader.

William R. Minor, 23, stood with his hands behind his back in Columbus Municipal Court as Otto Beatty Jr. of the public defender's office entered the plea to a first degree murder charge in the death of Dr. Robert W. Spike, 43, a ministry professor at the University of Chicago credited with a major role in moving the church into civil rights activities.

Minor, who gave his hometown as Paintsville, Ky., wore a maroon and blue checked sweater and a white shirt. He looked much like a college student.

Municipal Judge Dean Strasbaugh continued his case until Wednesday.

Minor must be indicted by a grand jury before he can be tried, unless he waives indictment and agrees to a trial on the present charge.

Spike's body was found in a pool of blood last Oct. 17 in a guest room at the United Christian Center near Ohio State University. He had made a speech dedicating the interdenominational center the day before.

Beck said police were withholding details in the case as a result of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions involving pretrial rights of prisoners. But he did disclose this much:

Early Wednesday, Minor stopped a police cruiser in downtown Columbus and told officers he had committed a burglary the night before at the Southeast Christian Church in Columbus.

Local Airman Due To Leave Viet Shortly

An East Liverpool resident, a veteran of the air war in Vietnam, will return to the U.S. soon for new assignment.

He is Capt. Edwin L. Stanford, 31, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones of Lisbon St. He also has an uncle and aunt here, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laufenberger of Idaho Ave., Pleasant Heights.

Today's announcement from Saigon said Capt. Stanford's next assignment will be at the Eglin Air Force base in Florida.

The captain had been with his unit in the Saigon area just over a week when knocked down by Communist ground fire July 6. He ejected and was rescued by an Air Force amphibian within five minutes.

At one stretch of his 100 - mission tour, Stanford made three flights over North Vietnam, encountering flights of enemy aircraft each time. On the second encounter, he fired a short burst of 20 - millimeter cannon rounds at the lead MIG21, but there was no indication the Communist plane was hit.

GOP Governors Launch Work On Organization

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Republican governors, demanding a party role to match their bolstered numbers, went to work today to build an organization that could propel one of them into the GOP presidential nomination.

Their potential leaders were not saying which one — although Michigan's Gov. George Romney clearly is the front runner among them, as he is in the public opinion polls.

Colorado Gov. John A. Love and Rhode Island's John H. Chafee, both seeking the chairmanship of the Republican Governors' Association, agreed that the 25 GOP state executives should seek to line up behind a single candidate for the White House.

With broad, if not unanimous agreement, Chafee told a joint news conference Thursday night, the governors can control the selection of the party's 1968 candidate.

He said the governors also should work to make sure that the next Republican platform embraces imaginative proposals for "new solutions to the many old problems."

Chafee said the governors should take an active role in the selection of their state delegations to the next national convention. And he said they should decide "early in the game" who they want nominated.

"I have no first choice now," he said.

Love said he believes the next nominee will be a governor.

"We have an outstanding slate of governors," he said. He added that Republicans in Congress are trapped in a position of minority opposition to administration proposals, which does not beset the governors.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said there would be no dissension between Republicans on Capitol Hill and in the statehouses.

"I am tired of reading how we are going to fly off into all kinds of collision courses," Ford said in a speech prepared for the association's first formal session.

Joint Communique

France, Soviet Say War Endangers Viet Neighbor

PARIS (AP)—France and the Soviet Union declared today the war in Vietnam endangers that country's neighbors and is "the principal obstacle to the relaxation of international tensions" and "lasting peaceful relations among numerous countries."

In a joint communique released six hours after Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin flew home after a nine-day state visit, the two governments said they deplored the Vietnam war as "a situation whose gravity is the result of external intervention."

Although the source of the intervention was not identified, previous statements left no doubt the United States was meant. Kosygin said repeatedly during his visit that America is guilty of aggression in Vietnam.

"Once again," the communique said, "the two governments note that the operations of war in Vietnam continue to intensify without letup and that the human and material losses continue to grow."

The war occupied a large part of the conversations between Kosygin and French President Charles de Gaulle, and the joint declaration noted the two governments would continue "to exchange their views on this question."

It said both nations are firm in their attachment to the principles of the U.N. Charter and "were fully resolved" to use all of the U.N.'s possibilities to spare present and future generations "from the calamities of atomic war."

Describing discussions on disarmament and the spread of nuclear weapons, the communique said the two leaders "recognized once more that it was necessary that the powers possessing these weapons discuss the proper means to assure true disarmament."

They described nuclear problems as being of "capital importance"—not only the nondissemination of atomic arms but also the banning of their manufacture and the destruction of existing stockpiles.

Fund Sought For Vote On School Levy

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Shipping officials revised the toll in the sinking of the ferry Heraklion to 235 dead or missing today and expressed fear that a number of unlisted last-minute passengers may have been aboard.

With broad, if not unanimous agreement, Chafee told a joint news conference Thursday night, the governors can control the selection of the party's 1968 candidate.

He said the governors also should work to make sure that the next Republican platform embraces imaginative proposals for "new solutions to the many old problems."

Chafee said the governors should take an active role in the selection of their state delegations to the next national convention. And he said they should decide "early in the game" who they want nominated.

"I have no first choice now," he said.

Love said he believes the next nominee will be a governor.

"We have an outstanding slate of governors," he said. He added that Republicans in Congress are trapped in a position of minority opposition to administration proposals, which does not beset the governors.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said there would be no dissension between Republicans on Capitol Hill and in the statehouses.

"I am tired of reading how we are going to fly off into all kinds of collision courses," Ford said in a speech prepared for the association's first formal session.

Innocent Plea Is Entered In Spike Slaying

Ex-Mental Patient Arrested In Murder Of Church Leader

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A former mental patient stood silently today while a lawyer entered his innocent plea to the bludgeon slaying of a nationally known church and civil rights leader.

William R. Minor, 23, stood with his hands behind his back in Columbus Municipal Court as Otto Beatty Jr. of the public defender's office entered the plea to a first degree murder charge in the death of Dr. Robert W. Spike, 43, a ministry professor at the University of Chicago credited with a major role in moving the church into civil rights activities.

Minor, who gave his hometown as Paintsville, Ky., wore a maroon and blue checked sweater and a white shirt. He looked much like a college student.

Municipal Judge Dean Strasbaugh continued his case until Wednesday.

Minor must be indicted by a grand jury before he can be tried, unless he waives indictment and agrees to a trial on the present charge.

Spike's body was found in a pool of blood last Oct. 17 in a guest room at the United Christian Center near Ohio State University. He had made a speech dedicating the interdenominational center the day before.

Beck said police were withholding details in the case as a result of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions involving pretrial rights of prisoners. But he did disclose this much:

Early Wednesday, Minor stopped a police cruiser in downtown Columbus and told officers he had committed a burglary the night before at the Southeast Christian Church in Columbus.

Man Badly Burned

WEIRTON — William Craig, 23, of Cove Rd. was in "critical" condition this morning at the Weirton General Hospital from burns covering 65 per cent of his body suffered when he apparently fell asleep in bed while smoking. He was admitted at 5:15 a.m.

Local Airman Due To Leave Viet Shortly

An East Liverpool resident, a veteran of the air war in Vietnam, will return to the U.S. soon for new assignment.

He is Capt. Edwin L. Stanford, 31, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones of Lisbon St. He also has an uncle and aunt here, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laufenberger of Idaho Ave., Pleasant Heights.

Today's announcement from Saigon said Capt. Stanford's next assignment will be at the Eglin Air Force base in Florida.

The captain had been with his unit in the Saigon area just over a week when knocked down by Communist ground fire July 6. He ejected and was rescued by an Air Force amphibian within five minutes.

At one stretch of his 100-mission tour, Stanford made three flights over North Vietnam, encountering flights of enemy aircraft each time. On the second encounter, he fired a short burst of 20-millimeter cannon rounds at the lead MIG21, but there was no indication the Communist plane was hit.

Still In Staggering Figures

U.S. Casualties In War Lower Than Anticipated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States expected a far bloodier Vietnam war, it was learned today.

Indications are the Pentagon prepared for the worst, anticipating perhaps 10,000 dead this year and five times as many wounded.

Casualties have been much lower although still running into staggering numbers — over 4,600 killed and 30,000 wounded the past 11 months.

A top source said that when the Pentagon began planning the big military buildup in Southeast Asia statistical studies were conducted which projected U.S. losses at 200 casualties per day per 100,000 men.

The figure, derived from experience in World War II and the Korean conflict, was needed to determine possible replacement and medical demands.

Simply stated, the computerized calculation showed the United States could expect for each 100,000 men in Vietnam to sustain daily 10 combat deaths, 50 wounded and 140 "nonhostile" casualties resulting from accident, disease or other causes.

Actual figures have averaged 3 killed, 14 wounded and 75 nonhostile losses per day per 100,000 men, this source said.

Averages are rather meaningless, however, when it comes to describing the toll of life due to the war.

Defense Department statistics show that since Jan. 1, 4,639 Americans have been killed in Vietnam, running the count since Jan. 1, 1961 to 6,236 as of last Saturday.

This does not include 1,436 men who have died in plane and helicopter accidents, and from disease or other causes not attributable to enemy action.

A different view of Pentagon figures also shows the ratio of American combat deaths to wounded running much lower proportionately than during World War II and Korea.

The 35,538 wounded and 6,236 killed the past six years form a ratio of better than 5 to 1.

In Korea it was about 3 to 1 with 103,284 wounded and 33,629 killed in three years fighting. In World War II the ratio was over 2 to 1: 292,000 killed, 670,800 wounded.

The Pentagon says that due to better and more readily available medical treatment, 98.4 per cent of the GIs wounded in Vienam recover. This compares with 97.5 per cent during Korea, 95.5 per cent in World War II and 92 per cent in World War I.

Hearing Planned For Youth Cited In Entry Charge

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set a preliminary hearing Tuesday at 9 a. m. for Larry Bowers, 20, of Lisbon St., charged with breaking into a building on lower St. Clair Ave. that formerly was occupied by the Woomer Brothers Lumber Co.

Bowers and a juvenile were taken into custody inside the building Thursday night by police who responded to a call that prowlers had been sighted in the structure, Chief A. J. Radeschi said. The affidavit alleges Bowers "maliciously and forcibly entered" the building "with intent to steal property." Autos owned by Mike Turk, Inc., are stored in the building, the chief said.

The chief said the investigation is continuing. He said three cruisers responded to a call reporting prowlers. The arresting officers included Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice and Patrolmen David K. Mumaw, James Buckley and K. J. Montgomery.

Bowers' hearing was continued to allow him to obtain counsel. He also was fined $15 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a State Highway Patrol charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. Bowers was cited Nov. 26 at 11:40 a. m., the patrol said.

$241,365 Set For Building New School

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Thursday appropriated $241,365 from the county treasury and placed it in a fund for construction of the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children.

They acted after Auditor Kenneth Bell sent them a certificate of estimated resources —the income from a 1-mill levy approved in November 1965 to build the school and workshop.

Commissioners established the fund so they could pay Engineer George Bloomgren of East Liverpool for engineering expenses at the proposed site—the former Rogers farm along Route 7, one-half mile north of Rogers.

A decision is expected Monday on whether to build there or at some site nearer the center of the county. The federal government has approved $103,999 for the construction.

Ed Hedrick, Juvenile Court probation officer, was allowed $44 to take two juveniles to the Ohio Youth Commission yesterday.

Commissioners requested each officeholder to ask his employes to leave metered parking places around Courthouse Square and in the business district for Christmas shoppers. Village Council voted to make the meters free during December and merchants are complaining that Courthouse workers are taking the spaces.

Commissioners granted Knox Township trustees $300 for road maintenance.

Robert Boyce, County Home superintendent, reported there were 127 residents — 55 men and 72 women — at the home last month. The November income from residents and the farm was $9,822.40.

R. Max Gard of Lisbon, commission president, donated the Christmas tree for the Courthouse corridor. Employes decorated it yesterday.

A craft display was featured, with Steve Hazy and Robert Geis judges. A "cubby" award went to Den 4.

A skit, "The Night Before Christmas," was presented by Den 2. Albert Nutz entertained with a harmonica and bones solo.

As a goodwill project for Christmas, the boys will contribute to community Christmas baskets.

Girl To Face Charge In Ravine St. Mishap

An 18-year-old girl was cited by police after her auto skidded and struck a utility pole Thursday on Ravine St. 150 feet south of Bradshaw Ave.

Julie Ann Keller of 328 Vine St. is due for a Municipal Court hearing on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. Her 1965 model four-door sedan was damaged on the right rear when it swerved against the pole, officers said.

The girl said she was headed north on Ravine St. when a car pulled into her path. When she applied the brakes, her car skidded and struck the pole, she said. Officers measured 75 feet of skid marks on the pavement.

Girl To Face Charge In Ravine St. Mishap

An 18-year-old girl was cited by police after her auto skidded and struck a utility pole Thursday on Ravine St. 150 feet south of Bradshaw Ave.

Julie Ann Keller of 328 Vine St. is due for a Municipal Court hearing on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. Her 1965 model four-door sedan was damaged on the right rear when it swerved against the pole, officers said.

The girl said she was headed north on Ravine St. when a car pulled into her path. When she applied the brakes, her car skidded and struck the pole, she said. Officers measured 75 feet of skid marks on the pavement.

Not A Very Merry Christmas

Now that the Christmas truce has official sanction from the United States and South Vietnam governments, everyone will be watching to see if there will be a New Year's truce.

Yes, the agreement called for both a Christmas and a New Year's lull in fighting, but if American servicemen are killed this Christmas Day as they were during the 1965 truce, there will not be a repeat performance in January.

We are opposed to such temporary cessations of hostilities because they are motivated only by the enemy's desire to better prepare himself to kill more Americans.

The United States has made it plain the negotiation door is open to North Vietnam anytime it wants to call a cease-fire and talk peace.

Pope Paul VI has issued a request for both sides to extend the truce from Christmas to the Vietnamese new year in February to permit discussions of peace.

If a Christmas truce is to have any real meaning at all, it must cover more than a few days and include peace talks.

It would seem that if North Vietnam sincerely felt Christmas and New Year celebrations are more important than the war, it could find other reasons for halting hostilities.

Such things as loss of lives, destruction of villages and the economic squeeze should be given consideration.

"Merry Christmas" would have more meaning this year if the dim prospect for peace were brightened by a real cease-fire.

Solid Citizen Salute

In our society there always will be those singled out for praise for out-of-the-ordinary service to others and to their community.

We also have our medal winners from bloody battlefields.

And our Gullivers who stand tall in the field of art, music, literature and theater.

All around us we can find those who have attained the pinnacle of potential.

Some we admire for the example they have set while in other cases we can admire only the accomplishment, not the producer.

These people deserve their awards and rewards; but for every one of them, there are numerous others who are in line for a tribute.

That is the purpose of this space today — a bouquet for everyday Solid Citizens.

You know who we mean. You see them all the time.

He is a kind, dependable father with a steady job. She is active in PTA and volunteer work.

You may have seen her at your door canvassing the neigborhood for a charity or taking food to a neighbor in a time of illness.

You remember him; he was driving the truck last week when a noisy bunch of Boy Scouts loaded it with stacks of newspapers and magazines from your basement.

You see them and their children in church on Sunday.

You often see them loading the car for a family outing.

They go about their business without bothering anybody. Yet, if somebody needs help, it seems they are the first to turn up.

They stay out of trouble. You won't find their names or pictures in the newspaper in connection with scandal or a crime story.

These people are easy to identify because you can measure their lives by the "Golden Rule."

They don't expect a Nobel Prize or an achievement plaque for what they are doing. Nothing could be further from their minds than special recognition.

For them, to live is to serve; and to serve is happiness.

The Air We Breathe

Most, if not all, that man produces and uses becomes waste." This is part of perhaps the most telling sentence of a report earlier this year by a National Academy of Sciences committee on pollution. It explains the sudden, belated, and rather anxious eagerness to clear the air we breathe.

Monday the Health, Education and Welfare Department will open a long-planned three-day conference in Washington on air pollution. On the day after that conference ends the National Industrial Conference Board is sponsoring discussions of pollution in general in New York City.

THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT'S best estimate indicates that the annual economic loss resulting from uncontrolled air pollution is in the neighborhood of $11 billion. The danger to public health is probably incalculable. The effects of pollution for persons exposed for years to carbon monoxide and other substances is difficult to evaluate. Experts believe that chronic bronchitis, emphysema, and lung cancer are associated with long-term exposure to polluted air.

Even without the contributions to air pollution of modern industry and the combustion engine, the atmosphere would be full of waste. According to the National Academy, the atmosphere in any event would carry "volcanic dust and gas, wind-eroded soil, sea-salt nuclei, methane from marshes, hydrogen sulfide from decaying organic matter, certain radioactive materials, pollen, spores, and bacteria."

NEW YORK CITY and other areas in the Northeast escaped serious harm to health during the temperature inversion over the Thanksgiving holidays. But polluted air in the small industrial town of Donora, Pa. took 20 lives in 1948. In a severe London smog in 1952, 4,000 died. A statistical analysis of a two-week period of heavy pollution in November 1953 indicated that 240 New Yorkers died as the result of smog.

Los Angeles, St. Louis, and Pittsburgh, among other cities, have made considerable progress in controlling air wastes. Officials in Los Angeles are beginning to talk about the possibility of eliminating gasoline-powered motor vehicles from California by 1980.

A strong air pollution law adopted in New York City last year provides for banning all new incinerators after two years. The program calls for upgrading of the existing 11 municipal incinerators and 13,000 apartment house incinerators through improved controls.

On a federal level, the Clean Air Act of 1963 and its 1965 amendments have provided new tools to help attack the pollution that fouls the air we breathe. In a message of last Feb. 23, President Johnson declared: "We have begun to counter air pollution by increasing the tempo of efforts at all levels of government."

Cleansing the air will require great cooperation among governmental units. It will demand also the willing assistance—and abnegation from present processes—of private industry. The conferences that are coming up offer promises in that direction.

Slightly Confusing

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Michigan Gov. George Romney is a national figure, but his national ideas look pretty thin.

Esteemed for high character and moral overtones, he is running ahead of President Johnson in public opinion polls. But what does he stand for?

Romney says he hasn't made up his mind on runnng for the presidency, but he is beginning to scamper around the country like a man taking the Republican pulse on his prospects for representing the party in 1968.

Because Johnson didn't put in a tax increase last year, Romney said, the economy is now teetering on the brink of a slowdown. But there is a lot of disagreement among economists on that and on whether one is needed at all.

AND ROMNEY, whose only experience in government has been on a state level and who has been against too much big federal government, then offered what political scientists might call a kind of utopian concept of government:

Voluntary associations for cooperation action centers.

Whatever they mean.

Private enterprises for competitive action centers. Whatever they mean.

State and local governments for locally oriented action centers close to control by the people. Whatevert hey mean.

The federal government as an action center to cope with tasks requiring unified national effort.

Whatever they mean.

If he is going to revolutionize the running of government, it would seem, he could at least get specific, particularly since he said dependence on the federal government is "dwarfing America's men."

But all this is in line with what appears to be Romney's inability to be specific or get down to cases generally.

For example: He is reluctant to open up on one of the most important issues of the time, the war in Vietnam, saying he wants to give it much more thought because "before a person raises questions he ought to be able to make specific proposals."

But he already has had an opportunity to give much thought since the war has been going on for years. Perhaps his performance at the governors' conference last July dented his self-confidence on this subject.

When he tried to answer a question on Vietnam he made hash of it.

HE IS CONSIDERED a moderate Republican, but says he can't follow the "gobbledygook about conservatives, liberals and moderates." He is definitely on record against "extremists" and did not support the presidential candidacy of Sen. Barry Goldwater in 1964.

There are profound differences between conservatives, liberals and moderates which Romney misses when he considers any differences "gobbledygook."

Those differences have run all through American history, and are still there in American political life, daily visible above all places in Congress where the conservatives are and always have been the restraining force, the liberals, the push - aheads, and the moderates the men who are willing to push ahead faster than the conservatives, slower than the liberals.

The distinctions between them are not gobbledygook and no one knows it better than Lyndon B. Johnson who, in his career, has been in all three positions, at one time or another. If Romney can't see the distinctions, he needs a score card.

A Rough Climb

Air Union May Strike Rails

By Victor Riesel

WASHINGTON — Those in the White House who are looking for the "Mister Crisis of 1967" would do well to look to the man who paralyzed the airlines amid such tumult in 1966.

Victor Riesel

He might do just that to the nation's railroads in the New Year, which is highballing it round the bend.

The crisis-maker who, with several colleagues of the airline strike team, may decide what day much of the U.S. shall stand still, is Paul Leroy (Roy) Siemiller. At 62, though president of the vast International Association of Machinists, he still is one of labor's "new" men.

Under his gentle-voiced guidance history is positively repeating itself much to the horror of the White House. Exactly a year ago in San Francisco, Roy Siemiller quietly told this columnist there would probably be an airline strike. Today, without benefit of bulges or dramatics, he has spoken similarly to this newsman about a possible stoppage of the country's Class A railroads—about 96 of them.

NOTE THAT A YEAR AGO the airline contracts were due to expire at midnight, New Year's Eve, 1965. So it is now with the railroads and the six shop craft unions—150,000 men made up of machinists, as well as boilermakers, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, electricians, firemen and oilers and carmen.

The machinists, 40,000 of them, are led by Siemiller's general vice president Joe Ramsey—the same chap who led the airline strikers on the actual battle front. Siemiller and Ramsey are a tough team—and they expect to be ready with heavy demands at 12:01 a.m. Jan. 1, 1967—the first moment the contract permits them to "reopen on wages and major fringes."

The Machinists' leaders will threaten to strike. The usual ballet Americaine will unfold. There will be mediation. The President will declare an emergency and set up a board.

IT WILL ROLL ON towards the summer. Who strikes in wintertime? And when the government has run out of brakes, there will be a strike unless the railroads capitulate.

True, two rail brotherhoods have accepted a 5 per cent increase. But:

"Our machinists will not accept 5 per cent," Siemiller told this correspondent in the same quiet Midwestern twang in which he predicted an airline stoppage a year ago. "We don't truly care what the others have taken. Five per cent just is not enough. If we have to, we'll fight for more. Nobody likes to talk strike but nobody in our ranks will talk 5 per cent either."

If there is a strike, the Machinist pickets would be fanning out at railroad yards east and west of Chicago and St. Louis, and north and south of New York just about the vacation season that the airline pickets hit the bricks at airports in '66.

It's these new men of labor who give the White House labor specialists the jitters. The nation is full of them now. While the public watches the veteran Walter Reuther polish up the plunge and armor for the big thrust, the new men, working in the gray of the spotlight area, really are preparing for battle with industrial giants.

THERE IS, FOR EXAMPLE, a brand new national union president, Peter Bommarito, who has been head of the United Rubber Workers (URW) for only three months now. But he's set for the big time.

This will be next April 20 when the little-known union, strategically placed right in the gut of our industrial-military production establishment, tackles the Big Four Rubber Corporations. The labor-management contracts expire that day.

Will the unon strike?

"We are playing for big stakes this coming year," said Bommarito recently. "Let the companies take notice .. . 1967 will be the year the URW places its reputation on the line as a leader in obtaining benefits for its members."

Thus the rail and rubber crises pick up steam in the late spring. At this time Reuther's Auto Union forces will dash into the field with thunderous new demands devised in a public mass conference.

IT WILL BE A HOT SUMMER—here and in Viet Nam. And the White House will be sweating it out unless the President gets some new laws—or congressional threat of action—to cool it.

The first cooler will come in the President's State of the Union speech or in a special message to Congress. That's why the President asked his trouble shooter, Joe Califano, to get up a sub-cabinet level study group of professors, economists and departmental representatives to work out some magic formula.

The labor men predict there can be no formula. There only can be cash—on the line—to cap the pressure from below and keep it from blowing the new men of labor sky high.

It will be fascinating to observe what happens when the presidential cooling meets the overheated pressure.

Equality?

By David Lawrence

It Should Apply Everywhere

The biggest paradox of our times appears to be unnoticed by the peoples of the free world. Plenty of indignation is being voiced because a white minority in Rhodesia will not allow the right of self-determination to be exercised by the black majority in that country. Ironically, nobody seems to care about the fate of the white majority not only in the Soviet Union but in the six Communist countries of Eastern Europe and the three former Baltic states, which are frequently referred to as "captive nations" because their present regimes were imposed by Moscow.

A small minority known as the Communist party rules the Soviet Union and insists that there shall be no opposition. Nobody can vote against the party in power. The same thing is true in Poland, East Germany, Hungary and the other countries in the Communist bloc.

IT'S SURPRISING that even the United Nations is being urged by some of the African nations to enforce "sanctions" on Rhodesia in order to punish the white minority. No such measures are being suggested to deal with the exercise of a dominant authority by the white minorities in each of the Communist-bloc countries.

Would the same thing be true if the Communist party consisted only of whites, and the vast majority of the peoples in the Soviet Union, Poland, East Germany and Hungary were black? Would there be talk of "sanctions" to punish the minority for its refusal to grant liberty to the majority of the population in each country?

The answer is not hard to find. For only the small, white minorities who rule colored majorities are assailed today, while white majorities are suffering an agony of enslavement. Is this because the members of the United Nations are afraid to band together and take collective action to establish freedom for the majority of the population in each of the "captive" countries?

IT'S EASY ENOUGH to punish the white minority in Rhodesia and to cut off the trade of that country and inflict hardships on the entire population—all in the name of human freedom. Commendable as is the objective of those who want to see the majority rule in Rhodesia, there is an obvious inconsistency in the unwillingness of the principal nations of the world today to do anything about the subjugation of vast numbers of people—indeed, the majority—in each of the Communist countries.

Although ethnic Russians constitute only about half of the population of the Soviet Union, Russians dominate the Communist party and its leadership. Thus a small minority of one particular nationality rules the whole country through the system of Communist party discipline.

In recent years, Romania and Czechoslovakia have achieved some small measure of independence of Moscow, but they are still dominated by the single-party Communist system. It's generally believed that the self-determination achieved in these two countries is not complete but is a form of neutrality as between the Communist parties of Red China and the Soviet Union, respectively.

ALTHOUGH SOVIET TROOPS have been withdrawn from those countries and from Bulgaria as well, they still constitute a considerable occupation force in East Germany, Poland, Hungary and the Baltic States. Backed by the power of military coercion, the white minority rules the roost in several countries.

It's a good thing, of course, for the United Nations to implore free peoples everywhere to take an interest in the fate of the majorities in those countries which are under the yoke of minorities of any kind. There would be more enthusiasm for a glorification of the idea of self-determination if it were applied consistently throughout the world.

Until public opinion throughout the world insists that the principle be applied everywhere, not just where black people are concerned, there will be little progress made toward the establishment of equal rights for all majorities.

Michigan Gov. George Romney is a national figure, but his national ideas look pretty thin.

Esteemed for high character and moral overtones, he is running ahead of President Johnson in public opinion polls. But what does he stand for?

Romney says he hasn't made up his mind on runnng for the presidency, but he is beginning to scamper around the country like a man taking the Republican pulse on his prospects for representing the party in 1968.

Because Johnson didn't put in a tax increase last year, Romney said, the economy is now teetering on the brink of a slowdown. But there is a lot of disagreement among economists on that and on whether one is needed at all.

AND ROMNEY, whose only experience in government has been on a state level and who has been against too much big federal government, then offered what political scientists might call a kind of utopian concept of government:

Voluntary associations for cooperation action centers.
Whatever they mean.

Private enterprises for competitive action centers. Whatever they mean.

State and local governments for locally oriented action centers close to control by the people. Whatevert hey mean.

The federal government as an action center to cope with tasks requiring unified national effort.
Whatever they mean.

If he is going to revolutionize the running of government, it would seem, he could at least get specitic, particularly since he said dependence on the federal government is "dwarfing America's men."

But all this is in line with what appears to be Romney's inability to be specific or get down to cases generally.

For example: He is reluctant to open up on one of the most important issues of the time, the war in Vietnam, saying he wants to give it much more thought because "before a person raises questions he ought to be able to make specific proposals."

But he already has had an opportunity to give much thought since the war has been going on for years. Perhaps his performance at the governors' conference last July dented his self-confidence on this subject.

When he tried to answer a question on Vietnam he made hash of it.

HE IS CONSIDERED a moderate Republican, but says he can't follow the "gobbledygook about conservatives, liberals and moderates." He is definitely on record against "extremists" and did not support the presidential candidacy of Sen. Barry Goldwater in 1964.

There are profound differences between conservatives, liberals and moderates which Romney misses when he considers any differences "gobbledygook."

Those differences have run all through American history, and are still there in American political life, daily visible above all places in Congress where the conservatives are and always have been the restraining force, the liberals, the push - aheads, and the moderates the men who are willing to push ahead faster than the conservatives, slower than the liberals.

The distinctions between them are not gobbledygook and no one knows it better than Lyndon B. Johnson who, in his career, has been in all three positions, at one time or another. If Romney can't see the distinctions, he needs a score card.

A Rough Climb

Air Union May Strike Rails

By Victor Riesel

WASHINGTON — Those in the White House who are looking for the "Mister Crisis of 1967" would do well to look to the man who paralyzed the airlines amid such tumult in 1966. He might do just that to the nation's railroads in the New Year, which is highballing it round the bend.

Victor Riesel

The crisis-maker who, with several colleagues of the airline strike team, may decide what day much of the U.S. shall stand still, is Paul Leroy (Roy) Siemiller. At 62, though president of the vast International Association of Machinists, he still is one of labor's "new" men.

Under his gentle-voiced guidance history is positively repeating itself much to the horror of the White House. Exactly a year ago in San Francisco, Roy Siemiller quietly told this columnist there would probably be an airline strike. Today, without benefit of bulges or dramatics, he has spoken similarly to this newsman about a possible stoppage of the country's Class A railroads—about 96 of them.

NOTE THAT A YEAR AGO the airline contracts were due to expire at midnight, New Year's Eve, 1965. So it is now with the railroads and the six shop craft unions—150,000 men made up of machinists, as well as boilermakers, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, electricians, firemen and oilers and carmen.

The machinists, 40,000 of them, are led by Siemiller's general vice president Joe Ramsey—the same chap who led the airline strikers on the actual battle front. Siemiller and Ramsey are a tough team—and they expect to be ready with heavy demands at 12:01 a.m. Jan. 1, 1967—the first moment the contract permits them to "reopen on wages and major fringes."

The Machinists' leaders will threaten to strike. The usual ballet Americaine will unfold. There will be mediation. The President will declare an emergency and set up a board.

IT WILL ROLL ON towards the summer. Who strikes in wintertime? And when the government has run out of brakes, there will be a strike unless the railroads capitulate.

True, two rail brotherhoods have accepted a 5 per cent increase. But:

"Our machinists will not accept 5 per cent," Siemiller told this correspondent in the same quiet Midwestern twang in which he predicted an airline stoppage a year ago. "We don't truly care what the others have taken. Five per cent just is not enough. If we have to, we'll fight for more. Nobody likes to talk strike but nobody in our ranks will talk 5 per cent either."

If there is a strike, the Machinist pickets would be fanning out at railroad yards east and west of Chicago and St. Louis, and north and south of New York just about the vacation season that the airline pickets hit the bricks at airports in '66.

It's these new men of labor who give the White House labor specialists the jitters. The nation is full of them now. While the public watches the veteran Walter Reuther polish up the plunge and armor for the big thrust, the new men, working in the gray of the spotlight area, really are preparing for battle with industrial giants.

THERE IS, FOR EXAMPLE, a brand new national union president, Peter Bommarito, who has been head of the United Rubber Workers (URW) for only three months now. But he's set for the big time.

This will be next April 20 when the little-known union, strategically placed right in the gut of our industrial-military production establishment, tackles the Big Four Rubber Corporations. The labor-management contracts expire that day.

Will the unon strike?

"We are playing for big stakes this coming year," said Bommarito recently. "Let the companies take notice .. . 1967 will be the year the URW places its reputation on the line as a leader in obtaining benefits for its members."

Thus the rail and rubber crises pick up steam in the late spring. At this time Reuther's Auto Union forces will dash into the field with thunderous new demands devised in a public mass conference.

IT WILL BE A HOT SUMMER—here and in Viet Nam. And the White House will be sweating it out unless the President gets some new laws—or congressional threat of action—to cool it.

The first cooler will come in the President's State of the Union speech or in a special message to Congress. That's why the President asked his trouble shooter, Joe Califano, to get up a sub-cabinet level study group of professors, economists and departmental representatives to work out some magic formula.

The labor men predict there can be no formula. There only can be cash—on the line—to cap the pressure from below and keep it from blowing the new men of labor sky high.

It will be fascinating to observe what happens when the presidential cooling meets the overheated pressure.

Equality?

By David Lawrence

It Should Apply Everywhere

The biggest paradox of our times appears to be unnoticed by the peoples of the free world. Plenty of indignation is being voiced because a white minority in Rhodesia will not allow the right of self-determination to be exercised by the black majority in that country. Ironically, nobody seems to care about the fate of the white majority not only in the Soviet Union but in the six Communist countries of Eastern Europe and the three former Baltic states, which are frequently referred to as "captive nations" because their present regimes were imposed by Moscow.

A small minority known as the Communist party rules the Soviet Union and insists that there shall be no opposition. Nobody can vote against the party in power. The same thing is true in Poland, East Germany, Hungary and the other countries in the Communist bloc.

IT'S SURPRISING that even the United Nations is being urged by some of the African nations to enforce "sanctions" on Rhodesia in order to punish the white minority. No such measures are being suggested to deal with the exercise of a dominant authority by the white minorities in each of the Communist-bloc countries.

Would the same thing be true if the Communist party consisted only of whites, and the vast majority of the peoples in the Soviet Union, Poland, East Germany and Hungary were black? Would there be talk of "sanctions" to punish the minority for its refusal to grant liberty to the majority of the population in each country?

The answer is not hard to find. For only the small, white minorities who rule colored majorities are assailed today, while white majorities are suffering an agony of enslavement. Is this because the members of the United Nations are afraid to band together and take collective action to establish freedom for the majority of the population in each of the "captive" countries?

IT'S EASY ENOUGH to punish the white minority in Rhodesia and to cut off the trade of that country and inflict hardships on the entire population—all in the name of human freedom. Commendable as is the objective of those who want to see the majority rule in Rhodesia, there is an obvious inconsistency in the unwillingness of the principal nations of the world today to do anything about the subjugation of vast numbers of people—indeed, the majority—in each of the Communist countries.

Although ethnic Russians constitute only about half of the population of the Soviet Union, Russians dominate the Communist party and its leadership. Thus a small minority of one particular nationality rules the whole country through the system of Communist party discipline.

In recent years, Romania and Czechoslovakia have achieved some small measure of independence of Moscow, but they are still dominated by the single-party Communist system. It's generally believed that the self-determination achieved in these two countries is not complete but is a form of neutrality as between the Communist parties of Red China and the Soviet Union, respectively.

ALTHOUGH SOVIET TROOPS have been withdrawn from those countries and from Bulgaria as well, they still constitute a considerable occupation force in East Germany, Poland, Hungary and the Baltic States. Backed by the power of military coercion, the white minority rules the roost in several countries.

It's a good thing, of course, for the United Nations to implore free peoples everywhere to take an interest in the fate of the majorities in those countries which are under the yoke of minorities of any kind. There would be more enthusiasm for a glorification of the idea of self-determination if it were applied consistently throughout the world.

Until public opinion throughout the world insists that the principle be applied everywhere, not just where black people are concerned, there will be little progress made toward the establishment of equal rights for all majorities.

GOP Spent $2.9 Million For Shafer

Shapp Spent $2.8 Million In Pennsylvania Drive

HARRISBURG (AP) — Milton Shapp spent about $2.8 million on his unsuccessful Democratic campaign for the governorship, and the Republicans spent about $2.9 million for the campaigns of Gov.-elect Raymond P. Shafer and his running mates, according to expense accounts.

The accounts were filed with the State Elections Bureau, as required by law, Thursday was the deadline.

Much of Shapp's $2.8 million — perhaps some $1,000,000 — was his own money. Observers on Capitol Hill said no other gubernatorial candidate in the state's history ever financed his campaign so heavily from his own pocket.

Shapp, who spent an estimated $1.4 million — also mostly his own money — in upsetting Robert P. Casey, the organization candidate, in the primary, was accused by Republicans during the campaign of trying to buy the election.

Shapp filed two expense accounts, one for the Make Shapp Governor Committee, the other for his personal expenses.

The committee listed total expenses of $1.8 million and reported it still owes $140,304.99.

It listed contributions of over $2,000 from major unions including the United Steelworkers, the United Auto Workers, and the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

Shapp had campaigned hard for the union vote.

Shapp's personal account listed total expenses of $606,138.68 and unpaid debts of $171,528.70.

In an interview in Philadelphia, Shapp said he owes $1.2 million borrowed from a bank, but that he should be able to pay it off with contributions still coming in.

The Democratic State Committee listed total expenses at $383,045.15, expenditures at $367,019.33, and said it had no unpaid bills.

The Republican State Committee, in its account, said it spent $1.7 million and has $440,948 in unpaid bills. It said $996,000 of its $1.8 million in receipts came from the Republican State Finance Committee.

The Finance Committee, said it spent another $617,198 on other campaign purposes, and the Shafer for Governor Committee, said it spent about $70,000 for a total of $2.9 million.

The Republicans have a $100-a-plate dinner scheduled for Jan. 16, the eve of Shafer's inauguration, to raise money for their unpaid bills.

Shafer also filed a personal expense account totaling $3,350 — a $3,000 contribution to the Finance Committee and $350 to the Crawford County Republican Committee. He lives in Crawford County.

Mellon Gives $35 Million Art Collection To Yale U.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Philanthropist Paul Mellon has given Yale University one of the world's outstanding private art collections, $35 million worth of British works he gathered over the last 15 years.

Along with the collection of 17th-, 18th-, and 19th-century paintings, watercolors, drawings and books, Mellon also presented his alma mater funds to build a gallery and library where they can be displayed. The building's cost is estimated at between $6 million and $9 million.

The gifts were announced Thursday by Kingman Brewster Jr., president of Yale. Mellon, a member of the class of 1929, was not present for the announcement of the donation.

The collection, regarded by the university as the greatest body of British art outside Britain, is composed of 1,000 oil paintings, 3,000 watercolors, prints and drawings and 4,000 rare books.

The oils and watercolors are representative of what is known as the golden age of British painting from 1697 to 1851 and include 29 Hogarths, 35 Turners, 66 Constables, and 55 Gainsboroughs.

Private dealers estimated the worth of the collection at $35 million.

Mellon, 59, is president of the National Gallery of Art in Washington. His father, Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the Treasury under three presidents, gave the gallery to the nation as a $70-million gift over 30 years ago.

That's why, Zickafoose explained, he stole a car in Circleville, drove to nearby Bainbridge and parked beside a police cruiser, waiting there until Bainbridge officers heard the stolen car report and arrested him.

So Zickafoose, whose previous term for assault with intent to kill, is headed "home" for 1-20 years for auto theft.

Credit Union Sets Election

The City Employes' Credit Union will elect officers at its annual meeting Thursday, Jan. 26.

The date was announced by Auditor Lawrence J. Zollinger, president, when the group met Thursday afternoon at City Hall. He named a nominating committee comprised of D. G. Wilkinson, chairman, Jack Bonner and Wilbur Harmon.

Committees and officers will report at the annual meeting and the membership will discuss its 1966 accomplishments and set objectives for the new year, Zollinger said. Mrs. Phyllis Stewart, secretary, will mail formal notices of the meeting to all members.

Zollinger reported yesterday the Credit Union now has 70 members against a goal of 100 for the year. He said the membership campaign will continue. He also reported on the examination of the organization's books made by Victor Price, Federal Credit Union examiner. The examiner made suggestions for strengthening the organization which will be put into effect as soon as possible, he added.

Francis Wise, chairman of the credit committee, reported eight loans were made in November —the highest total in any one month in the organization's history. Mrs. Stewart read the minutes and Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver, treasurer, also gave a report.

Wise commended Mrs. Helen Steffen for preparation of placards "advertising" the availability of holiday loans for members.

Man Given 90-Day Sentence On Lack Of Driver's Permit

An East Liverpool district man cited for the second time in two months on a charge of driving without an operator's permit was given a 90-day County Jail term when he appeared today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Robert E. Adkins of R. D. 3 pleaded guilty to the charge filed by Deputy Sheriff Dave Brothers, who said he arrested the defendant Thursday at 11:40 p. m. on St. Clair Ave. Ext. The deputy said he cited Adkins after receiving a report the man had been driving in erratic fashion.

—:—

QUESTIONED by the judge, Adkins said he has been driving "off and on for two years" without a permit. Examining the defendant's record, the judge found he had been sentenced to a 10-day jail term in September, also for driving without a license.

"Apparently you did not learn a lesson the first time," the judge told Adkins.

Two drivers who pleaded guilty to charges of speeding on Route 7 were given 10 - day suspensions of their operator's permits.

Donald Lee Bennett, 20, of Post Office Box 343, Wellsville, also was fined $15 and costs. The State Highway Patrol said he was cited Sunday at 9:30 p. m. on a charge of driving 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

William C. Hogue of Irondale was fined $20 and costs in addition to the license suspension. The patrol said he was cited at 4:50 p. m. Dec. 1 on a charge of speeding 80 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone.

William Landy of 212 Mulberry St. was ordered to pay court costs on each of two charges—driving without an operator's permit and improper auto registration.

He was cited Monday at 10:13 a. m. on Walnut St. by Patrolman James Buckley. He pleaded guilty to each charge, but explained that since he was cited he has taken steps to obtain a new driver's license and transfer the registration on his auto.

Larry Bruce Marshall of Sherwood Ave. also was ordered to pay court costs on a charge of operating a car with a faulty muffler. He was cited by the patrol Tuesday on E. 5th St. Pleading guilty Wednesday, he was given until today to have the muffler replaced.

Terry A. Martin of Waynesburg, Pa., forfeited a $17.50 bond on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone. He was cited by the patrol Thursday at 6:40 p. m. on Route 30.

—:—

HEARINGS are due Monday for two motorists cited by the patrol Thursday on charges of speeding 60 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. They are Richard C. Steffy of Steubenville and Thomas H. Lewis of 411 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville.

Facts and Fallacies about Jewelry

by W. D. ORR

FALLACY:
An inexpensive watch keeps as good time as any other.

FACT:
Even the least expensive watch will often keep good time for a while. However, because it lacks the jewels and the precision manufacture of a really fine watch, it will wear out much faster and become less reliable, as well as less accurate. A better watch also adds the bonus of lasting beauty to its superior movement.

CONCLUSION:
You'll enjoy the beauty and precise accuracy of one of our fine watches for many years to come. Choose from many time-honored names.

from interfering in any way with the non-strikers — supervisory and office personnel; interfering with shipments to and from the plants; loitering or congregating around the plants, and instigating or assisting anyone in the commission of these acts.

Judge Buzzard said the order applies until further order of the court and pending further hearing of the plaintiff's motion for a permanent injunction.

The strike began Nov. 2. Officials said they were first barred from the plants on Nov. 23 and that the number of pickets has run as high as 80 at one gate in Columbiana and 40 at one gate in Leetonia. Pickets locked arms or massed their bodies to stop non-strikers from getting into the plants, officials testified.

The NRM plants employ approximately 900 and have an annual payroll of $5,304,000, the plaintiff's petition stated. There are 701 hourly employes engaged in production, many of whom are members of the defendant international and its local. The remainder are salaried employes not represented by the union.

Officials also testified the pickets park in front of service areas, preventing deliveries or shipments.

In that connection, the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Akron filed a replevin action against NRM Corp. yesterday in Common Pleas Court for $2,039 worth of machinery parts it ordered and paid for, but which have not been delivered.

Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan left for the NRM plant this morning, accompanied by a truck from the Goodyear firm, to load the parts.

Facts about cleaning carpets with Blue Lustre

A gallon of Blue Lustre cleans the equivalent of six 9x12 rugs, depending on soil.

Traffic paths may be removed without cleaning wall-to-wall if rest of carpet shows no soil.

Blue Lustre raises beaten-down nap at doorways, leaving pile open and lofty.

It costs only about 1c per square foot to clean your carpet. Blue Lustre electric shampooers may be rented for $1 a day.

Carpets stay new-looking if you keep Blue Lustre handy to remove spots and traffic paths as they appear. Since it contains no soap, there is no residue to cause rapid re-soiling. It dries to an invisible crystaline powder containing the soil, removed by vacuuming.

You'll be delighted by the way Blue Lustre restores forgotten colors in both carpets and upholstery.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Have you ever decided to use a favorite pattern a second time, or needed to use the pattern twice to cut out a dress and lining from the same pattern piece . . . only to discover that you had practically cut out the darts with the wheel marker the first time you marked the darts?

After cutting out the pattern piece and putting colored carbon paper and pattern in place on the material, lay a piece of plastic wrap over the pattern and mark the darts with your wheel marker.

The plastic wrap clings to the pattern and the dart lines are clearly visible through the wrap, but the wheel does not cut through the wrap or the pattern.

DEAR HELOISE: Since my husband often works at night, I do most of my housework in the evening.

I have only one clothesline and no dryer, so I have a little plan which I call "getting an early start on tomorrow."

I hang several small items such as handkerchiefs, socks, underwear, dish and wash cloths, etc., on a clothes hanger, using a clothespin on each item.

In fact, I hang everything on hangers, using clothespins on the items that might fall off.

I hang all these filled hangers on the rod in the shower overnight and when morning comes, I just take the hangers to my outside line and pin them to the line with clothespins.

It saves space and the hangers of dry clothes are easy to collect.

If the weather is bad, I leave the clothes-laden hangers on the shower curtain rod, turn on the bathroom heater, and close the door.

Your idea is wonderful. This is also a good idea for insomniacs as there is no use tossing and turning in bed when we can get up and get something done, is there?

I still say that women (and men) can clean house or get any old chore done at night when they can't sleep!

And, do you know what? you would be surprised how many of your neighbors write that they do the same thing.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I wonder if you realize how you have cluttered up my home. I never throw a single thing away anymore for fear I'll find some use for it in your column the next day.

The old potato sacks, plastic strawberry boxes, tin cans and 420 used match sticks are slowly inching me out of the house!

DEAR HELOISE: When making fudge or other candy, some of the candy often sticks to the empty pan before you have a chance to wash it.

Ever try filling the pan with water and boiling it?

It melts the hardened candy, and you can pour the whole works down the drain. Saves a lot of elbow grease.

DEAR HELOISE: For people who don't like night lights and yet need some guidance at night in the home, why not put luminous star decals (that glow in the dark) at the doors, light switches, etc.?

Also, children learning to sleep without lights like to look at the "sky" stars on ceilings.

DEAR HELOISE: Have trouble putting curtains on the rod?

Put a small plastic bag over the end first.

A clothespin at the other end of the rod prevents the curtain from slipping off while trying to slide the rest of it on.

Upbuilding Plan For Thin Girl

Ida Jean Kain

For tired, tense thin girls, weight gaining is an uphill struggle. If you haven't much appetite, it is easy to habitually eat too little. Poor appetite can stem from a number of factors — faulty eating habits, not taking time to eat, irregularity of meals and chronic fatigue.

The starting place for improving nutrition is to think in terms of replenishing nutrients. Nutrition is the process of assimilating food. Certain nutrients aid in the assimilation. It has been pointed out that millions of people eat what they want to eat, and pay little attention to what they should eat in order to be well nourished. They are the tired ones.

THE NUTRITIONALLY important foods are divided into four groups -- milk, cheese, ice cream group; meat, fish, poultry group; vegetable and fruit group; whole grain cereal and bread group. The good values in these protective foods work together in nutrition teamwork.

For the thin girl particularly, it is important to take food when the body is rested.

If you habitually skimp on the morning meal, try adding a small portion of one nourishing food, such as a few tablespoons of hot, whole grain cereal, perhaps with chopped prunes, dates or apricots added. Experiment and find a bread that tastes simply delicious. Limit coffee to one cup.

If your food capacity is small, it's a good plan to eat small, nourishing quantities but to eat more often. Mid - morning have a glass of milk and a graham cracker, but take it early enough so as not to lessen your appetite for lunch.

WITH A finicky appetite it is imperative to establish regular meal hours. Never skip a meal and try not to go past your meal hour. Build an appetite. Take a leisurely lunch hour if possible. No more hasty sandwich, coffee, cigarette lunches.

Over - fatigue is perhaps the worst offender, for fatigue affects appetite adversely and lessens the body's ability to take care of food. Oddly enough, under - nutrition tends to stimulate hectic activity.

A fast pace and a crowded schedule during the day leads to insomnia at night, and a vicious cycle ensues. Practiced relaxation — letting go of muscle tensions — with more time spent in the fresh air leads to a more relaxed day and better sleep at night. Peace, it's wonderful!

Persistence in an upbuilding program will bring an increase in nervous stability. Then with more calories in the foods which furnish the good nutrients, you will gain and feel like a new person.

Robert Oswald thinks the Warren Commission, although correctly naming his brother as the killer, failed to determine a motive.

Oswald, 32, a sales manager for a Wichita Falls, Tex., brick company, says he's writing a book he hopes will explain why and provide new details.

"I would hope it is done in a manner which will shed additional light on Lee's over-all general character, which, in my opinion, was cut short in the commission report," he said in an interview Thursday with the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

For the thin girl particularly, it is important to take food when the body is rested.

If you habitually skimp on the morning meal, try adding a small portion of one nourishing food, such as a few tablespoons of hot, whole grain cereal, perhaps with chopped prunes, dates or apricots added. Experiment and find a bread that tastes simply delicious. Limit coffee to one cup.

If your food capacity is small, it's a good plan to eat small, nourishing quantities but to eat more often. Mid - morning have a glass of milk and a graham cracker, but take it early enough so as not to lessen your appetite for lunch.

WITH A finicky appetite it is imperative to establish regular meal hours. Never skip a meal and try not to go past your meal hour. Build an appetite. Take a leisurely lunch hour if possible. No more hasty sandwich, coffee, cigarette lunches.

Over - fatigue is perhaps the worst offender, for fatigue affects appetite adversely and lessens the body's ability to take care of food. Oddly enough, under - nutrition tends to stimulate hectic activity.

A fast pace and a crowded schedule during the day leads to insomnia at night, and a vicious cycle ensues. Practiced relaxation — letting go of muscle tensions — with more time spent in the fresh air leads to a more relaxed day and better sleep at night. Peace, it's wonderful!

Persistence in an upbuilding program will bring an increase in nervous stability. Then with more calories in the foods which furnish the good nutrients, you will gain and feel like a new person.

SHREVPORT, La. (AP) — Freddie Lee Tate, 20, got shot in the knee Thursday and he says his dog did it.

Tate says he was sitting in the front seat of his car with a .22 caliber rifle by his side when the dog jumped from the back seat to the front and stepped on the trigger.

Tate was treated at a Shreveport, La., hospital and released.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — "One thing that has always bothered me is the why of this thing," says Robert Oswald, the brother of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

Robert Oswald thinks the Warren Commission, although correctly naming his brother as the killer, failed to determine a motive.

Oswald, 32, a sales manager for a Wichita Falls, Tex., brick company, says he's writing a book he hopes will explain why and provide new details.

"I would hope it is done in a manner which will shed additional light on Lee's over-all general character, which, in my opinion, was cut short in the commission report," he said in an interview Thursday with the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Batman's assistant, Robin, is joining the alimony-paying set.

Burt Ward, 20, who plays Robin in the television series, agreed Thursday in Santa Monica, Calif., to pay his wife Bonney alimony and child support.

Mrs. Ward filed suit for divorce last Nov. 17 on the grounds of mental cruelty. The couple, married for 19 months, has a daughter, Lisa, three months.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: After a long day at the hospital (I'm chief of surgery) I picked up the paper and turned to your column. I was overwhelmed by the letter from the distraught woman whose brother committed suicide after he had run over a child playing in the street.

An hour ago I had to face an anguished mother and tell her that her 4-year-old, blue - eyed son had died on the table. He, too, was riding his tricycle in the street and had been hit by a truck. His little body was so entangled with the trike that the boy and the trike were laid together on the stretcher. .

I cannot count the times I have been called to the emergency room to face sobbing parents whose child was playing in the street. Sometimes we are lucky and can mend the broken body but too often we cannot.

I would like to ask the parents who are reading this column, "Do you want your child to grow up to be an adult?" You will of course reply, "What a foolish question!"

But I warn you, the next time you allow him to ride his trike any place he chooses, he may not come back to you alive. — ANONYMOUS M.D.

Dear M. D.: Many thanks for taking the time and trouble to write. More than 50 million people will see your letter and some of them will heed your warning.

Sense Of Humor

Dear Ann: I used to think you had a good sense of humor but I'm beginning to wonder. Your reply to the young couple who named their poodle Pearl, after their mother who had just died, was dumb.

I named by hamster Lily, after Mom, and she was honored. I'll bet if that mother named Pearl was alive she would be honored, too. —MIKE.

-:-

Dear Mike: If Pearl were alive she'd probably be honored, but Pearl isn't alive, and that's the difference. It's okay to name a pet after the living but I feel it is disrespectful to name a dog after a recently deceased mother.

Book Learning

Dear Ann: I'm a high school senior who read something in a psychology book that sounded a lot like your column. It was straight to the point and it made a lot of sense.

Often you print letters from girls who get into trouble because they engage in premarital sexual relations. Parents could help prevent such trouble if they understood a few things.

Here is the quote and I hope you consider it worth publishing because 90 per cent of the mothers and fathers in this country never see a psychology book:

"The parent of the opposite sex wields a powerful influence on a child's attitude toward sex. The impact of a father's personality on his daughter is often far greater than he suspects. A girl whose father does not admire her or take an interest in what she does often feels cheated and turns to another male whose admiration she hopes to win.

"In an attempt to satisfy the emotional needs not met by her father, she may try to hold the devotion of a boy friend by giving too freely of herself. This could lead to physical intimacy." — MONTREAL MISS.

Dear Montreal: The quote you sent is excellent. It expresses in forthright, easy-to-understand language one of the major reasons for promiscuity. I appreciate you sending it to me and I hope it makes a dent.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Mechanics Strike Mohawk Airlines

UTICA, N.Y. (AP) — Nearly 500 mechanics struck Mohawk Airlines at midnight Thursday, but the company said today the "majority of its flights" would continue.

The mechanics, all members of Local 75 of the International Association of Machinists, set up picket lines at the nation's largest regional carriers' 14 terminals.

The strike came in the face of an apparently unsuccessful meeting Thursday in Washington, D.C., among company and union leaders and the National Mediation Board.

The union voted two weeks ago to authorize the strike if agreement was not reached by today on a disputed employe-pension plan payment schedule.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN HORN

Children's Programs

The American way of television for children is given a good going-over by Doreen Stephens, head of family programs for the British Broadcasting Corp., in a recent lecture just available in pamphlet form.

Most of the talk is devoted to discussion of aims and programs in England, but Miss Stephens does formulate five principles which could apply here as well.

SHE SAYS television's duty and responsibility are to use the medium to enrich and enlarge a child's experience.

She insists that children (1) must want to choose to watch programs, (2) should be entertained and enjoy the programs, (3) should be treated with respect as people, without condescension or concession, and (4) should not be overprotected in the choice and presentation of content.

It is her acid remarks on U.S. television, however, that will perk up American parents' ears and minds.

"Unfortunately," she says, "their (children's) lack of experience makes them vulnerable — to those who find them easy meat for slick, corny, undemanding entertainment, for all the well-meaning kindly uncle or aunt figures who want to do them good in a sugary, soft and sentimental way, for the adult with an eye on the till and visions of a quickly-turned penny in return for little trouble.

"BECAUSE of their lack of experience, children can be led too easily. They are not discriminating; they have too little experience to make comparisons and judgments. In America, on television, they have programs especially for the whole range of unquestioning people — adults and children. The 'kiddi-dult' programs they call them.

"Current favorite 'kiddi-dult' program in this country at present is 'Batman,' but — and this speaks well for both the British educational system and the over-all standard of radio and television programs in this country — its appeal has proved to be less strong and compulsive than in the States.

"After the first novelty its attraction wears off. Its main continuing appeal is for young viewers, 70 per cent of the 5-to-7 age group, 50 per cent of all children, and of course those older viewers who remain 'kiddi-dults.'"

MISS STEPHENS made this severe judgment:

"In the U.S.A. there has been no tradition of a strong public service corporation. As a result, the children have been the target of competing commercial networks seeking the largest audience for the least expenditure.

"Ralph Garry, director of the Boston School of education, leads a crusade of intellectuals vs. advertisers for the minds of American children.

"But only in a few local stations, hamstrung for lack of money, facilities and staff, are the children really treated with anything but almost cynical contempt, and even where the national networks have made a gesture the results are too often not well conceived."

A FOLLOW-UP to the story told in "A Time for Burning," a National Educational Television film about the controversy surrounding a Lutheran pastor's attempt to prepare his Omaha, Neb., community for the inevitability of racial change and his subsequent forced resignation, will be presented on CBS Television Feb. 26.

The hour special will preempt the network's two regular religious programs, "Lamp Unto My Feet" and "Look Up and Live."

Although CBS has done follow-up programs before — most notably on youth in Webster Groves, Mo., early this year — this is the first instance within memory of a follow-up to a controversial educational television program being telecast on a commercial network.

-:-

WILLIAM C. JERSEY, who produced the original documentary as one of his "Quest" productions for the Lutheran Film Associates, also will produce the successor.

Among reactions he will incorporate in the new program will be that of former CBS News president Fred W. Friendly, who said of "A Time for Burning": "I don't think there ever has been a better civil rights boradcast."

Edward P. Morgan of ABC devoted a radio broadcast to the effect of the film.

Children's Programs

The American way of television for children is given a good going-over by Doreen Stephens, head of family programs for the British Broadcasting Corp., in a recent lecture just available in pamphlet form.

Most of the talk is devoted to discussion of aims and programs in England, but Miss Stephens does formulate five principles which could apply here as well.

SHE SAYS television's duty and responsibility are to use the medium to enrich and enlarge a child's experience.

She insists that children (1) must want to choose to watch programs, (2) should be entertained and enjoy the programs, (3) should be treated with respect as people, without condescension or concession, and (4) should not be overprotected in the choice and presentation of content.

It is her acid remarks on U.S. television, however, that will perk up American parents' ears and minds.

"Unfortunately," she says, "their (children's) lack of experience makes them vulnerable — to those who find them easy meat for slick, corny, undemanding entertainment, for all the well-meaning kindly uncle or aunt figures who want to do them good in a sugary, soft and sentimental way, for the adult with an eye on the till and visions of a quickly-turned penny in return for little trouble.

"BECAUSE of their lack of experience, children can be led too easily. They are not discriminating; they have too little experience to make comparisons and judgments. In America, on television, they have programs especially for the whole range of unquestioning people — adults and children. The 'kiddi-dult' programs they call them.

"Current favorite 'kiddi-dult' program in this country at present is 'Batman,' but — and this speaks well for both the British educational system and the over-all standard of radio and television programs in this country — its appeal has proved to be less strong and compulsive than in the States.

"After the first novelty its attraction wears off. Its main continuing appeal is for young viewers, 70 per cent of the 5-to-7 age group, 50 per cent of all children, and of course those older viewers who remain 'kiddi-dults.'"

MISS STEPHENS made this severe judgment:

"In the U.S.A. there has been no tradition of a strong public service corporation. As a result, the children have been the target of competing commercial networks seeking the largest audience for the least expenditure.

"Ralph Garry, director of the Boston School of education, leads a crusade of intellectuals vs. advertisers for the minds of American children.

"But only in a few local stations, hamstrung for lack of money, facilities and staff, are the children really treated with anything but almost cynical contempt, and even where the national networks have made a gesture the results are too often not well conceived."

-:-

Concern Shown Over Protection In Madison Twp.

Madison Township Chief Constable Clarence Ammon, in issuing a report on November activities, said he does not believe the township will receive adequate police protection for the coming year because of lack of operating expenses.

Ammon pointed out Sherman Rohr resigned as constable Dec. 1 because of insufficient funds to provide for patrol duty.

He said Rohr was unable to afford the expense of using his own car and providing gas, oil and tires with only a small portion of the $50 a month allotted all four constables.

Ammon said he understands many residents of the township think constables get more than $100 a month, and pointed out this is not true.

The failure of a proposed police levy, he said, causes him to think the people expect the Sheriff's Department to protect the township when the deputies have the whole county to cover.

"If a levy had passed in Madison Township, a police phone could have been listed, and we could have two other constables to be on duty to receive any calls and answer any emergency in the township."

Ammon reported 1,132 miles patrolled in November, 20 complaints and three accidents investigated. One suspect in an armed robbery was taken into custody for Jefferson County officials.

Potters' Harris Named To All-Ohio First Defensive Unit

Strong Opening Foes . . .

Coach Clinton McConnell can get a pretty good line on his Potters in their first two games this weekend.

They're not opening with any patsies, but will have to be at their best if they expect to get off on the right foot.

Pittsburgh Westinghouse, which shot 53 per cent at the Steubenville Community Arena Tuesday night in a 20-point victory over Central, definitely poses a problem in tonight's opener.

Central Coach John Nese claims 6-7 Ed Kemp "could be the best big man we'll see at the Arena this season." Kemp led Westinghouse with 30 points against the Crusaders.

The Potters go into action again Saturday night, traveling to Alliance. McConnell considers the Aviators the team to beat in the Big 8 Conference. We understand Alliance coach Dick Brockett feels the same about the Potters.

East Liverpool can floor one of the tallest teams in many seasons and the Potters seem to have some above average talent. As McConnell said, it may take the players time to adjust to a new system and the new Potter coach is a taskmaster on defense, a phase of the game he has been stressing since practice began.

We look for an interesting season and the schedule holds some outstanding competition.

COLUMBUS EAST, who the Potters face at Memorial Auditorium Jan. 6, already has drawn a vote from a local official as one of the best teams in the state. Jim (Jazzo) Migliore, who officiated the Salem-East game last Saturday night, rates the Columbus team one of the outstanding quints in Ohio.

They have a 6-7 pivot man plus a 6-6 cager and two most promising sophomores standing 6-4 each.

Salem coach John Cabas had only the highest praise for the Columbus team after his Quakers lost by 34 points.

LaScola Is Coach Of Year . . .

FORMER Wellsville standout Joe LaScola has been named Coach of the Year in the Detroit area by the Associated Newspapers for his record this past football season at Cherry Hill High School near the Motor City.

LaScola, who only a few years ago won a state basketball championship in Michigan with his Holy Redeemer team, carved out a 5-2 record this season and was runnerup in his league.

His selection came after he rebuilt Cherry Hill into a title contender. A doormat of the league before LaScola took over, the team posted a 2-5 record in 1965, good enough to get it out of the league cellar.

This past season the Spartans stayed in the league race until the very last second of the season, losing a 6-0 decision on the final play of the game.

Joe also coaches basketball at Cherry Hill. He moved into the Detroit area, taking over at Holy Redeemer, and in 1965 moved to his present job. LaScola began coaching at Dover St. Joseph's High School.

Vanlier Dazzles Opponents . . .

MIDLAND'S Norm Vanlier continued his scoring and playmaking prowess Tuesday night when he dropped in 20 points against William and Mary as St. Francis gained its third straight victory.

Last Saturday night, in a romp over Grove City, Vanlier pumped in 24 points.

In three games for the sophomore - studded Frankies, Vanlier has scored 53 points, for a 17.6 average. He is No. 2 scorer on the team, trailing the leader by eight.

The Frankies next date is Saturday night against St. Joseph's College at Philadelphia's Palestra.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

FROM the 5th Down publication of the Football Writers Association of America comes a story about a new delay of the game.

Added to the list of official times out for yardage measurements, TV commercials, etc., is a new airborn delay which popped up recently at Blair, Neb. where the Westmar and Dana college teams were in action.

As the last half began, officials scanned the sky. One of them signaled time out and very shortly a parachutist tumbled into the end zone. A moment later, another time out. A second 'chutist' came down at the 30-yard line.

It was part of an Omaha Skydivers Club act scheduled to feature Dana's halftime program. Wind delayed the jumps. Two other Skydivers missed the gridiron, one landing outside and another in a tree.

DUFFY DAUGHERTY, of Michigan State told a high school banquet audience: "Look at our Bubba Smith (280 or so). He once was an 89-pound weakling — when he was three years old."

EX-POTTER coach Frank Chan shows two victories in the same number of starts in his new post as head coach at Beaver Falls High School. The Tigers opened with an impressive 83-43 victory over rival New Brighton then defeated Beaver 87-67 earlier this week.

Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fleet-footed Mike Palmer, the thunderbolt halfback from Steubenville, heads up a host of talented backs named to The Associated Press Class AA All-Ohio football team.

Palmer, a heralded 5-foot - 9, 170-pound senior sought by a number of colleges, was the only repeater from last year's all - state squad.

East Liverpool's outstanding defensive end, Chuck Harris, who was the lineman of the year in the Eastern District, today was named to the Associated Press All-Ohio first defensive unit.

Along with Harris, two other East Liverpool players were named to the honorable mention list. They are Darryl Herring, senior halfback and Mike McVay, junior quarterback.

Other district gridders named to the honorable mention team were Beaver Local's fine tackle Allan Moore and Wellsville halfback Todd Weekley.

There was such an abundance of outstanding runners that the AP dream team has four running backs, instead of the usual three.

District boards, consisting of sports writers and sportcasters from throughout Ohio, helped in choosing the scholastic gridders for statewide recognition.

Palmer was the big gun in Coach Abe Bryan's attack with 18 touchdowns and 1,047 yards rushing. He led the Big Red to a 9-1 campaign, crashing an average 7.1 yards every time he carried the ball.

The all - state backfield has speed, power and an awesome scoring punch that accounted for 539 points.

Leophus (Honda) Hayden of Dayton Roosevelt rang up 1,223 yards in 150 carries and scored 126 points. Larry Zelina of Cleveland Benedictine, rated one of the finest backs ever to come out of the Cleveland area, scored 21 touchdowns and rambled 985 yards despite playing sparingly in three games because of an injury. He led Benedictine to two straight Cleveland city titles.

The other first team back is Marty Huff of Toledo St. Francis, who rushed for 1,199 yards and smacked for 14 touchdowns in addition to handling kickoffs, extra points and placements.

The quarterback spot went to Don Plusquellic of Akron Kenmore, who tossed 20 touchdown passes while completing 57 per cent of his aerials for a whopping 1,732 yards.

Outstanding linemen dominate both the offensive and defensive units. Vic Malinovsky, Sandusky stellar guard, head up the offensive line that also includes tackles Brian Donovan who played for mythical state champion Columbus Watterson.

Tony Capers of Warren Harding landed the other tackle spot. In addition to his brilliant play in the line, Capers excelled as a placekicker.

The linebackers are quick and strong with the likes of Tom Ecrement of Canton Glenwood, the top player of the year in Stark County, and 280 - pound Alex Davis of Hamilton Garfield.

Rex Kern of Lancaster, one of the state's heralded quarterbacks, and Randy Cooper of Lima Senior, a strong running threat, both landed berths as defensive backs because of their ability to go both ways.

MacPhail Out To Build Yanks

Maris Traded To Cards For 3rd Baseman Smith

NEW YORK (AP) — Lee MacPhail, working feverishly over the shattered New York Yankees, continues to operate at his favorite market place — the National League.

The new Yankee general manager shipped Roger Maris and his $75,000 salary tag to St. Louis for third baseman Charley Smith Thursday.

It was MacPhail's second deal since being hired to help rebuild the Yankees, who finished the 1966 season mired in the American League cellar for the first time in 42 years. Ten days ago he swapped third baseman Clete Boyer to Atlanta for outfielder Bill Robinson.

It was MacPhail, then working for Baltimore, who engineered the biggest inter-league trade of 1965 when he dealt three players to Cincinnati for Frank Robinson.

MacPhail can hardly expect the same kind of instant success for the Maris swap that Robinson brought to Baltimore. Smith is a journeyman third baseman who carries a lifetime batting average of .243.

It was an open secret that the Yankees were ready to unload Maris, who only five years ago broke Babe Ruth's record for home runs when he hit 61 in a 162-game season.

"I wasn't at all surprised," the slugging outfielder said after being told of the deal. "I rather expected it. In fact, I expected to be traded ever since 1962."

Smith, who has played for the Los Angeles Dodgers, Philadelphia Phillies, Chicago White Sox and New York Mets as well as St. Louis, wasn't nearly as composed.

"I'll be darned," he exclaimed.

Maris, twice chosen the American League's Most Valuable Player, dominated baseball in 1961 with his blistering home run pace.

After his record-shattering season, he rocketed into baseball's higher salary class but his production slipped noticeably. He hit 33 homers in 1962, 23 in 1963 and 26 in 1964.

He was crippled by injuries through most of 1965, appearing in just 46 games and hitting only eight homers. He underwent surgery for the removal of bone chips at the base of his right hand after the season and played in 119 games last season, managing only 13 homers.

Only Two Certain To Start Tonight In ELHS Opener

The list of those who might be in the starting lineup for the Potters in tonight's opener with Pittsburgh Westinghouse has been narrowed to seven.

Coach Clinton McConnell, who will make his debut in East Liverpool tonight at Memorial Auditorium, has seven players from whom he will draw his starting lineup and two of those are sure to be in the starting five.

McConnell said Vern Smith, 6-1 senior and last year's leading scorer and junior Earl Diddle, a clever playmaker, will be definite starters.

THE OTHER three will come from a group of Mike McVay, 6-1 junior, Bill Carter, 6-2 senior, Rex Campbell, 6-2 junior, Bruce Christian, 6-4 junior or Mitchell Jones, 6-5 junior.

There has been seven to nine players running equal in practice and scrimmage sessions and McConnell has found it difficult to decide on who to start but all are expected to see a lot of action tonight.

PITTSBURGH Westinghouse brings a 1-1 record to East Liverpool with a loss in its opener to New Castle and an 83-63 victory over Steubenville Central Tuesday night.

The big gun for Westinghouse is Ed Kemp, 6-7 senior pivot man. The long, lean Kemp has scored 56 points in two games. Other starters for Westinghouse are Gellin Terry, 6-2, Bob Nelson, 6-1, Arthur Day 6-1 and J. Brown 5-9.

Following tonight's game, the Potters journey to Alliance to meet a much improved Aviator team that has a 2-0 record but plays a strong Cuyahoga Falls team tonight.

ALLIANCE has an all experienced team with four regulars returning from last year's squad.

Leading the Aviators is Al Thigpen, a 6-3 senior who is rated a good jumper and was the leading scorer last season. In two games he has scored 42 points.

Jim Brabson, at 6-4, is the tallest member of the starting five. He only played the first half of last season when an injury sidelined him for the second part of the campaign.

—:—

ANOTHER regular last year is Dave Boyle, 6-2 senior. While not much of a scorer he is rated a good board man.

Ed Osley, a 6-foot senior, was a starter for half of last season but was suspended from the squad for disciplinary reasons midway through the campaign. Osley is rated a good shooter and is expected to team with Thigpen in the point department.

The fifth starter will be either Barry Snodgrass, or Lionel Grimes, a pair of 5-10 juniors. Ray Taylor, another 5-10 junior, is sure to see some action.

ALLIANCE has beaten Western Reserve of Warren, 61-44 and Ravenna 72-30.

McConnell said the regulars only played about 10 minutes of each game against Western Reserve and Ravenna but scored at a rapid pace.

Alliance coach Dick Brockett rates East Liverpool with the best teams in northern Ohio.

Brockett said "it is a long way until tournament time, but I predict the Potters will be heard from before the season is over."

Tonight's varsity game is expected to start about 8:15 p. m. The reserve games at East Liverpool this season will get underway at 6:45 p. m., fifteen minutes earlier than last season.

ANOTHER regular last year is Dave Boyle, 6-2 senior. While not much of a scorer he is rated a good board man.

Ed Osley, a 6-foot senior, was a starter for half of last season but was suspended from the squad for disciplinary reasons midway through the campaign. Osley is rated a good shooter and is expected to team with Thigpen in the point department.

The fifth starter will be either Barry Snodgrass, or Lionel Grimes, a pair of 5-10 juniors. Ray Taylor, another 5-10 junior, is sure to see some action.

ALLIANCE has beaten Western Reserve of Warren, 61-44 and Ravenna 72-30.

McConnell said the regulars only played about 10 minutes of each game against Western Reserve and Ravenna but scored at a rapid pace.

Alliance coach Dick Brockett rates East Liverpool with the best teams in northern Ohio.

Brockett said "it is a long way until tournament time, but I predict the Potters will be heard from before the season is over."

Tonight's varsity game is expected to start about 8:15 p. m. The reserve games at East Liverpool this season will get underway at 6:45 p. m., fifteen minutes earlier than last season.

Parseghian, The Organizer, Did Job In 3 Years

By JERRY LISKA

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Two giant pictures — Knute Rockne on the left and Ara Parseghian on the right — hung over the long rostrom as the Notre Dame Club of Chicago held its Rockne Memorial Dinner in a jammed hotel ballroom Monday night.

There they were — Rock, the master psychologist, and Ara, the dynamic organizer, sharing the adulation of 1,500 Irish alumni gathered to cheer Notre Dame's first national champion football team in 17 years.

In just three years, Armenian Protestant Parseghian had gained the stature as a worthy successor to the legendary Rockne enjoyed previously mainly by Frank Leahy.

Leahy, one of six Notre Dame schooled descendants of Rockne to coach the Irish left in 1953 with an 87-11-9 record after 11 seasons.

Leahy did receive a great ovation at the Monday night affair, but he was seated in the crowd —not on the rostrum. The first three Notre Dame seasons for Leahy and Parseghian were almost identical. Frank posted 24-4-3, winning the first of his four national titles in 1943, his third Irish season, with a 9-1 record.

Parseghian's three-season Irish mark is 25-3-2, capped this year with a 3-0-1 record which won the national title based on the final Associated Press poll—first for Notre Dame since Leahy's 1949 club.

All this, the intense, fiery Parseghian did mainly with material inherited from predecessors who had a combined record of 7-10-0 in 1962 and 1963. Rockne's 13-season Notre Dame reign produced a 105-12-5 record, a .897 percentage that still tops major college coaching.

Parseghian, 43, has a composite 100-44-4 record spanning his head coaching at Miami of Ohio, Northwestern and Notre Dame.

Parseghian once before had an undefeated season, a perfect one, when the last of his five Miami Redskin Clubs posted 9-0 in 1955.

Parseghian, a coach with a snappy staff, split-timing in practice sessions and player incentive awards, is contracted at Notre Dame through 1969.

Next season, Parseghian will be operating with the first Irish squad he fully recruited. Graduating All-America stars Nick Eddy, Jim Lynch, and Tom Regner, plus Pete Duranko, Alan Page and Larry Conjar all were recruited by Hugh Devore or Joe Kuharich.

Duke Will Test UCLA's Alcindor

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Can Lew Alcindor do it again for UCLA against Duke tonight?

The 7-foot-1⅜ inch sophomore, hailed as the greatest player in present-day college basketball, made an awesome varsity debut by scoring 56 points against Southern California last Saturday. Whether he can do it against the tougher Blue Devils from the Atlantic Coast Conference remains to be seen.

"We're not conceding UCLA anything," said Vic Bubas, Duke coach, before the Blue Devils left Durham, N.C., for the game at Pauley Pavilion on the UCLA campus in Los Angeles.

The Blue Devils, seventh-ranked nationally to the top-ranked Bruins in The Associated Press poll, would dearly love to repeat their two victories over UCLA last season.

The Duke triumphs by 82-66 and 94-75 last December when UCLA came East, started the Bruins on the downward path that cost them the national championship.

Meantime Johnny Wooden, UCLA coach, reported Alcindor would be up for the Blue Devils, although his right calf swelled somewhat after receiving an unintentional kick in the Bruins' 105-90 conquest of Southern California.

The impending battles of Duke and UCLA tonight and Saturday overshadowed the scare little Pan-American College gave Texas Western Thursday night before the national champions pulled it out 67-65 at El Paso.

Willie Cager, with 24 points, and David Lattin, with 22, sparked a comeback by the second-ranked Miners that erased an eight-point Pan American lead in the second half.

Fifth-ranked Houston, the only other team in the AP Top Ten to see action, also had trouble scoring an 89-81 home court triumph over Southwestern Louisiana.

Creighton, Memphis State and St. John's of New York downed major opponents on the road. Creighton spoiled Wichita's home opener with a come-from-behind 91-88 victory. Memphis State also rallied to beat Rice 63-54. St. John's defeated Holy Cross 77-60.

Oak Glen Wrestlers Trip Brilliant In First Match

Oak Glen's wrestling team got off on the right foot with a 31-9 victory over Brilliant in its opening match Thursday night at Oak Glen.

The Golden Bears of Vince Monseau won nine of the 12 matches.

Jack Everly, 120 - pounder and heavyweight Kit Carson led the victory by recording pins. Everly's came at 2:35 while Carson put his opponent away in 50 seconds.

Decisions were picked up by Mike Swartzmiller who won a 5-2 verdict in the 95 pound class. Rick Price (103) won 6-1, Ralph Louk (127) posted a 6-0 victory Fred Miller (133) won 72. Dave Lowther was a 14-0 winner. Jim Myers finished on top 6-2 and Glenn Greathouse picked up a 14-10 verdict.

Oak Glen will wrestle at Morgantown tonight at 5:30 preceding the basketball game between the two schools.

The results follow:

95 — Swartzmiller (OG) decisioned Frye (B) 5-2.

103 — Price (OG) decisioned Bednerek (B) 6-1.

112 — Sterling (B) decisioned Hobbs (OG) 12-1.

120 — Everly (OG) pinned Kovach (B) 2:35.

127 — Louk (OG) decisioned Kirkland (B) 6-0.

133 — Miller (OG) decisioned Huggins (B) 7-2.

138 — Hockenberry (B) decisioned Wern (OG) 8-1.

Green Bay Has Won Last 4 Tilts

Colts To Shoot The Works Against Packers Saturday

BALTIMORE (AP) — John Unitas and the Baltimore Colts, rankled by four straight defeats by Green Bay, are primed for one big shoot-the-works effort Saturday against the favored Packers, who can clinch the Western Conference title of the National Football League with a win or tie.

Green Bay, which has been working out all week in seclusion in Gaithersburg, Md., is in the driver's seat with a two-game lead and two games to play.

Bart Starr has been having a fantastic year with his pinpoint passing and low interception percentage. Unitas, the old master, has been having trouble with a sore shoulder and is off his usual super pace. But John usually rises to the occasion.

The long-awaited rematch will be beamed across the nation on network (CBS) television, starting at 3:15 p.m., EST.

The Colts squirmed all winter after losing that sudden death playoff game at Green Bay, complaining that Don Chandler's controversial field goal that tied the score was not good. A recent television film was cited as evidence in their favor.

Green Bay has been sitting back quietly, having cashed their 1965 winning checks long ago, but there is evidence that the Colts' complaints have not gone unnoticed in Packerland. The leather will be popping Saturday.

Baltimore psyched up so high for the first game with the Packers, Sept. 10 that it was almost a crusade. The bottom fell out for the Colts when Leroy Caffey and Bob Jeter intercepted passes by Unitas and ran them back for touchdowns on the way to a decisive 24-3 victory.

Elijah Pitts took over from Paul Hornung when the Golden Boy suffered a pinched nerve in his neck and has become a regular. Hornung, who scored five touchdowns against the Colts at this same time last year, has been used sparingly.

Many think Lombardi will take the covers off Paul on Saturday. Dependable Jim Taylor still is the bread-and-butter runner.

Green Bay is favored because the Packers, despite the long ball punch of Baltimore's Unitas, have outscored the Colts 294-274 and, more important, have allowed only 130 points to 198 against the Colts. Both teams have a good pass rush and the ability of their respective offensive lines to nullify that rush, probably will decide the battle.

Unusually mild weather has settled over Baltimore with the temperatures in 60s or even higher. It is supposed to cooler by Saturday with a chance of showers.

The Green Bay-Baltimore game is Saturday's only pro football action. The rest of the National League and the American League swing into action Sunday.

St. Louis, trailing first-place Dallas by one game in the Eastern race with two remaining, plays at Atlanta while the Cowboys entertain Washington. Both the Cardinals and Dallas are heavy favorites. Elsewhere, Pittsburgh visits New York, Minnesota is at Detroit, Cleveland plays at Philadelphia and San Francisco hosts Chicago.

Little Potters Loop Will Not Operate

Announcing with regret, the Little Potters Basketball program will have to be curtailed for the coming basketball season due to the financial cutbacks in the school system. With the cutbacks eliminating the use of the Junior High gymnasiums during the evenings and the heavy schedule for the Broadway gymnasium make it impossible to operate the league this year. We know this is a step backwards to our athletic program and along with the elimination of our Junior High football and basketball programs next fall.

The announcement was made by Harry McConville, president of the Little Potters League and Charles Winters, vice president.

Cain's assignment was made Thursday.

Barry Finds Mark Again, Hits For 50

Rick Barry's one-man point-making performance kept the National Basketball Association's Western Division a one-team show Thursday night.

The sophomore forward, a runaway scoring leader in the NBA, pumped in 50 points as he led the San Francisco Warriors to a 124-106 victory over the St. Louis Hawks in Phoenix, Ariz.

The triumph increased the Warriors' lead to 5½ games over the Hawks and left San Francisco the only team in the division over .500 at 18-9. The Hawks missed a chance at the break even point and fell from second to third in the West at 11-13.

In the only other game, Chicago pulled away to a 132-120 decision over Baltimore behind Bob Boozer, Guy Rodgers and Jerry Sloan in a struggle between the last-place clubs in each division.

Barry, who hit 57 points earlier this season, scored his 1,-000th point early in the first half as the Warriors built a 69-43 halftime bulge.

Packers Picked To Defeat Colts

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Green Bay should wrap it up in the Western Conference but Dallas may have to wait until the last day of the season to nail down the Eastern Conference title in the National Football League.

Boston starts on the first stop of a perilous two-game road trip, needing wins over both Houston and the New York Jets to be sure of finishing ahead of Buffalo in the Eastern sector of the American Football League. Kansas is keeping sharp with a game at Miami, having already won the Western title.

Here are the picks (all games Sunday unless otherwise noted):

NFL

Green Bay 24, Baltimore 20 (Saturday)—Colts in desperate spot, two games back with two to go. Packers came into same game last year, trailing by one-half game, but bombed Colts in the fog when Paul Hornung scored five times. Johnny Unitas was out last year but he is ready now, shaking off sore arm to beat Bears last week. Green Bay won Sept. 10 game 24-3 on key interceptions by Lee Roy Caffey and Bob Jeter.

Dallas 34, Washington 24—Cowboys on hot streak with four straight victories. Redskins coming off bye after 72-41 rout of New York. Dallas edged Washington 31-30 Nov. 13, blowing 21-6 lead when Sonny Jurgensen started hitting but winning on Danny Villanueva's field goal with 15 seconds to go.

St. Louis 17, Atlanta 10—Cards still have mathematical chance but may be drooping after tough loss to Dallas. Falcons sky high after beating Vikings in the show. St. Louis has too much defense and Terry Nofsinger proved he could score last week.

Cleveland 31, Philadelphia 24—The Browns handled Eagles 27-7 on Nov. 13 when Philadelphia offense sputtered. Cleveland must win to stay alive with faint hope in East.

San Francisco 27, Chicago 20—These teams played a 30-30 tie four weeks ago. John Brodie had a big day with 327 yards and Tommy Davis tied score with field goal with nine seconds to go.

Minnesota 23, Detroit 17—Lions won first game 32-31 when Gary Yapremian kicked six field goals and Fran Tarkenton was intercepted five times. Tarkenton regains starting role after game on bench.

Pittsburgh 21, New York 20—Giants have lost six straight and gave given up 121 points in last two games while scoring 81.

Beavers Win In Overtime

Bruce Diddle's two foul shots, his only points of the game, gave Beaver Local a 27-25 overtime victory Thursday at Leetonia.

The victory was the second in as many starts for the young Beavers. Beaver Local trailed 19-15 at the end of the third quarter but tied the score 23-23 at the end of regulation time. Diddle's two fouls broke the 25-25 tie.

Scott Dubberly paced Beaver Local with 11 points while Taylor tossed in 10 for the losers.

BEAVER LOCAL—27
Dubberly 4-3-11; Bentz 3-2-8; Parish 3-0-6; Diddle 0-2-2; Veness 0-0-0. Totals 10-7-27.

Parseghian, The Organizer, Did Job In 3 Years

By JERRY LISKA

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Two giant pictures — Knute Rockne on the left and Ara Parseghian on the right — hung over the long rostrom as the Notre Dame Club of Chicago held its Rockne Memorial Dinner in a jammed hotel ballroom Monday night.

There they were — Rock, the master psychologist, and Ara, the dynamic organizer, sharing the adulation of 1,500 Irish alumni gathered to cheer Notre Dame's first national champion football team in 17 years.

In just three years, Armenian Protestant Parseghian had gained the stature as a worthy successor to the legendary Rockne enjoyed previously mainly by Frank Leahy.

Leahy, one of six Notre Dame schooled descendants of Rockne to coach the Irish left in 1953 with an 87-11-9 record after 11 seasons.

Leahy did receive a great ovation at the Monday night affair, but he was seated in the crowd —not on the rostrum. The first three Notre Dame seasons for Leahy and Parseghian were almost identical. Frank posted 24-4-3, winning the first of his four national titles in 1943, his third Irish season, with a 9-1 record.

Parseghian's three-season Irish mark is 25-3-2, capped this year with a 9-0-1 record which won the national title based on the final Associated Press poll—first for Notre Dame since Leahy's 1949 club.

All this, the intense, fiery Parseghian did mainly with material inherited from predecessors who had a combined record of 7-10-0 in 1962 and 1963. Rockne's 13-season Notre Dame reign produced a 105-12-5 record, a .897 percentage that still tops major college coaching.

Parseghian, 43, has a composite 100-44-4 record spanning his head coaching at Miami of Ohio, Northwestern and Notre Dame.

Parseghian once before had an undefeated season, a perfect one, when the last of his five Miami Redskin Clubs posted 9-0 in 1955.

Parseghian, a coach with a snappy staff, split-timing in practice sessions and player incentive awards, is contracted at Notre Dame through 1969.

Next season, Parseghian will be operating with the first Irish squad he fully recruited. Graduating All-America stars Nick Eddy, Jim Lynch, and Tom Regner, plus Pete Duranko, Alan Page and Larry Conjar all were recruited by Hugh Devore or Joe Kuharich.

Duke Will Test UCLA's Alcindor

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Can Lew Alcindor do it again for UCLA against Duke tonight?

The 7-foot-1⅜ inch sophomore, hailed as the greatest player in present-day college basketball, made an awesome varsity debut by scoring 56 points against Southern California last Saturday. Whether he can do it against the tougher Blue Devils from the Atlantic Coast Conference remains to be seen.

"We're not conceding UCLA anything," said Vic Bubas, Duke coach, before the Blue Devils left Durham, N.C., for the game at Pauley Pavilion on the UCLA campus in Los Angeles.

The Blue Devils, seventh-ranked nationally to the top-ranked Bruins in The Associated Press poll, would dearly love to repeat their two victories over UCLA last season.

The Duke triumphs by 82-66 and 94-75 last December when UCLA came East, started the Bruins on the downward path that cost them the national championship.

Meantime Johnny Wooden, UCLA coach, reported Alcindor would be up for the Blue Devils, although his right calf swelled somewhat after receiving an unintentional kick in the Bruins' 105-90 conquest of Southern California.

The impending battles of Duke and UCLA tonight and Saturday overshadowed the scare little Pan-American College gave Texas Western Thursday night before the national champions pulled it out 67-65 at El Paso.

Willie Cager, with 24 points, and David Lattin, with 22, sparked a comeback by the second-ranked Miners that erased an eight-point Pan American lead in the second half.

Fifth-ranked Houston, the only other team in the AP Top Ten to see action, also had trouble scoring an 89-81 home court triumph over Southwestern Louisiana.

Creighton, Memphis State and St. John's of New York downed major opponents on the road. Creighton spoiled Wichita's home opener with a come-from-behind 91-88 victory. Memphis State also rallied to beat Rice 63-54. St. John's defeated Holy Cross 77-60.

Oak Glen Wrestlers Trip Brilliant In First Match

Oak Glen's wrestling team got off on the right foot with a 31-9 victory over Brilliant in its opening match Thursday night at Oak Glen.

The Golden Bears of Vince Monseau won nine of the 12 matches.

Jack Everly, 120 - pounder and heavyweight Kit Carson led the victory by recording pins. Everly's came at 2:35 while Carson put his opponent away in 50 seconds.

Decisions were picked up by Mike Swartzmiller who won a 5-2 verdict in the 95 pound class. Rick Price (103) won 6-1, Ralph Louk (127) posted a 6-0 victory Fred Miller (133) won 72. Dave Lowther was a 14-0 winner. Jim Myers finished on top 6-2 and Glenn Greathouse picked up a 14-10 verdict.

Oak Glen will wrestle at Morgantown tonight at 5:30 preceeding the basketball game between the two schools.

The results follow:

Green Bay Has Won Last 4 Tilts

Colts To Shoot The Works Against Packers Saturday

BALTIMORE (AP) — John Unitas and the Baltimore Colts, rankled by four straight defeats by Green Bay, are primed for one big shoot-the-works effort Saturday against the favored Packers, who can clinch the Western Conference title of the National Football League with a win or tie.

Green Bay, which has been working out all week in seclusion in Gaithersburg, Md., is in the driver's seat with a two-game lead and two games to play.

Bart Starr has been having a fantastic year with his pinpoint passing and low interception percentage. Unitas, the old master, has been having trouble with a sore shoulder and is off his usual super pace. But John usually rises to the occasion.

The long-awaited rematch will be beamed across the nation on network (CBS) television, starting at 3:15 p.m., EST.

The Colts squirmed all winter after losing that sudden death playoff game at Green Bay, complaining that Don Chandler's controversial field goal that tied the score was not good. A recent television film was cited as evidence in their favor.

Green Bay has been sitting back quietly, having cashed their 1965 winning checks long ago, but there is evidence that the Colts' complaints have not gone unnoticed in Packerland. The leather will be popping Saturday.

Baltimore psyched up so high for the first game with the Packers, Sept. 10 that it was almost a crusade. The bottom fell out for the Colts when Leroy Caffey and Bob Jeter intercepted passes by Unitas and ran them back for touchdowns on the way to a decisive 24-3 victory.

Elijah Pitts took over from Paul Hornung when the Golden Boy suffered a pinched nerve in his neck and has become a regular. Hornung, who scored five touchdowns against the Colts at this same time last year, has been used sparingly.

Many think Lombardi will take the covers off Paul on Saturday. Dependable Jim Taylor still is the bread-and-butter runner.

Green Bay is favored because the Packers, despite the long ball punch of Baltimore's Unitas, have outscored the Colts 294-274 and, more important, have allowed only 130 points to 198 against the Colts. Both teams have a good pass rush and the ability of their respective offensive lines to nullify that rush, probably will decide the battle.

Unusually mild weather has settled over Baltimore with the temperatures in 60s or even higher. It is supposed to cooler by Saturday with a chance of showers.

The Green Bay-Baltimore game is Saturday's only pro football action. The rest of the National League and the American League swing into action Sunday.

St. Louis, trailing first-place Dallas by one game in the Eastern race with two remaining, plays at Atlanta while the Cowboys entertain Washington. Both the Cardinals and Dallas are heavy favorites. Elsewhere, Pittsburgh visits New York, Minnesota is at Detroit, Cleveland plays at Philadelphia and San Francisco hosts Chicago.

East Junior Gains First Cage Victory

East Junior romped to its first victory of the season with a 40-13 decision over East Palestine Thursday on the East Junior court.

After a slow first quarter which saw East leading 4-2, the Panthers moved out to a 17-5 halftime margin.

Steve Golden flipped in 11 points to pace the winners while Jim Parsons added eight. Huffman and Strawn had four points each for the losers.

East Junior returns to action Monday at Columbiana.

Little Potters Loop Will Not Operate

Announcing with regret, the Little Potters Basketball program will have to be curtailed for the coming basketball season due to the financial cutbacks in the school system. With the cutbacks eliminating the use of the Junior High gymnasiums during the evenings and the heavy schedule for the Broadway gymnasium make it impossible to operate the league this year. We know this is a step backwards to our athletic program and along with the elimination of our Junior High football and basketball programs next fall.

The announcement was made by Harry McConville, president of the Little Potters League and Charles Winters, vice president.

Cain To End 30 Years As Football Official

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Thirty years of football officiating for James Cain ends Dec. 31 when the Seattle insurance man referees the Shrine East-West game.

This will be the ninth East-West contest for Cain, who has announced his retirement. He has twice officiated in the Rose Bowl and played there for Washington in 1937.

Cain's assignment was made Thursday.

Barry Finds Mark Again, Hits For 50

Rick Barry's one-man point-making performance kept the National Basketball Association's Western Division a one-team show Thursday night.

The sophomore forward, a runaway scoring leader in the NBA, pumped in 50 points as he led the San Francisco Warriors to a 124-106 victory over the St. Louis Hawks in Phoenix, Ariz.

The triumph increased the Warriors' lead to 5½ games over the Hawks and left San Francisco the only team in the division over .500 at 18-9. The Hawks missed a chance at the break even point and fell from second to third in the West at 11-13.

In the only other game, Chicago pulled away to a 132-120 decision over Baltimore behind Bob Boozer, Guy Rodgers and Jerry Sloan in a struggle between the last-place clubs in each division.

Barry, who hit 57 points earlier this season, scored his 1,-600th point early in the first half as the Warriors built a 69-43 halftime bulge.

Packers Picked To Defeat Colts

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Green Bay should wrap it up in the Western Conference but Dallas may have to wait until the last day of the season to nail down the Eastern Conference title in the National Football League.

Boston starts on the first stop of a perilous two-game road trip, needing wins over both Houston and the New York Jets to be sure of finishing ahead of Buffalo in the Eastern sector of the American Football League. Kansas is keeping sharp with a game at Miami, having already won the Western title.

Here are the picks (all games Sunday unless otherwise noted):

NFL

Green Bay 24, Baltimore 20 (Saturday)—Colts in desperate spot, two games back with two to go. Packers came into same game last year, trailing by one-half game, but bombed Colts in the fog when Paul Hornung scored five times. Johnny Unitas was out last year but he is ready now, shaking off sore arm to beat Bears last week. Green Bay won Sept. 10 game 24-3 on key interceptions by Lee Roy Caffey and Bob Jeter.

Dallas 34, Washington 24—Cowboys on hot streak with four straight victories. Redskins coming off bye after 72-41 rout of New York. Dallas edged Washington 31-30 Nov. 13, blowing 21-6 lead when Sonny Jurgensen started hitting but winning on Danny Villanueva's field goal with 15 seconds to go.

St. Louis 17, Atlanta 10—Cards still have mathematical chance but may be drooping after tough loss to Dallas. Falcons sky high after beating Vikings in the show. St. Louis has too much defense and Terry Nofsinger proved he could score last week.

Cleveland 31, Philadelphia 24—The Browns handled Eagles 27-7 on Nov. 13 when Philadelphia offense sputtered. Cleveland must win to stay alive with faint hope in East.

San Francisco 27, Chicago 20—These teams played a 30-30 tie four weeks ago. John Brodie had a big day with 327 yards and Tommy Davis tied score with field goal with nine seconds to go.

Minnesota 23, Detroit 17—Lions won first game 32-31 when Gary Yapreman kicked six field goals and Fran Tarkenton was intercepted five times. Tarkenton regains starting role after game on bench.

Pittsburgh 21, New York 20—Giants have lost six straight and gave given up 121 points in last two games while scoring 81.

Beavers Win In Overtime

Bruce Diddle's two foul shots, his only points of the game, gave Beaver Local a 27-25 overtime victory Thursday at Leetonia.

The victory was the second in as many starts for the young Beavers. Beaver Local trailed 19-15 at the end of the third quarter but tied the score 23-23 at the end of regulation time. Diddle's two fouls broke the 25-25 tie.

Scott Dubberly paced Beaver Local with 11 points while Taylor tossed in 10 for the losers.

BEAVER LOCAL—27
Dubberly 4-3-11; Bentz 3-2-8; Farish 3-0-6; Diddle 0-2-2; Veness 0-0-0. Totals 10-7-27.
LEETONIA—25
Taylor 5-0-10; Murray 0-0-0; Coseno 4-1-9; Kornbail 3-0-6; Scullion 0-0-0. Totals 12-1-25.

BEAVER LOCAL	9	12	15	23—27

Santa and the Giant Fighter

By Lucrece Beale

Santa tells Billy that before he can slay the giant he must free the moon which Goko has sealed in a box. Tweedleknees searches for the magic words that will unseal the box.

Tweedleknees tried on Santa's thinking cap.

CHAPTER FIVE

Patrick Tweedleknees sat on the floor in Santa's living room. He was surrounded by stacks of books and scraps of paper on which strange words were written.

Tweedleknees had been in Santa Land longer than anyone — except Santa, of course, who had been there forever.

Because he had been there so long, it was natural that he knew a great deal about hocus - pocus, abracadabra, mumbo - jumbo and other magic words that could cast or break a spell.

—:—

HE HAD been studying charms and voodoo and hoodoo and the incantations of all the sorcerers he had ever heard of for three days and three nights. Still he hadn't found the magic formula that would release the moon from the box in which Goko the giant had locked it.

Santa was growing impatient. Christmas would soon be here and the giant had vowed to snatch Santa, too, out of the sky when he drove his sleigh on Christmas Eve.

"Give me time," said Tweedleknees huffily. "This is a very difficult assignment. It can't be done in a minute, you know, but I am on the right track." He sniffed importantly and reached for still another book from the piles on the chairs and tables around him.

Santa went to his desk. He rummaged around in the bottom drawer until he found a little red skull cap with a long gold tassel. He set the cap on Tweedleknees' head.

"Try my thinking cap," he said.

—:—

"ARE YOU suggesting that I have not been thinking?" growled Tweedleknees.

"Not at all," replied Santa. "But the thinking cap may help you think. I often use it when I am trying to think of new toys for Christmas. It's been a very big help."

"Hmmp!" grunted Tweedleknees. He tossed the gold tassel out of his eyes, but he kept the cap on.

Mrs. Claus came in from the kitchen and announced that breakfast was served.

"But, my dear," said Santa looking at her in amazement. "We just had breakfast."

"You mean you just had breakfast," retorted Mrs. Claus. "What about this boy? He looks like he hasn't had anything to eat for goodness knows how long!"

Billy was overjoyed. He had been standing there all this time watching Patrick Tweedleknees think. It had been a very hard thing to do because he was dizzy with hunger. His stomach kept growling for food but he himself was too polite to say anything.

He had been sent to bed without dinner the night before and he hadn't had lunch before that because the teacher at school had made him stand in the corner for telling giant stories. He took off his coat and dropped it on the floor beside Tweedleknees.

—:—

"I COULD eat a little, I guess," he said politely. He followed Mrs. Claus into the kitchen and sat down to breakfast.

There were buckwheat cakes stacked two feet tall and sausages long as baseball bats and ostrich eggs big as footballs.

And that wasn't all. There were things no one else would dream of serving for breakfast. Deep-dish apple pie and coconut layer cake with orange filling and seven different kinds of ice cream.

Billy had a helping of everything and several helpings of some things. Mrs. Claus beamed. She said she wished she always had a boy around the house to feed because it made cooking so worth while.

She was frying another batch of ostrich eggs when Tweedleknees burst into the kitchen. His thinking cap was all askew and his spectacles hung on the tip of his nose. He handed Billy a thin green book and shouted, "I've found it! The magic words! They are in this Wizard's Handbook!"

Billy stared at the book in astonishment. It was his own school spelling book!

Boy Takes Perplexing Problem Right To Top

WASHINGTON (AP) — A small businessman from Rhode Island, aged 12, went right to the top with his perplexing business problem. He got some guidance today from Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor.

The problem, as Jimmy Halpin of Johnston, R.I., related in a letter to the secretary, is twofold:

1. Some neighborhood kids are bothering him and his partner in this business venture.

2. The partners rent a garage as their headquarters from the grandmother of the kids bothering them.

Connor said national cases involving restraint of trade usually are handled by the Justice Department but in this case local action is indicated.

The secretary said he hesitated to recommend anything specific without more facts but suggested the kids' grandmother might be able to apply sufficient restraint, perhaps "paddles applied to the seat of the pants."

"My name is Jimmy Halpin, I am twelve yrs. old," the lad began his letter in his own handwriting and pretty much his variety of spelling. "I am president of two small co: 1, Cherry Hill Paper Waste Co. 2, Cherry Hill Gardeners Co. The first co is a co in which my friend Roland Audet and I collect old newspapers, magizenes and books. This co is in an old garage. We pay one dollar rent a month, and we have insurance for 30 cents a month.

"The second co is a co Roland and I dreamed up. We take care of gardens and lawns. These companies give us about $10 a month. So far in the paper co. we made $36.75 in three months. We have booklets keeping track of the amount made, (papers, or money) also of the happenings. We have been robbed three times and the town police fixed that.

"My problem is how do I keep the kids around the neighborhood from bothering us, when it (the land and garage) belongs to their grandmother?

"Dear sir,

"I don't know if I am righting to the right department or not. If I an not writing to the correct one. Please mail to the write one."

Proposal Seeks To Create Milk Marketing Order

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A proposal has been filed with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington for creation of the nation's second largest federal milk marketing order.

Marketing areas at Cleveland and Youngstown, Ohio; Wheeling, W.Va., and Western Pennsylvania would be combined under the proposal.

The proposal was made public Thursday by the Dairymen's Cooperative Sales Association, a Pennsylvania organization and the plan's co-sponsor.

Homer Martz, manager of the Dairymen's Association, said the plan's aim is to improve utilization of the dairy farmer and stabilize the interstate milk market in the area. The order, if approved, would affect some 12,000 independent and cooperative dairy farmers.

The agriculture department is conducting a preliminary survey on the proposal and it is hoped hearings will begin in February, Martz said.

The association said the plan has the support of the Erie — Crawford Dairy Association in Western Pennsylvania and several cooperatives in Ohio.

The United States produces more than a billion metal tubes annually, about half of these being used for toothpaste.

2 Drivers Fined After Collisions

Two women drivers whose cars were involved in three-way crashes Wednesday paid fines of $15 and costs each Thursday in Municipal Court on charges of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

They are Dorothy L. Hurst, 39, of 166 N. Surrey Rd., whose auto was involved in a collision on Lisbon St. at Croft St., and Carol Sue Shallcross, 18, of Andrews Ave., whose auto struck a parked car and a truck on E. 3rd St. at Washington St.

Police said the Hurst car struck the rear of a halted auto and drove it forward into another car, also stopped. The Shallcross car collided with two parked vehicles in turning off Washington St. onto E. 3rd St., police reported.

Boy Takes Perplexing Problem Right To Top

WASHINGTON (AP) — A small businessman from Rhode Island, aged 12, went right to the top with his perplexing business problem. He got some guidance today from Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor.

The problem, as Jimmy Halpin of Johnston, R.I., related in a letter to the secretary, is twofold:

1. Some neighborhood kids are bothering him and his partner in this business venture.

2. The partners rent a garage as their headquarters from the grandmother of the kids bothering them.

Connor said national cases involving restraint of trade usually are handled by the Justice Department but in this case local action is indicated.

The secretary said he hesitated to recommend anything specific without more facts but suggested the kids' grandmother might be able to apply sufficient restraint, perhaps "paddles applied to the seat of the pants."

"My name is Jimmy Halpin. I am twelve yrs. old," the lad began his letter in his own handwriting and pretty much his variety of spelling. "I am president of two small co: 1. Cherry Hill Paper Waste Co. 2. Cherry Hill Gardeners Co. The first co is a co in which my friend Roland Audet and I collect old newspapers, magizenes and books. This co is in an old garage. We pay one dollar rent a month, and we have insurance for 30 cents a month.

"The second co is a co Roland and I dreamed up. We take care of gardens and lawns. These companies give us about $10 a month. So far in the paper co. we made $36.75 in three months. We have booklets keeping track of the amount made, (papers, or money) also of the happenings. We have been robbed three times and the town police fixed that.

"My problem is how do I keep the kids around the neighborhood from bothering us, when it (the land and garage) belongs to their grandmother?

"Dear sir,

"I don't know if I am righting to the right department or not. If I an not writing to the correct one. Please mail to the write one."

Proposal Seeks To Create Milk Marketing Order

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A proposal has been filed with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington for creation of the nation's second largest federal milk marketing order.

Marketing areas at Cleveland and Youngstown, Ohio; Wheeling, W.Va., and Western Pennsylvania would be combined under the proposal.

The proposal was made public Thursday by the Dairymen's Cooperative Sales Association, a Pennsylvania organization and the plan's co-sponsor.

Homer Martz, manager of the Dairymen's Association, said the plan's aim is to improve utilization of the dairy farmer and stabilize the interstate milk market in the area. The order, if approved, would affect some 12,000 independent and cooperative dairy farmers.

The agriculture department is conducting a preliminary survey on the proposal and it is hoped hearings will begin in February, Martz said.

The association said the plan has the support of the Erie — Crawford Dairy Association in Western Pennsylvania and several cooperatives in Ohio.

The United States produces more than a billion metal tubes annually, about half of these being used for toothpaste.

2 Drivers Fined After Collisions

Two women drivers whose cars were involved in three-way crashes Wednesday paid fines of $15 and costs each Thursday in Municipal Court on charges of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

They are Dorothy L. Hurst, 39, of 166 N. Surrey Rd., whose auto was involved in a collision on Lisbon St. at Croft St., and Carol Sue Shallcross, 18, of Andrews Ave., whose auto struck a parked car and a truck on E. 3rd St. at Washington St.

Police said the Hurst car struck the rear of a halted auto and drove it forward into another car, also stopped. The Shallcross car collided with two parked vehicles in turning off Washington St. onto E. 3rd St., police reported.

Essex To Recommend New School District

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state's top school official will recommend next Monday that a new city school district be comprised of the Nelsonville City and York Local school districts, Athens County.

Martin W. Essex, state superintendent of public instruction, will make the recommendation to the state school board.

That's 25 Miles Apiece

Yule Shoppers Will Walk Total Of 2 Billion Miles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tired feet? Wait until Dec. 25.

The American Podiatry Association said today Christmas shoppers would hike an estimated 25 miles apiece this year — for a total 2 billion miles. That's four round trips to the moon.

"In crowded stores, especially around bargain counters, shoppers' feet and ankles are subject to many of the same rigors football players encounter," say the footdoctors.

Worse yet, being an athlete doesn't help much. Christmas shopping, says the APA, "is a much rougher sport than golf or tennis."

Dr. Seward P. Nyman, spokesman for the association's 5,000 doctors ,says "Christmas activity is undoubtedly more severe than people realize. Shoppers will be kicked, stepped on, gouged and generally roughed up.

The association recommended four rules for shoppers:

1. Wear low-heeled shoes. Spike heels are like walking on stilts. Carry on extra pair.

2. Take a five-minute break every hour or so, sit down and flex your toes. Keep feet warm and dry.

3. When queued up in a long line, keep moving. Shift your weight constantly.

4. At the end of the day, massage feet with softening cream and prop them up at an angle higher than the head.

Does Dr. Nyman have any special rules? "Frankly, I try to get my wife to do the shopping. I admire her for being a Trojan."

Middletown Girl, 17, Seeks To Attend Service Academy

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)— Carla Hammond, 17-year-old Middletown High School senior, is shooting for another first to add to her list.

She wants to attend a United States service academy.

She wrote to Rep.-elect Donald E. (Buz) Lukens, (R-Ohio), about the prospects, and her mother, Mrs. John Hammond, says it's "definitely not a gag."

"She's very serious about it," Mrs. Hammond said. Both parents support Carla's goal.

"Carla is very seriously interested in architecture and the enticement of a fully paid tuition has something to do with it," Mrs. Hammond added.

"We strongly believe in equality for women, and women have been discriminated against since time immemorial. Actually Carla has every right to serve her country as much as her brothers do. She has the intelligence."

In her letter, Carla told Lukens she believes it is as "essential for every girl to be educated to her full potential as it is for every boy."

Carla stated she believes she has an equal right to compete. . . for admission to tax-supported military academies."

She has no specific one which she wants to attend — Army, Navy or the Air Force.

Mrs. Hammond said her daughter was the first girl permitted to study mechanical drawing at Youngstown High School after a battle with school authorities. The following year, there were 15 girls in the class.

More recently, Carla was the first white exchange student to attend the all-Negro Mather School in Beaufort, S.C.

John Schrote, a Luken aide, said, "I'm somewhat sympathetic with her on this discrimination against women. The first thing though will be to establish if there are regulations concerning the sex of appointees to the academies."

Woman, 43, Who Tried To Pass Note In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — A woman who authorities said tried to pass a note to Caroline Kennedy telling her that her father, President John F. Kennedy, was not dead, has been sent to Bellevue Hospital for mental observation.

Pamela Timmins, secretary to Mrs. John F. Kennedy, said Caroline, 9, was returning from a nearby church, escorted by a Secret Service man, when the incident occurred Thursday in front of the Kennedy family apartment at 1040 Fifth Avenue.

The Secret Service agent restrained the woman, later identified by police as Josephine Matsko, 43, of Manhattan. Police said she had a history of mental illness.

2 More Killed In Ohio Traffic

A two-car collision near Wooster resulted in one of Ohio's latest traffic deaths.

The victims:

Janet Chenevey, 23, Orville, Wayne County.

Stella Waller, 66, Chillicothe.

The Orville woman was one of the driver's involved in a head-on collision on U.S. 30 east of Wooster Thursday night. Her son, Ricky, was critically injured and hospitalized in Akron.

The Chillicothe woman was injured fatally Thursday night when struck by a car as she crossed a street in her home town.

8 MALE HELP WANTED

$12,000 PER YEAR

Who ever thought that this much money could be owned by a properly trained Restaurant Manager in this area? Well, we have quite a few in this category, who, just several years ago were salesmen, dairy stand operators, in hospital food service, or simply other restaurant managers who became stymied in their previous job.

Morgan's Restaurants in Butler, Pa. are currently undergoing another expansion program and consequently, we need some more $12,000 a year men. If you've ever entertained the thought of getting into the mammoth food business as it is today, now is the time to send us a letter telling us about yourself and when you'd be available for an interview. You may be awfully glad you did.

That's 25 Miles Apiece

Yule Shoppers Will Walk Total Of 2 Billion Miles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tired feet? Wait until Dec. 25.

The American Podiatry Association said today Christmas shoppers would hike an estimated 25 miles apiece this year — for a total 2 billion miles. That's four round trips to the moon.

"In crowded stores, especially around bargain counters, shoppers' feet and ankles are subject to many of the same rigors football players encounter," say the footdoctors.

Worse yet, being an athlete doesn't help much. Christmas shopping, says the APA, "is a much rougher sport than golf or tennis."

Dr. Seward P. Nyman, spokesman for the association's 5,000 doctors ,says "Christmas activity is undoubtedly more severe than people realize. Shoppers will be kicked, stepped on, gouged and generally roughed up.

The association recommended four rules for shoppers:

1. Wear low-heeled shoes. Spike heels are like walking on stilts. Carry on extra pair.

2. Take a five-minute break every hour or so, sit down and flex your toes. Keep feet warm and dry.

3. When queued up in a long line, keep moving. Shift your weight constantly.

4. At the end of the day, massage feet with softening cream and prop them up at an angle higher than the head.

Does Dr. Nyman have any special rules? "Frankly, I try to get my wife to do the shopping. I admire her for being a Trojan."

Middletown Girl, 17, Seeks To Attend Service Academy

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)— Carla Hammond, 17-year-old Middletown High School senior, is shooting for another first to add to her list.

She wants to attend a United States service academy.

She wrote to Rep.-elect Donald E. (Buz) Lukens, (R-Ohio), about the prospects, and her mother, Mrs. John Hammond, says it's "definitely not a gag."

"She's very serious about it," Mrs. Hammond said. Both parents support Carla's goal.

"Carla is very seriously interested in architecture and the enticement of a fully paid tuition has something to do with it," Mrs. Hammond added.

"We strongly believe in equality for women, and women have been discriminated against since time immemorial. Actually Carla has every right to serve her country as much as her brothers do. She has the intelligence."

In her letter, Carla told Lukens she believes it is as "essential for every girl to be educated to her full potential as it is for every boy."

Carla stated she believes she has an equal right to compete. . . for admission to tax-supported military academies."

She has no specific one which she wants to attend — Army, Navy or the Air Force.

Mrs. Hammond said her daughter was the first girl permitted to study mechanical drawing at Youngstown High School after a battle with school authorities. The following year, there were 15 girls in the class.

More recently, Carla was the first white exchange student to attend the all-Negro Mather School in Beaufort, S.C.

John Schrote, a Luken aide, said, "I'm somewhat sympathetic with her on this discrimination against women. The first thing though will be to establish if there are regulations concerning the sex of appointees to the academies."

Woman, 43, Who Tried To Pass Note In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — A woman who authorities said tried to pass a note to Caroline Kennedy telling her that her father, President John F. Kennedy, was not dead, has been sent to Bellevue Hospital for mental observation.

Pamela Timmins, secretary to Mrs. John F. Kennedy, said Caroline, 9, was returning from a nearby church, escorted by a Secret Service man, when the incident occurred Thursday in front of the Kennedy family apartment at 1040 Fifth Avenue.

The Secret Service agent restrained the woman, later identified by police as Josephine Matsko, 43, of Manhattan. Police said she had a history of mental illness.

2 More Killed In Ohio Traffic

A two-car collision near Wooster resulted in one of Ohio's latest traffic deaths.

The victims:

Janet Chenevey, 23, Orville, Wayne County.

Stella Waller, 66, Chillicothe.

The Orville woman was one of the driver's involved in a head-on collision on U.S. 30 east of Wooster Thursday night. Her son, Ricky, was critically injured and hospitalized in Akron.

The Chillicothe woman was injured fatally Thursday night when struck by a car as she crossed a street in her home town.

The ancient Egyptians shaved their faces except in times of mourning.

Junior Editors Quiz on BOLIVIA

QUESTION: Why does Bolivia have two capitals?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The country now called Bolivia was very important to the Spaniards, who had conquered South America for silver had been discovered there. In 1824, the famous liberator, Simon Bolivar, won an important victory over the Spaniards. He helped the people of what was then called Upper Peru to establish an independent country, which they, in gratitude, renamed Bolivia. One of Bolivar's generals, Antonio Jose Sucre, was elected as Bolivia's first president, and his name was given to the city which was the seat of the government. Another city had been founded by the Spaniards in 1548 — La Ciudad de Nuestra Senora de La Paz. After throwing off the Spaniards, Bolivians called this city La Paz. It was better situated than Sucre to be the seat of the government because of its excellent transportation facilities and it grew to be the center of Bolivia's life. So in 1898, all government offices except the Supreme Court were moved to La Paz, which became the actual capital.
